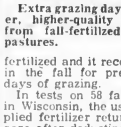
Fall-Fed Pastures Give More Grass, Extra Proteins



CATTLE can have extra days of grazing this fall and an earlier start on fields next spring when permanent pastures are top-dressed with fertilizer this fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Fertilized pastures get off to a quicker start in the spring and usually produce more grass per acre and more protein per pound of grass, according to studies by Midwestern agronomists.

Some agronomists say that fall application of fertilizer are preferable to spring applications in many respects, because of the firmer footing for trucks and spreaders.

Earlier pasturing in the spring on fall-fertilized fields can mean important savings on feed bills.

Bluegrass stays palatable later in the summer when it is well

Extra grazing days, plus thicker, higher-quality grass come from fall-fertilized permanent pastures.

fertilized and it recovers earlier in the fall for precious extra days of grazing.

In tests on 58 farm pastures in Wisconsin, the use of fall-applied fertilizer returned $63 per acre after deducting the cost of fertilizer, according to C. J. Chapman, extension soils specialist.

The pastures received a fall application of 500 pounds per acre of 10-10-10 fertilizer, containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash. Each of the plots yielded an average of 3,562 extra pounds of dry matter per acre from two clippings. Chapman says this increased yield represented a return of $3.50 for every dollar invested in fertilizer.

Your Heating System

We have so many different items to sell, but this time of year most of our time is spent on heating systems and heating problems of all kinds—oil heaters, coal heaters, gas heaters, electric heaters, and wood heaters, parts for them, and service on the old ones now in use. furnace pipe and stove pipe in all sizes. Stove repairs are very hard to get, as so many stove companies have quit business and no repairs for the ones they did make. I have stove repair books but the repair companies have also gone out of business.

We did all kinds of jobs today. Brewster cut up a lot of glass for Mr. Sebring, who lives south of Walton. Then he put up Marvin Kendall's furnace pipe, then serviced Maty K. Hendrick's oil heater, then brought in two from Mrs. Ora Stone to be serviced, then put up new furnace pipe in the Walton Advertiser building. Chick and I wanted an so many customers and so fast I hardly remember who was here. Beckham Shields bought his wife a Sunbeam deep fryer. Mrs. Clarence Schuerman bought a G. E. clock radio, some dishes and several other items.

Sure sorry to hear about my old friend and customer for 21 years, Bill Johnson, passing away so sudden; but that way is best if you have to go, instead of lingering a long time. Bill Johnson was a good man, also a good citizen, and he raised a family that he was proud of, because they are just like Bill was—honest and honorable. Ralph Sparks bought enough Bolce aluminum paint for his roof. Brewster put up new furnace pipe at Zion Baptist Church and a new door closer at the Walton Advertiser building.

Adrian Durr, another one of our good customers over in Kenton county, came in for a blacksmith job, and Chick cut and threaded a lot of ½-inch rods, then he went to lunch. Brewster came in and bent part of these in a V-shape. Chick came back and bent the others in a figure-8 form—these were for a silo. Mrs. Garrett Robinson bought a Sunbeam steam iron. If all of you ladies who use a steam iron would use distilled water in them they would last much longer and would not clog up inside.

Chick sold another Warm Morning coal heater. I sold Ruth Vest a Perfection portable oil heater. Chick sold a large size Perfection oil heater. I sold the best Perfection portable oil heater—it is beautiful, all porcelain, trimmed in chrome. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sturgeon, at Verona, bought this heater. Brewster went over to Verona and set up Mrs. John Carters heating stove, then delivered a Perfection gas heater to Bertha Jack at Beaver, then over on Big Bone Road and set up a coal heater, then out on Green Road to service John Sleets heater.

Mr. Stanley Bailey, over Gardnersville way, came after new furnace pipe. Stanley Kacaba is in nearly every day getting something for his home—they bought down by Marvin Gaines. Geo. Roberts and wife, Mildred came in looking for bicycle parts for their children—George wanted to know what kind of a 20- or 30-gallon fuel oil tank I had that he could use up on the second floor for his fuel oil heater—I showed him a fuel oil pump and a 275-gallon fuel oil tank. This pump will hang on the wall in a closet on second floor and pump the oil as needed.

Newman Armstrong came after furnace pipe—he came back and said he had some elbows that would not turn—we always have trouble with them. Mr. Mathis, over at Verona, bought a large size Perfection oil heater and a 275-gallon fuel oil tank, to be installed Monday. Chick and Brewster put in several sledge hammer and axe handles today. We have so many calls for used Warm Morning coal heaters—they are very scarce.

I have two used coal heaters and a used coal range, all in good condition. I also have two used Norge fuel oil heaters—one with blower and one without. We sure sell the Perfection portable oil heaters. We just received 25 and they are really going out. We have sold so many heaters of all kinds and the cold weather has not come yet, but you had better get ready. Kyle Nicholson just came after five joints of 10" furnace pipe and a draw band for their furnace at home.

We have sold several grate baskets and fire screens this season, also several coal hods and fire shovels. We also have a cast iron top large size wood heater. Today I received an invoice of cast iron wood heaters and two new coal ranges—one white porcelain, the other black cast iron with white porcelain doors. These are small ranges as several have been wanting a small coal range. I have a large used coal range to sell cheap with warming closet and reservoir.

We have been selling paint both inside and outside. Mrs. Corine Cole bought 5 gallons of heavy bodied aluminum roof paint. This does not cover the large area that regular aluminum paint does but it makes an extra heavy coating on an old roof that has a few leaks. Also Falls came after white Jelled Magic for inside painting. We sell some paint every day. Bolce aluminum is 5.50 per gallon but it will cover twice as much space as cheaper aluminum. Two gallons will paint the average house roof, sometimes less, but I like to put it on as it comes from the bucket. Get your hardware, stoves, paint and floor covering at CONRAD HARDWARE.

Christmas Parcels For Overseas Should Be Mailed by Nov. 15

Your post office staff is again reminding you that Christmas parcels for Armed Forces overseas (APO and Navy addresses) should be mailed between October 15 and November 15 to insure delivery by Christmas. Remember to pack securely, address carefully, mail early, and send no perishables.

Mailing procedures for postal patrons are further simplified by the following changes which are effective immediately: (a) Sealed parcels mailed at the third or fourth class rates of postage will no longer require an endorsement authorizing opening for postal inspection; (b) envelopes, wrappers or other covers enclosing publications mailed at second class rates of postage may be sealed.

A mailer who does not desire to have this mail opened in the Postal Service should mark the piece "first class" or with similar endorsement and prepay postage at the first class rate. Sealed publications mailed at second class rates and sealed parcels mailed at third or fourth class rates of postage will continue to be subject to postal inspection.

Newspapers and magazines bearing second class entries constitute second class mail. A complete newspaper may go at second class rate, while part of a newspaper goes at third class rate.

Third class matter consists of circulars and other printed matter and matter eight ounces or less not included in first or second classs mail. Fourth class mail includes parcel post.

State Dept. of Health Urges Kentuckians to Observe Safety Rules

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Home School

Lesson for October 21, 1956

NOT many people are born in a school-house. But most people in America move to some school-house before they are two weeks old. Because then they come home from the hospital; and home is the greatest school in the world. Experts tell us that a child learns more before he is six than he ever learns afterward; but at the age of six he is only just starting to school, as the saying is. It's only a saying, because he has been learning every minute since he first blinked at the light, and most of this he learned right at home. Learning is not just what is printed in books. The child learns to understand and to speak his mother-tongue; he learns to walk and run and eat and play. He learns a little about how to get along with other people. Among the most important things he learns are what never gets into a book—prejudices, habits, attitudes, both good and bad.

Dr. Foreman

Learning Religion at Home

If it is true that our relation to God is more important than any other relation of life, then it is true also that the religion learned in the home is more important than anything else learned there. Suppose a child's home-school teaches everything except religion: how much hope is there that religion will become real to him? There are 168 hours in every week. Take out 56 for sleeping (it would really be more for a child) and you have left 112 waking hours. Let us suppose that little Johnnie Doe, Jr., is sent off to Sunday school by Mr. and Mrs. Doe, who take him and fetch him afterwards, but never, no never go to Sunday school or church themselves. That makes one hour of religion per week, 111 hours of no-religion. How much of anything is a child going to learn if he has less than one per cent of his time to put on it? If all the religious homes of America stopped teaching religion, the churches and synagogues would soon fold up.

But Can Religion Be Taught?

At this point someone may catch us up. Can religion be taught? Isn't it "caught, not taught"? Quite so. The genuine spark is kindled only on the invisible altar of God. But in your car engine, the spark does not come to life in an empty chamber. There has to be there the right mixture of gasoline vapor and air. Without that, the sparks shine for a brief instant and go out—and nothing happens. When a gardener plants vegetables, he knows that if the seed is not fertile his work is useless. Everything depends on a germ he did not and cannot create. But that does not give him leave to quit his job. The gardener's job is to prepare the seed-bed in which the living seed will sprout and not die. So the home prepares the seed-bed in which the living seed of God's grace can bring forth a harvest. Speaking without parables, the home can teach a great many things about religion which can't be learned by inspiration or absorption. The Bible is high among these; in the home begins the work of filling the storehouse of the mind with treasures from the Word of God.

"When Your Son Asks You . . ."

The great sixth chapter of Deuteronomy is perhaps one of the most often quoted chapters of the Bible. In it, father and mothers are commanded to be teachers. God knows that rabbis and priests and preachers are never enough. But we find in this chapter also (among many others) this further thought: Children will not always understand all they are taught. They will ask "Why?" So, when (in the words of Deuteronomy) your son asks, What is the meaning of the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances . . . ?" The father and mother are not to dodge such questions. There is nothing meaningless about true religion; on the contrary, religion discovers life's central meaning. True religion is not a set of "scruples" as an unsympathetic sociologist has put it, —not a collection of senseless "Don'ts." A great phrase in Deuteronomy put a great deal in a few words: true religion, all the commandments of God, everything we ought to believe and be and do, is "for our good always." But father and mother must learn that first before they can teach it.

A BOY'S PRAYER

Dear God . . . there's so much I'd like to say to You. It's that way lots of times. I want to talk to You, and then somehow I get stuck for words.

I guess I do some stupid things, sometimes . . . like that fight with Butch Hendley yesterday. He said something I didn't like and then I said something, and that was it. I guess I won, but afterwards I was kind of ashamed. I told Dad about it last night and he went for a walk with me and we looked up at the sky and the stars. Everything looked so big, all of a sudden, that it scared me. It seemed too big to understand.

Then Dad told me that there are lots of things like the sky and the stars, too big for people to ever understand. And he said that that's where Faith comes in, and that it is good to have the Church to put our trust in.

I got to thinking about that, and I told Dad that I'd kind of like to ask Butch to come to Church with us next Sunday morning, but that I was afraid he wouldn't come. Dad grinned at me and said, "Why not ask him and see?"

Dear God . . . I did ask Butch, and he's coming. Butch hasn't been to Church regularly like I have, so maybe when it comes to praying he'll get stuck for words even worse than I do. But You'll listen to him anyway, won't You? Because he needs You very much . . . just like I do . . . just like all of us do.

Thank You, God.

What put the magic in the new kind of FORD?

The new Ford Fairlane 500 (118-inch wheelbase). Longer, lower, larger than many medium-priced cars, yet lower in price than most of them!

Here's what put the magic in the new kind of FORD!

It started with the "Inner Ford." When Ford planned this baby, they thought in terms of a car through-and-through new.

The wheels got smaller. This Ford is so new that even the wheels have changed. Now smaller and broader, they help you take off quickly.

The wheelbase got longer . . . so now you can choose between a Ford that's over 16 ft. long—or one over 17 ft. long!

The frame got wider. Side rails bow out to give a more stable, safer riding platform . . . a lower, sleeker silhouette.

The ride got smoother. With new suspension, new springing front and rear, the ride this new Ford gives is the smoothest ever.

The handling got easier. Poised and balanced like a panther, this car has swept-back front suspension that works its magic when you need it most.

The power got hotter. There's a wide range of Silver Anniversary V-8's to fit every horsepower need* . . . plus a new Mileage Maker Six.

"Six or V-8 the going is great"

The roof got lower. And it's designed to let you make the easy entries and graceful exits you've always known.

The body got quieter. It's the strongest body built for a low-priced car. No car in Ford's field has such generous sound-proofing.

The room got bigger. There's head room to spare for a tycoon-type hat. There's real stretch-out leg room, too.

The lines got sweeter. They have the Touch of Tomorrow. Each graceful contour says, "Let's go!"

The style got smarter. With this new-look Ford you have a car that belongs anywhere! All Fairlane models look like hardtops.

The value got greater . . . the price is still Ford-low.

*A Special 270-hp Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine available at extra cost. Also, an extra-high-performance Thunderbird 312 Super V-8 engine delivering up to 285 hp.

SEE IT FOR YOURSELF!

So now you know the magic of the '57 FORD!

"I CAN'T AFFORD TO VOTE REPUBLICAN!"

"ONE THING SURE, the prosperity of this country is based on the number of dollars in the pocket of just ordinary folks—not on the big incomes of a favored few. The Republicans haven't been for the average farmer, the small business man, and the wage earner. The Republican candidates today are pledged to a continuation of the same old policies—including Benson's farm policies. The only way to spread prosperity so all of us get our share is to get Benson and the rest of the present Republican policymakers out of office at Washington."

UNDER THE REPUBLICANS

91% of tax relief went to corporations and the wealthy. The rest of us—92% of all Americans—got only 9%. Both Republican candidates for the Senate voted against tax relief for low and middle income families.

Average person's take-home pay increased only 8%, while corporation stockholders' income rose 24%, or three times as much as the rest of us!

Farm income fell 26%
Prices received by farmers fell 18%
Parity has been below 90% ..... now 82%

The small farmer has been discriminated against in the whole farm program. Benson has tried to cut the small Kentucky tobacco grower out of the picture.

UNDER THE DEMOCRATS

Democrats in Congress proposed raising personal income tax exemptions to give tax relief for everybody. The Republicans voted down tax relief. Both Democratic candidates for the Senate favor $800 tax exemption.

Average person's take home pay increased 20%, stockholders' income rose 20%—the same for both of us. Under the Democrats all the people prosper.

Farm income rose 15%
Prices received by farmers rose 15%
Parity was always above 100%

Democrats have fought to restore firm 90% supports. Kentucky Democrats have protected tobacco farmers against Benson.

THAT'S WHY I'M VOTING THE STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIC TICKET NOV. 6

The only basis for the rumor that was told us was that in the cool weather that we had at that time a few pigs were lost by crowding as pigs will pile up during a cool snap. We visited the pens of both of these gentleman and found as fine a bunch of Hampshires as we have seen in a long time. So we wish to correct any wrong impression we may have left with the readers of the Advertiser.

DON'T BE MISLED!

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Sick people are more frequently than otherwise unaware of spine failure in cases of sickness, pain, and disease. Spine failure does not always produce pain or discomfort in the back unless there is acute backache or lumbago but don't be misled. In the great majority of cases the effects of spine failure are observed at some distant point remote from the spine such for example as neuritis in the arm or leg, headache or malfunction of one of more vital organs. Because of this fact, you can be excused for not immediately recognizing the location of your pain or illness being in the spine.

If you have been doctoring for some time and find yourself relieved but not entirely well, might it not be wise to try something different, some new approach and means to locate and remove the cause rather than treating the effects?

In the spirit of a sincere helpfulness it may be suggested that you consult a modern Chiropractor. It may mark the day when you start on the road to vibrant health.

Pasture-Small Grain Combinations Tested

Rye seed, drilled into a permanent bluegrass sod in autumn, yielded spring grazing 2 to 3 weeks earlier than the bluegrass, a test at the UK Agricultural Experiment Station shows.

The extra growth amounted to about 1,000 pounds of hay, the researchers said, and when the rye had been grazed off, there was no apparent damage to the sod and the bluegrass forage yield was comparable to no-rye pastures.

Oats seeded similarly made "practically no growth," the testers said; barley yielded slightly more than oats but "not enough to appear promising." Wheat outyield barley but still fell below the rye production.

The experiment was run for several reasons. One was to save time and money costs in seedbed preparation. Erosion control was another. A third was to see if the permanent bluegrass sod could be maintained without serious damage by the grain seeding.

H. H. Pierce, UK Extension service pasture specialist, said more information is necessary and that research will continue. However, the early results indicate the rye-in-bluegrass might fill a gap in seasonal pasture production."

Special equipment and weather must be considered in evaluating the experimental practice, they added; and "results (damage to permanent sod by the rye-drilling) could be different under other conditions."

The experimenters think the extra forage was produced "at a very reasonable cost."

Rabies Increase Brings Caution From State

Rabies appears to have increased in Kentucky's livestock and wild animals during 1956, according to Dr. R. L. Hectorne, director, Division of Veterinary Public Health, Kentucky State Department of Health. Up to Sept. 1, a total of 230 cases of rabies in animals was confirmed by the department laboratories. For the same period of time last year 183 cases had been confirmed.

During the first 8 months of 1956, the laboratory has discovered 25 percent more rabid foxes and 100 percent more rabid cats than in the same period of 1955.

Dr. Hectorne emphasized the following points for dealing with possible rabies:

1. Any person bitetn should be placed under a physician's care immediately.

2. Any animal that has bitten a person or another animal or is suspected of having rabies should be confined for 14 days. The local health department should be notified.

3. Observe the animal daily and watch for any unusual symptoms.

4. Do not destroy the animal before he shows definite signs of rabies.

5. If the animal does not show signs of rabies, do not destroy it by chemical poisoning. Clubbing on the head or shooting in the head. These methods destroy the brain tissues and make laboratory tests difficult or even impossible.

6. Pack the head of the suspected animal in a water-tight metal container, which in turn should bepacked in crackled ice for shipping to the laboratory.

Ninety positive cases of rabies in dogs have been discovered this year, 89 cases were discovered in the same period last year. Dr. Hectorne said rabies among dogs has not increased because of the large number of dogs which have been vaccinated as required by the 1954 Rabies Law.

"In view of the increase of rabies among cats, it would be well have the family cat vaccinated too," Dr. Hectorne said.

Remember how it was emphasized for years to safely label items in the medicine cabinet? Do the same with insecticides—and keep them out of reach of children.

Farm accidents kill 40 farm residents daily, and injure one person every 30 seconds.

Plant evergreens now and deciduous trees and shrubs as soon as they drop their leaves, recommends N. R. Elliott, UK Extension specialist in horticulture.

Crabgrass should be cut short, raked and removed in order to get rid of the seeds.

Half of U. S. farmers' cash receipts come from the sale of five major commodities—cattle, wholesale milk, hogs, cotton, and wheat.

Pith from waste sugar stalks works well as a 'holder" for blackstrap molasses, a cattle feed.

Here! New Task-Force 57 Chevrolet Trucks!
Performance-proved in a history-making test on the ALCAN Highway to Alaska

The Alcan Highway is the road where trucks grow old before their time. The road where gravel endlessly sledgehammers the life out of trucks. Where a fog of superfine dust chokes engines, and vicious ruts subject chassis to months of wear in a few hundred miles.

Six new '57 Chevrolet trucks, representing light-, medium- and heavy-duty models and heavily loaded with cargo, roared north from Dawson Creek, B. C., through 1,520 miles of mountains and mire, rain and hail to Fairbanks, Alaska. Running around the clock, they made this tortuous trip—normally a 72-hour run—in less than 45 hours. The fleet made normal stops along the way, and maintained safe and legal speeds. As a special test during the run, two of the trucks went the entire distance without once having their engines stopped!

It's all down in the AAA record book. And more besides! Never before has a new truck been so thoroughly proved. Come in and see how well these new Alcan champs measure up to your job.

FIRST WITH THE MOST MODERN FEATURES!

New 283-cubic-inch Taskmaster V8 delivers 160 high-torque horsepower. Standard in Series 5000, 7000 and 8000, optional in Series 6000 at extra cost. Horsepower ranges up to 210 in Chevrolet's complete line-up of modern V8 and 6 truck engines.

Revolutionary Powermatic Transmission — exclusive with Chevrolet trucks! This six-speed automatic, designed specifically for heavy-duty hauling, is an extra-cost option in Series 5000 and 6000 and all heavy-duty truck models. Hydra-Matic is offered in 3000 and 4000 Series models at extra cost.

New 1957 work-styling gives Chevrolet trucks an even fresher, fleeter appearance. There are three different and distinctive styling treatments.

L.C.F. models outdate the C.O.E. because they're lower, handsomer, easier to get into and out of, and save time in routine engine maintenance. Yet they offer all the traditional C.O.E. advantages.

Heavyweight Champs with Triple-Torque tandem are rated at 32,000 lbs. GVW, 50,000 lbs. GCW. And Chevrolet's advanced tandem axle unit offers a built-in three-speed power divider—plus a unique "self-steering" action that reduces tire wear and increases handling ease.

Alcan fleet gets up to 18.17 miles per gallon! That's the mileage reported by the Cameo Carrier, with Thriftmaster 6 and extra-cost Overdrive.

All the way in DRIVE range! This Powermatic-equipped 10000 Series tractor traveled the entire Alcan Highway in a single forward-speed range!

A BUSY MONTH

October is one of the busiest months of the year. We are very busy and everyone else is so busy we can hardly find an extra man when we need one. All the farmers are so busy. We are building fence at the farm. I went down to Dale Williamson's and bought 100 fence posts—he has 300 more to sell. Seasoned fence posts are hard to find. Mrs. John Wilson bought a coal heater. Brewster put down a lot of linoleum for Mrs. Anna McCabe. We have so many jobs to do outside of the store. We have some new coal ranges and used coal range also a used Maytag washer.

Loretta Richardson and mother from Kenton Station were in and she bought two gallons of brown trim house paint, also a leak mulcher for her Mastercut lawn mower. We received a truck load of Perfection oil heaters, magazine fed coal heaters and cast iron coal cook stoves. Brewster and Beach set up a coal heater for Lucille Lemming, over on Parkers Grove Road, then they set up a new Warm Morning coal heater for Cecil Sargent, at the R. T. Hedger farm. Anderson's Body Shop, over between Limaburg and Hebron, called for a 275 gallon fuel oil tank. Brewster took it over.

We put up a new 275 gallon fuel oil tank for Mr. Mathis, over at Verona last Monday, when Charley Carlisle filled it, we had put a brass fitting in the bottom and the weld in the tank had cut the brass thread so we ran out in a stream he called Chuck, who took off for Verona in a hurry—in the meantime Charley came in the store and said he might have to take the truck back and pump it out—a little later Chuck called and said he could not stop the leak, then I called Charley at his house—he stopped by the store, took some new fittings and a new valve over with him and put in a new fitting, so you see what one little mistake by the man who welded that fitting in the tank let some weld run over in the threads caused. We were lucky that Charley was so good to help us. Some days we have lots of troubles as other people do. Being a small town merchant was fine several years ago, but big business is crowding out the little business man. Even a small company or a small bank has to merge with a larger one to stay in business.

The Perfection Stove Compny, as most of you know, is an old company, they have just merged with The Hupp Co. and the Gibson Appliance Co., so you see these companies have to be big to compete with the large competitors. I asked James Bonar, down at the Benton-Bonar Dept. Store, if they had any Arrow shirts. He said before they opened the store they contacted the Arrow Co. and they promised to have their representative stop and call on them—they have been open a long time but that Arrow man has never showed up. That is what I have been telling you, they are all getting so big they don't want to fool with a small account.

I have been selling Perfection stoves for 21 years and never had any trouble until this year, and I have had plenty trouble getting heaters—they want to sell carloads, not five or six heaters at a time. I went in to town today and brought out a lot of bicycle parts and a new assortment of bicycle lights, also new mud flaps in all sizes. We get more jobs to do every day, such as putting new pump chains and cistern pipe, lots of fun. We have pipe jobs as well as oil heater service and installation. We received those coal cook stoves and those cast iron wood heaters.

We received another load of coal heaters from the United States Stove Co. We have more buyers and more stove buyers because they get more for their money at CONRAD'S than any other place. When you buy a coal or oil heater from CONRAD'S you have it installed complete with new pipe, draft control and stove boards, ready to put the fire in. I have a good used Maytag washer just completely overhauled at Hage Bros. This is a square aluminum tub model with white skirt, only 75.00 a bargain!

Farmers are buying lots of tools these days as they are cutting costs. This week-end has us home mixing oil. If yourself plumbers, electricians and carpenters that don't know how to do it and we have to tell, show and draw blue prints on how to install what they buy. This is OK but we are not plumbers electricians or carpenters either, so how are we going to tell or show them? Mrs. Nettie Underwood, from Dry Ridge, came down and bought a coat and wood heater. Arthur Earl Banks bought the large size Perfection fuel oil heater to be installed with a 275 gallon fuel oil tank.

J. R. Flynn, up at Bracht, has been remodeling his house, now he is painting the outside with Bolce outside white—see how it shines! I went down to the farm Friday as they were doing some work with a bulldozer. Sarah Hodges of course fixed up the finest chicken with hot biscuits and gravy with lots of other trimmings. We were setting at the table eating when here came Bob Bolce, one of the owners of Bolce Paint Co. He came in and Sarah fixed him a plate—you should have seen that guy eat.

Chickens that are raised on the ground, but where they can run and catch bugs, taste so much better and Sarah knows how to fry them. I think Bolce will be back about hunting time—he is a fine fellow and one of my best friends. People like him are what makes the Bolce Paint Co. and the Bolce paint so wonderful. If every company treated me as well as the Bolce Paint Co., I could never complain. But that is what you have when you deal with a small company.

Construction of Union-Rabbit Hash Road Being Pushed Locally

A delegation, headed by Truitt DeMoisey, Walton, met with J. B. Wells, Jr., Commissioner of Rural Highways, Tuesday, October 16, urging construction of the Union-Rabbit Hash Road, in Boone county.

Mr. Wells informed the group that the estimated cost of the entire project is in excess of $220,000 and that right of way has not been completed on a certain section of this road.

Mr. DeMoisey and his group were assured that the Commissioner's office would analyze the project to determine if some major part of this road can be constructed in the near future.

It was the consensus of opinion that if part of the road could be let for contract now that the right of way on the remaining portion could, possibly, be obtained so that the project could be finished, possibly, within the next fiscal year.

The Commissioner's office assured the delegation that work on the analysis would begin immediately and a definite decision concerning construction of this road will be made within the next two weeks.

Many of the workers, he reported, were somewhat discouraged in finding so many of the residents who had already contributed at work. "But that is as it should be." Mr. Hensley said, stressing the fact that no home or family should be overlooked. "Only in that way," he addeded, "can we be sure that every workers has done the right kind of a job."

The Walton P.T.A. met on Friday, October 19, at 8:00 p. m., in the school building, and final plans for the Halloween party, to be given October 26, were completed.

A program was given by Mrs. Theora Locke, with Miss Irma Rector at the piano. She played "Clair-de-Lune," "Poem," and "Deep Purple." Miss Sue Gutzeit told what Girl's State meant to her. Mrs. Hudson's room won the banner for having the most parents present.

Kinman, Sheriff of Boone County, will swear in several extra deputies to patrol the county during the coming Halloween period. Any person or persons found causing damage to property in Boone county will be arrested and prosecuted.

Boone County Cancer Drive Nets $1903 Says Chairman Scroggin

Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Verona, Boone County Chairman of the American Cancer Society, announces a total of $1903 raised in the recent fund campaign.

While the quota of $2368 was not met this year, congratulations and sincerest thanks have been received from the 1956 National Chairman, Ed Sullivan, and V. H. Engelhard, Kentucky State Campaign Chairman, who realize the difficulty of money raising, the required hard work and sacrifice made by the chairmen and workers of the county. But the satisfaction of knowing that they have done a very important job is more than ample compensation.

Special credit is due the following chairmen and their workers, Mrs. Scroggin said: Mrs. G. C. Ransom, Verona; Mrs. Marvin Kendall and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Walton; Mrs. H. F. Dressman, Union; Mrs. James Ransom, Grant; Mrs. S. B. Nunnelly, Bulletsville; Mrs. Omer Dolwick, Hebron; Mrs. C. Herbstreit, Constance; Mrs. Frank Rouse, Burlington, and Mrs. W. H. Campbell, Florence, sponsored by the Florence Woman's Club.

There is still a lot of work to be done, but finally cancer will be licked and you and I will have had a part in this great victory.

Anyone wishing to send contributions and many do so in memory of a relative or friend, may do so by mailing it to Kentucky Division American Cancer Society, 407 Brown Bldg., Louisville 2, Ky. Remember, all contributions sent will be credited to the Boone county campaign for 1957.

Wet-Inoculation Method Works On Legume Seeds

Wet inoculation of legume seeds seems to work better than the dry-inoculation method, the USDA reported recently.

The system of wet inoculation is one easily used in Kentucky, UK Experiment Station agronomists say. In the wet system, the seed can either be moistened before the inoculant is added, or a paste made of the inoculant and water, then mixed with the seed. In the dry method, the inoclant is added directly to the dry seed in the planter or drill box.

Test on inoclant-retention showed the wet method considerably superior to the dry system. In the later system, the first seeds drilled out had more than twice their fair share of inoclant while seeds dropped later got only a third of their share.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

The Paths of God

Lesson for October 28, 1956

WITH a poem, the best thing to do is not to listen to a professor analyzing it. This may be of some help if the poem is an obscure one. But where the words are simple, you don't need a professor. What you need to do is to listen to someone read it who knows how to read and who loves poetry, or to read it aloud to yourself, for poetry is not intended for the eye but for the ear. Let the poem itself speak to you. If it is not too long, let it literally become a part of you. That is to say, commit it to memory, file it in your little grey cells so that you will always be able to find it. Millions of people have done just this with what is perhaps the most widely loved poem in the world, the 23rd Psalm.

Dr. Foreman

God the Shepherd

No commentary can improve on it, and this column does not pretend to do anything but set down a foot-note or two to an inspired masterpiece. The first footnote is on this picture of God as a Shepherd. One thing this brings out is the vast difference between God and ourselves. The shepherd can get along by himself; the sheep cannot. The sheep knows only what is just a few feet in front of him. He has a poor memory and very poor judgment. The Shepherd has to think ahead all the time. There are notions of religion that speak of God as the "man upstairs" and similar familiar expressions. There are notions about God that put him down on a sort of buddy-buddy basis with ourselves. How silly! Some people even think that if they just pray hard enough, that is, if they want something enough and keep nagging God long enough, he is bound to see it their way and let them have what they ask.

God Cares for Me

It has been found that one good way to read this Psalm is to read it aloud, emphasizing the personal pronouns. The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want . . . I shall fear no evil, for Thou are with me . . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me . . . Religion has to be in the first person singular or it isn't real. You can go all your life knowing this Shepherd Psalm by heart, and thinking what a lovely picture this is, of God the Shepherd of his people. But then one day you make the psalm your own, not in mind only but in heart—the Lord is MY Shepherd!—and then it simply comes alive. It helps, too, to remember the difference between a shepherd in David's time (and still, in that country) and a sheep-herder today. A farmer, in Kentucky for instance, who raises sheep just has them in a big pasture well fenced in. He has to keep his eye on them, all right, but then he can go to town or do other things. In a big green pasture a sheep can't do itself too much damage. But in Palestine, with no big green pasture, only little narrow strips of green along creek beds in rocky ravines, with jackals and other animals always on the prowl on the wild unfenced hillsides, the shepherd simply has to be there protecting and guiding each sheep personally or they will be ruined. So—God the Shepherd cares for me, individually, he protects me, fights for me, he does not intend that I should be lost.

The Paths of God

Some kinds of religion, even some kinds of the Christian religion, think of God as living in some sublime heaven, watching man as he toils along his low and winding trail. The picture in this beloved Psalm is quite different. The Shepherd travels with his sheep, from one pasture to another. When one stream or water hole dries up, the Shepherd knows where another is, and leads the flock there. So the Bible reveals to us a God who, hard as this may be to believe, actually shares our afflictions, is close beside us at every step. So the paths the flock of God follow are his paths, not because he laid them out but because they are the paths where he goes. They are not easy. The peace of God is not freedom from danger. The paths of God go by cliffs where falling rocks threaten; they lead to springs and streams that will die in summer's heat, they descend among the shadows of death, they are within sight of God's enemies and ours. But since they are God's paths, we walk secure, knowing His choice is always best.

No. It's just a rope . . . at the breaking point. But, frankly, it's a good illustration of how a man feels when his nerves are "worn to a frazzle."

The Church has never claimed that religion is a cure for frazzled nerves. But a man's Christian faith does this for him:

It shows him a Purpose in life more important than mere existence. It shows him a Power more effective than his own strength. It shows him a Future more rewarding than selfish gain. And it gives him courage more lasting than the sheer force of his human will.

With these spiritual resources, founded in the certainty that God understands and helps, a man never reaches "the breaking point." For when his human reserve is exhausted . . . he has only begun to tap the vast reservoir of Divine Strength.

THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE CAN SHOW YOU THE WAY!

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

They Are Organized:

The Kentucky Society of Washington, one of the most enjoyable clubs of the thousands in the capital city, has elected Boyd Cooper its president for the coming year.

President Cooper is an examiner for the Federal Communications Commission. It's his job to look over the applications for radio and television stations and make his recommendation to the full commission. The new society chief hails from Bloomfield, down in west central Kentucky.

Other Officers:

Other Kentucky Society officers include Ralph Homan, vice-president, who will be in charge of the membership campaign. V. P. Homan will be remembered around Frankfort where he was a part of the administration of Governor Willis.

The University of Kentucky alumni in Washington also are active. Those grads are getting ready for the Kentucky Maryland football game on November 3, and visitors from home will find a hospitality center at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, one of the newer places in the city.

Don't Cheer Yet:

Kentucky senators and congressmen have requested the budget bureau to allocate 51 million dollars to river projects throughout the state. Include are projects at Catlettsburg, Greenup, Warsaw, New Richmond, Louisville and other places.

But hold the cheers. The request has a lot of hurdles to leap before Uncle Sam puts up the cash. First, the budget bureau must approve, then the House and Senate committees must give their okay. Finally, the full Congress must say yes. Then, the president, Ike or Adlai, must sign the bill. Again, hold that applause.

The Senators:

We speak now of the Washington Senators, the baseball team. The local papers have been running stories about the Louisville bid to move the Washington team to the Falls City. Los Angeles also may seek the franchise.

All of which means that the team probably will stay in the capital. Washington fans, including the President, are aroused over the possibility of losing the team and are going to do something about it. Which means that Louisville and Los Angeles may have to look eleswhere for big-league ball.

Rice is one of our most versatile foods, and may be served as a breakfast cereal, a luncheon casserole, or a dinner dessert.

Plants exposed to additional illumination of blue, green, red, white and yellow lights increased in growth, and in flowering of many of them.

The addition of the juice of one lemon to frozen orange juice concentrate gives more vitamins, variety, and flavor appeal.

California cows were the US's highest producing individuals in 1955, says the USDA. They averaged 8,550 lbs of milk annually.

BUY YOUR LIGHT BULBS FROM FFA AND FHA MEMBERS!

Plan your home and farm lighting for comfort, enjoyment and better vision. Don't let false economy in neglecting adequate light injure the eyes of your family.

Your home will be more cheerful and you will cut down on eyestrain and fatigue with well planned home lighting. Ask your dealer or rural electric system for the best advice.

Light the home for specific tasks as well as for general overall illumination. Best rule of thumb is to think of light as a water hose—your room lighting should be good enough to reach every spot you want lighted but not in your eyes, of course.

NECK PAINS

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Did you ever woke up with a pain in your neck? More than likely that means you have a subluxation (misplacement) of a vertebrae in the neck. And other symptoms will also surely follow because the spinal cord is involved and all the nerves in the body are a part of this spinal cord in this area, some of which are undoubtedly impinged.

A subulxation (misplacement) at the base of the skull causes not only headaches and neckaches, but indigestion, constipation, and disorders, because the nerves supplying all organs are a part of the spinal cord.

Adjustment of the subluxation is the only logical way to correct the cause of disease.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Telephone ATlantic 3-5371.)

4 REASONS
WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE NOV. 6 FOR KENTUCKY'S

EARLE C. CLEMENTS

LAWRENCE W. WETHERBY

CLEMENTS-WETHERBY TEAM

1. THE MEN

Earle C. Clements and Lawrence W. Wetherby have been teammates in starting—and finishing—many jobs for Kentucky and Kentuckians!

Seldom have two public servants accomplished so much working together. With their background of proven service to Kentucky and their knowledge of its needs and problems, here are two veteran statesmen truly qualified to fight your battles in Washington. Each will take a personal knowledge of every Kentucky problem to the Nation's Capitol.

2. THEIR RECORDS

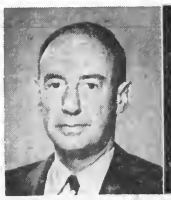
Over the years, singly or together when they were in state government, Earle C. Clements and Lawrence W. Wetherby have accomplished much.

The Clements record as Governor and Senator includes:

- INAUGURATED NEW RURAL ROAD PROGRAM.
- MADE GREAT ADVANCES IN EDUCATION AND PUBLIC WELFARE.
- STARTED NEW INDUSTRIAL AND TOURIST DEVELOPMENTS IN KENTUCKY.
- DOUBLED APPROPRIATIONS FOR KENTUCKY WATERWAYS DEVELOPMENTS.
- AIDED IN RESTORING TOBACCO ACREAGES AFTER BENSON CUT THEM.
- PROTECTED INTERESTS OF KENTUCKY FARMERS IN SOIL BANK ACT.
- SPONSORED FEDERAL AID FOR EDUCATION.
- AIDED IN SECURING $33 BILLION DOLLARS FOR OUR HIGHWAYS.

These and other accomplishments are in the Wetherby record for Kentucky:

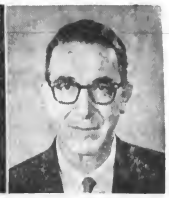
- INCREASED STATE SCHOOL FUNDS 88%.
- SPONSORED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO LOWER VOTING AGE TO 18.
- AIDED IN BRINGING 511 NEW PLANTS AND 41,000 JOBS TO KENTUCKY.
- HELPED BUILD FINE STATE PARK SYSTEM AND TOURIST INDUSTRY.
- DURING HIS 8 YEARS IN FRANKFORT, 17,000 MILES OF ROADS BUILT.
- INCREASED BENEFITS TO AGED, NEEDY, CHILDREN AND BLIND.
- CREATED MENTAL HEALTH DEPARTMENT AND NEW HOPE FOR THE ILL.
- BUILT THE NEW STATE FAIR AND EXPOSITION CENTER.



3. THEIR PLANS FOR KENTUCKY

Both these men know your problems and how to solve them at Washington. In addition, Senator Clements would return to Congress with the prestige of a leader and a strong position on important committees. These items are in their platforms:

- DEVELOP KENTUCKY'S WATERWAYS AND WATER RESOURCES.
- REDUCE FEDERAL TAXES.
- INCREASE FEDERAL INCOME TAX EXEMPTION.
- GET SPECIAL TAX RELIEF FOR SMALL BUSINESSES.
- GIVE THE FARMERS 90% OF PARITY SUPPORTS ON BASIC CROPS.
- SECURE FEDERAL AID TO EDUCATION.
- INCREASE FEDERAL FUNDS FOR OUR HIGHWAYS.
- REPRESENT THE PEOPLE OF KENTUCKY—NOT SPECIAL INTERESTS.



4. THEIR IMPORTANCE TO THE NATION:

Adlai Stevenson ought to be elected President and Estes Kefauver should be Vice President. They will need a Democratic Senate to help carry out the Democratic platform—which is a platform for you. Republicans would wreck your hopes for the future if they win control of the Senate.

National Diabetes Week Observance November 11 to 17

As part of National Diabetes week, November 11-17, the Kentucky State Medical Association in conjunction with the American Diabetes Association is sponsoring a Diabetic Detection drive.

During National Diabetes Week, all members of the K S M A will be requested to give free urine sugar tests to all persons requesting them. Dr. H. L. Ravenscraft of the Hebron Clinic, the Boone County Diabetes chairman, solicits the support of all local physicians in this endeavor and will distribute necessary material for the free testing.

It is estimated that there are 15,000 unknown diabetics in Kentucky. Dr. Ravenscraft recommends that urine specimens submitted for testing should be collected one to two hours after a meal. It is recognized that sugar in the urine is not proof of diabetes, but indicates the need for further studies including blood-sugar determinations.

Good local publicity is essential for maximum effectiveness. Various groups such as the local Health Department, P.T.A.'s, Homemakers Clubs, Farm Bureau women, various women's clubs, and civic and fraternal organizations are asked to support this worthy cause by encouraging members and others to avail themselves of these free test to detect diabetes.

Sight Saving Campaign Being Conducted Locally

A sight saving campaign is under way throughout the Northern Kentucky area served by the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation and calls for a series of home-lighting demonstrations in every community.

Miss Dorothy Nunney, Home Economist, and O. H. Curtis, electrification adviser for the Co-op, are heading the campaign. A schedule of local demonstrations will be announced later.

During the campaign, members of the Future Farmers and Future Homemakers Chapters in the high schools, will be selling packages of approved light bulbs at a reduced price. Electric consumers are urged to buy a supply of bulbs from these high school groups, not only to save money but to aid the chapters financially.

Research has proven that most eye defects are caused by poor lighting conditions in the homes and schools. It is important that adequate lighting be available in each room of the house. Defective eyesight can be greatly reduced if we plan and use proper lights.

Intermediates Organize

The intermediate (13 years old) girls of the Walton Baptist Church met at the home of their teacher Friday night to organize their class and select a name for it.

Those attending were Misses Norma Neumeister, Joan Dawson, Beverly Gerth, Lynnette Flynn, Saundra Smith, Patricia Feist and Delores Kerns.

"His Followers" was selected for a class name, and Norma Neumeister was made president.

Cecilian 4-H Club Meets

Monday evening, October 15, the regular monthly meeting of the Cecilian 4-H Club was held. Forty-five members answered roll call with the project they will undertake this coming year. Eight new members were welcomed into the club.

The club is having a Halloween party on October 25. C. A. Wicklund, County Agent of Kenton county, was present and gave a very inspiring talk on "Finishing A Project." Refreshments followed the close of the meeting.

Annual Stockholders Meet

The annual stockholders meeting of the Northern Kentucky Production Credit Association was held October 16, at the American Legion Hall, Williamstown, with 177 in attendance.

The directors' report was given by W. H. Parker, director from Carroll county. The financial report was given by Russell D. Dougherty, secretary and treasurer.

W. H. Parker, Carroll county, was re-elected director for a three-year term and F. G. Marquette, Pendleton county, was re-named for three years, also.

Jack Grierson, public relations speaker for Production Credit Corporation, was the main speaker. A talk was also given by Mrs. Lawrence Smith, member from Owen county, on "How A Housewife Looks at PCA," which was very good.

Entertainment was furnished by Roger Rouse, Janet Pollitt and Jim Hempfling, seniors from Boone County High School, Florence. Music was also furnished by the High School choir of Williamstown, under the direction of Miss Mildred Tharp.

Club Members Urged to Vote

It is the sacred duty and privilege of every American citizen to vote. November 6, we have the Presidential election. As that time draws near, let us as members of the Walton Woman's Literary Club remember that we are pledged, under our constitution, to greater endeavors along the line of self improvement and the needs of the community, that our obligation in this election goes beyond the line of duty, that we help, 'Get out the vote', in this momentous campaign.—Jane Miller, Chairman, Public Affairs.

Florence Woman's Club Hears Talk On Kentucky Education

Mrs. F. Dean Coton presided at the October meeting of the Florence Woman's Club, Tuesday of last week, at the home of Mrs. Juanita Hightower. In a most interesting and informative manner, the speaker explained and described the manner in which Kentucky schools are financed and supervised by the state.

A lengthy business meeting followed, during which Mrs. Roy Lutes, chairman of the ways and means committee, announced the various assignments for the luncheon and style hair show, to be presented at the Florence Community Center, November 1. Stewing Chicken Flavor Tops

Sewing-chickens have more meat than younger birds, and the meat has a full, chicken flavor. Although they are not "old" birds, they require long, slow cooking to tenderize the thick muscles and bring out the rich delicious flavor, says Miss Elizabeth Helton, UK Extension foods specialist.

To cook stewing-chicken: Place cut-up chicken in kettle and add ½ to 1 cup of water and 1½ to 2¼ teaspoon of salt for each pound, the amount of water depending on the amount of broth desired. Simmer until the thickest portions are just fork-tender, 2 ½ to 4 hours, or cook at 10 pounds pressure in the pressure cooker for 40 to 45 minutes. Remove chicken and cool it and the broth promptly. Cover and refrigerate unless served immediately.

If desired, 3 to 4 peppercorns, 1 small carrot, a celery stick, and small onion may be cooked with the chicken for added flavor. The cooked chicken may be used with dumplings or noodles, as chicken a la king, with vegetables and chicken in casserole, or in old-fashioned chicken pie.

HAVE SOIL TESTED

In the fall is a good time for the farmer to have his soil tested. More profit, extra yield of high quality crops is the result of wise use of fertilizers and the only way to use fertilizer wisely is at have the soil tested.

Each farmer must figure out for him self and the county agent's office will be glad to help. Farmers investment in land, labor, seed, machinery, insect control and other fixed expenses is the same whether yields are high or low. With the wise use of fertilizer the yields may be increased so the crop income will be larger. Some of the extra cost maybe having the soil tested and harvesting the extra yield. The extra yields added by proper fertilization is the lowest cost and most profitable share of the crop.

One way to beat low crop prices and other conditions beyond control is to spend money wisely for fertilizer by having to soil tested, according to Joe Claxon, County Agent. All fertilizer recommendations are based upon Boone County soil and experimential data.

Fall-Fed Pastures Give More Grass, Extra Proteins

CATTLE can have extra days of grazing this fall and an earlier start on fields next spring when permanent pastures are top-dressed with fertilizer this fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Fertilized pastures get off to a quicker start in the spring and usually produce more grass per acre and more protein per pound of grass, according to studies by Midwestern agronomists.

Some agronomists say that fall application of fertilizer are preferable to spring applications in many respects, because of the firmer footing for trucks and spreaders.

Earlier pasturing in the spring on fall-fertilized fields can mean important savings on feed bills.

Bluegrass stays palatable later in the summer when it is well

Extra grazing days, plus thicker, higher-quality grass come from fall-fertilized permanent pastures.

fertilized and it recovers earlier in the fall for precious extra days of grazing.

In tests on 58 farm pastures in Wisconsin, the use of fall-applied fertilizer returned $63 per acre after deducting the cost of fertilizer, according to C. J. Chapman, extension soils specialist.

The pastures received a fall application of 500 pounds per acre of 10-10-10 fertilizer, containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash. Each of the plots yielded an average of 3,562 extra pounds of dry matter per acre from two clippings. Chapman says this increased yield represented a return of $3.50 for every dollar invested in fertilizer.

Walton-Verona School News

TRI-HI-Y NAMES OFFICERS

The Tri-Hi-Y of the Walton-Verona School met October 10 for the purpose of electing officers for the school term.

Those chosen were: Irma Rector, president; Bonita Messmer, vice president; Peggy Downing, chaplain; Donna Wright secretary; Nell Jo Poole, treasurer; Nola Rose Yates, program leader; Charlotte Gullion, song leader; Linda Curry, pianist, and Vada Lawrence, sponsor.

The group has made no definite decision on projects but the main thing on the schedule is to live up to the Tri-Hi-Y standards. With the quality of officers the best club year ever is expected.

BETA CLUB SELECTS OFFICERS

The Walton-Verona chapter of the Beta Club has started the year with increased enthusiasm and many plans. Officers for the year are as follows:

President, Irma Rector, vice president, Peggy Downing; secretary, Linda Curry, treasurer, Wanda Tackett, reporter, Pat Worthington, and program chairman, Charlotte Gullion.

In addition to the officers, the following are members: Joanna Kent, Sue Goutzeit, Pearl Cotton, Lucille Speagle, Beverly Rouse, Ruth Perkins, Carolyn Powell, Donna Wright, Nell Jo Poole, Pauline Gross, Lee Flynn, Doug Rouse, Gary Stephenson, Bobby Poole, and Sylvia Day.

In the near future the club plans to sell tins of candy. With the proceeds from this and other projects, the club contributes to the library found and helps fulfill the needs of the school in general.

The members are making plans to attend the Kentucky Beta Convention in Louisville, November 30 and December 1. At this meeting, the young people exchange ideas and enjoy wholesome fellowship. The sponsor for the Beta Club this year is Mrs. Colleen V. Shields.

LIBRARY NOTES

During the first weeks of school we have tried to encourage students to make use of the library and its many tools. Glancing at the high school circulation statistics, the results prove to be satisfying. The top figure for the first six weeks was 56 books circulated in one day. New books have done much to motivate interest. A total of 222 new volumes have been added to the high school collection. New tables, chairs and shelves have also been a great improvement.

The little tykes will also have a library this year for the first time. The elementary library will open this week with 134 new books on the shelves.

Still Best For State

Kentucky 31 variety of tall fescue is outstanding in yield and longevity but lacking in certain desirable characteristics found in some test selections, says UK Agricultural Experiment Station agronomists.

The variety has been tested against western-grown varieties and state-grown strains and selections.

The same difficulties experienced with foreign orchard grass varieties have been experienced with western-grown fescue varieties, the testers said. These difficulties are low yield and thining of stands in old planting.

For this reason, varieties such as Alta, Alta 144, Goar and 4-36 should not be used under Kentucky conditions. Kentucky 31 is the variety recommended for use in Kentucky.

The Kentucky Seed Improvement Association says that Kentucky certified Ky. 31 tall fescue seeds readily available in the state.

GLENCOE

Those to help celebrate the 88th birthday of Charley Brown, Sunday, were his brother and wife, Leonard Brown, and wife, and his sister, Mrs. Addie Elliston, and daughters, Ralph Bowie and Mrs. June Gullion and children. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. James Brown.

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Ethel Beatty and family in the loss of her only son, Jessie, whom the train killed Saturday night, down below Glencoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Bloaz last a little five year old daughter last week. May God bless them in their sorrow.

Farmers are very busy picking corn.

Word was received that Pete Noel of Williamstown fell and broke several ribs the past week.

Bill Stephenson has moved to his home here in Glencoe. We welcome these good people back.

May Still Do Fall Seeding

It's not too late to do some work on pastures for the winter season. For instance, phosphate and potash may be applied to low fertility pastures, and rye still may be planted.

Rye can be drilled into a grass sod and will furnish earlier spring grazing. If warm, dry weather persists, some farmers may be able to plant rye at this date in an emergency basis.

H. H. Pierce, Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service pasture specialist, recommends that ponds be planned and built now. They will furnish water for pasture and forage crop systems. He points out that the acre of pond properly managed will produce as much meat as an acre of grass.

Egg protein comes in great variation that scientists use it as a standard for measure the value of protein in other foods.

New '57 Plymouth Said To Be Three Years Ahead In Design

The 1957 Plymouth Sport Coupe (hardtop) has a low silhouette, long wheelbase, more powerful Fury 301 engine and revolutionary new Torsion-Aire ride—said to be the most important advancement in automotive design since the introduction of independent front suspensions. Car pictured here is the Belvedere with Sportone trim.

The 1957 Plymouth will be displayed by Walton Garage, Walton, Ky., beginning Tuesday, October 30. Lower, wider and more powerful, the new model represents a complete change in styling, body structure and chassis. Stanley Vallandingham said the new car is the result of a telescoping of Plymouth's lowest planning. "The car we will display has the style and features of the car that had been planned" a few years ago, for about 1960. Mr. Vallandingham said. "Plymouth has moved faster than we had hoped. The public has shown an eagerness to accept dramatic change."

1957 Plymouth models are as much as five inches lower than corresponding 1956 models. The wheelbase has been lengthened from 115 inches for all models in 1956 to 118 inches for standard models and 122 inches for Suburban station wagons in the 1957 line.

The new car has the appearance of greater length which comes from functional styling. A broad hood, soaring tail fins, and forward thrusting headlight brow all contribute to the impression of length.

In chassis design, Plymouth has accomplished its most significant change since the introduction of independent front wheel suspensions with coil springs in 1934. The feature is called Torsion-Aire.

In the overall re-design of the front suspension, coil springs have disappeared. They are replaced by torsion bar springs which together with other equally basic improvements in both front and rear, produce a new kind of ride and new "handling."

The completely new front suspension and steering system creates a remarkable degree of stability under forces of acceleration, braking, and cornering. At the same time, according to Plymouth engineers, the vehicle is more softly sprung than ever before. For the first time on an American passenger car, ball joints are combined with torsion bar springs to create the unique combination of ride and handling characteristics. A new rear suspension incorporates relocated leaf springs, which contributes to the new better ride.

All of the 1957 Plymouths have more powerful engines than 1956 models. The standard V-8 for all models except the Plaza is the new Fury 301, the number signifying displacement. The Plaza V-8 retains a displacement of 277 cubic inches but, like the Fury 301, has a new camshaft, new carburetion, and other innovations to achieve increased performance and economy.

The compression ratio of the Fury 301 is 8.5 to 1. Plaza V-8 compression remains at 8 to 1. The compression ratio of the PowerFlite Six is increased from 7.6 to 1 in 1956 to 8 to 1 in 1957.

Other innovations in the 1957 line include: New 14-inch wheels and low pressure, large section tires; new 11-inch brakes, of Chrysler Corporation's Total-Contact design; a new integral all weather airconditioning system which combines heating, cooling, dehumidifying and ventilating in one underhood unit, available on all V-8 models; padded instrument panel and sun visors available as optional equipment, new safety recessed center steering wheel; new full-view windshields with 45 percent greater glass area in sedans and Suburbans and 43 per cent greater in hardtops.

A new line of Suburban station wagons with many advanced features including a rearward facing third seat in nine-passenger models, roll-down tail gate window, wrap-around quarter window, torsion bar tail gate hinge, optional inside concealed luggage compartment with lock on all six-passenger Suburbans and a fuel tank mounted in left rear fender.

As in the 1956 offering, Plymouth for 1957 offers four lines of standard automobiles. Belvedere is the top line, Savoy the middle and Plaza the lowest-priced. A two-door hardtop is available in the Savoy line and both a two-door and four-door hardtop are available in the Belvedere line.

Suburbans again in 1957 make up a distinct line of cars, in three groups—Deluxe, Custom and Sport—and in 12 models taking into account two-door and four-door models, and six-passenger and nine-passenger bodies, and V-8 and six cylinder models.

Never before in history has anything built by man traveled so far in so short a time —by land or sea!

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '57 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under the supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '57 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 108.16 mph for the entire run . . . Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '57 Ford smashed 458 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah . . . it was the longest left turn in history.

A car, like a man, is known by its deeds, not words.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '57 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '57 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '57 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here is what they did:

They took these cars to the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world . . . a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird Y-block V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no other cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy . . . and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car-buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

STAFFORDSBURG

We had a nice number at Sunday School. To all, we would say, "Come again, and bring another."

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney had dinner on Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton of Walton.

The sympathy of friends and neighbors goes out to Mrs. Mory Hoffmon and family, who suffered the loss of a brother, J. C. Mills, and a sister, Mrs. Nellie Petty, in the short space of ten days.

They accidentally ran in on a family dinner, other guests being Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swinford of Cynthiana, and Mrs. Bessie Mills and Mrs. Stanley Fooks of Verona.

Mrs. George Klein went a week ago to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Twenhafel of Orlando, Fla. Following news of her death, Mrs. L. J. Rapp and Mrs. M. M. Mann went to the funeral, which was on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Twenhafel both are natives of this place and lived for a number of years at Madison, Wis. After his retirement a few years back, they lived in Florida. They traveled extensively since. Mr. Twenhafel is a geologist and interested in natural rock formations and related subjects. They seldom missed a year of visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood. She leaves three children, several grandchildren, another sister, Mrs. Bessie Schneider, of Covington, and a brother, James Stephens, North Vernon, Ind.

Sorry to hear that Miss Barbara Brueggen, our pianist at church, has been ill for several days. Hope she will soon be fine.

We are glad to have the Malott family back. They had been absent several times because of Mrs. Malott's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett attended services at Trinity Sunday morning, where their son was the speaker on Layman's Day.

We welcome both Charlie and Melvin and wish them all the luck in the world.

Our grocery man, Mr. Damon, has a new clerk, a resident of the Tower, Randy Gibson Jr., who assumed his new duties this week. Good luck Randy and we know Mr. Damon will be pleased with your work.

The "Hot Rod Races" have been given a break by the good weather, and races will continue as long as the good weather lasts.

Did you ever see such beautiful colors as the woods present now to the eye, no painter has been ever able to depict the colors now showing.

Are you going to gather any walnuts this year, if so you better be looking around as only one tree out of five have any nuts on them. I remember back when I was a kid in kneepants, walnut candy was in almost every home, and they don't have any candy bars now that will hold a candle to this delicious treat.

Glad to report the sick are all improving which is good news to their families and many friends.

Weight for weight, potatoes have one-fourth as much vitamin C as oranges, and one-half as much as tomatoes.

Seams stitched with dacron, nylon or silk thread must be back-stitched to fasten them, as they will not stay fastened by tying, says Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, U. K. clothing specialist.

WHITES TOWER

Our neighbor, Mr. Floyd Smith, we are glad to report, will be home from the hospital this week. All indications are that he will soon be good as new again.

The smog the past week has put the tobacco in fine case and many growers have started stripping, altho I would hate to put any in bulk this early.

Mr. Fageley and wife of Latonia, visited the farm Sunday.

Bob Mathis of Camp Hungry is on the sick list at this writing. Nothing serious we hope.

Both of the new homes in the Tower are now occupied by their owners and we feel that both will help to make our community glad that they decided to locate here.

President Eisenhower's firm and positive leadership, his experience and determination, made it possible for his Republican administration to end three long years of bitter warfare in Korea.

Thousands and thousands of Americans, as well as our Allies all over the free world, have more confidence in President Eisenhower than in any living American.

By Adding Plant Food in Fall

Fall plow-down of nitrogen and phosphate fertilizer gave larger yield increase than did spring disk-in on O'Brien county, Iowa, farm. Yields (left to right) were 63, 96, 87, 99 and 99 bushels, respectively.

FARMERS can make money, save work and save time by adding fertilizer in the fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing recent statements by agronomists at Land Grant Colleges.

In addition to these advantages, the committee lists these other benefits from putting on in the fall all the phosphate and potash and most of the nitrogen you would ordinarily broadcast and plow down in the spring:

1—You can spread out your work load by fertilizing in the fall. This takes the heat off in the spring and helps speed planting operations when every minute counts.

2—The ground is usually firmer in the fall. Machinery pulls easier and does less damage to soil structure. Larger machines can be used that will save time and labor.

3—Broadcasting and plowing down puts the fertilizer in moist soil which increases its efficiency in a dry year.

4—Top-dressing meadows with phosphate and potash in the late summer or fall helps hold the legume in legume-grass mixtures.

5—Even if you have a slight loss of nitrogen over the winter, it can cost less than an extra trip over the field in the spring. And it is better to risk the loss of a little nitrogen than to risk not getting fertilizer on your fields at all.

6—In the fall, you find it easier to get the exact fertilizer ratio and grade you want.

MR. FARMER

THIS IMPORTANT MESSAGE IS FOR YOU!

I AM WELL AWARE that many of you good people of the Fifth Congressional District of Kentucky do not know me and are not familiar with my record of public service. However, President Eisenhower knows me and publicly endorsed me on his recent visit in Lexington.

JULE APPEL

TODAY the future of the farmer is at stake and I urge you to thoughtfully consider the following facts:

- The General Election, Tuesday, November 6, is very important to you — probably more so than to anyone else. Your problems will need a champion—a man with a strong voice, strong body and, most of all, *strong influence.
- Your present Congressman, the Honorable Brent Spence, due to his advanced years, cannot possibly serve your best interests in the new Eisenhower administration.
- Now, more than ever, you need a younger man, active, capable, energetic and well qualified to represent you and to *speak out in your behalf.
- You may have voted for Mr. Spence year after year since 1931, but you know there comes a time when age catches up with us and we just cannot "plow corn" like we used to.
- Mr. Spence is an honorable gentleman but he, like many you and I know, just refuses to admit the facts that become true at age 84. He can, and should, retire on his available pension of $9,456.00 annually for life, which you have made possible.
- It is not my purpose to speak ill of Mr. Spence, even though he has not always voted in Congress for the best interest of agriculture. Neither has he seen fit to visit us in our communities for many years. This has been quite understandable.

What I am asking of you now is a sane and sound request. Give me a chance to serve you as your Congressman. Let me work for you in the second Eisenhower administration. I pledge you, upon all that I hold sacred, a sincere devotion to this high office that will warrant your trust.

You Decide If You Want As Your Congressman A Man Who Can Get Things Done

Is There A Difference?

Is there a difference between stealing and shoplifting? There is so much of it going on in Walton that you are afraid to turn your back to wait on someone when there are others in the store. The children have really been working on my stock of merchandise lately, but the grown-ups are also doing some of it. I will catch them if they keep it up, as I have already caught some. A person does not have to steal to get what they want. Generally, they take something they have no need for. Monday afternoon, a customer of mine saw two white boys and two colored boys get something—this must be stopped!

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, Verona Road, bought shellac, alcohol and a brush. Brewster and Robinson installed a large Perfection fuel oil heater with a 275-gallon fuel oil tank for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Brooks. This is the finest heating system anyone could have. It will put some window fabric over the windows on the cold side of the house and fix the house so the heat can circulate; you will have a house heated the same as a furnace heat and a lot cheaper. If you have a hard house to heat, buy one of those large Warm Morning coal heaters, the greatest coal heater on the market today!

I have two new small coal ranges, also a small white porcelain used coal range. We trade every day. I traded Mrs. Sharpe, at Verona, one stove for three—not even going to look at them, and they were just, like she said, "it is so nice to trade with honest people." I believe we have any kind of a stove that you would want—give us a try before you buy! When you buy a fuel oil or coal heater at CONRAD'S, you pay just what it is marked at and no more, and it is installed in your home, complete, ready to build the fire.

Some stores sell you a heater, then they add on a stove board, stove pipe, draft control, and a charge for installation. When you buy one in the city, they send it out and set it on your porch. A lady thought I was $10 too high on a coal heater—she went to Sears, Roebuck & Co., bought a coal heater. They sent it out and set it on the porch. She would not call us to set it up, but her landlord came and asked us to set it up, as she was there with two small children, her husband being away. The weather was cold.

I sent two men, a stove board, pipe, and a draft control, and charged her $3 for labor, which made a total charge of $11.30. So by going to the city and buying a heater, she paid $1.30 more and a lot of trouble, and she did not get as good a stove as the Warm Morning she tried to buy. Brewster did a lot of jobs today. Furnace pipe at Harry Johnson's, oil heater repairs at Bill Hord's, new furnace pipe at Delbert Cole's, a new fluorescent light in William Brown's stripping room—William will teach school in the daytime and strip tobacco at night. We sold another Perfection fuel oil heater today with a 275-gal. fuel oil tank.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watts bought a very nice used oil heater to be set up this week. Brewster went to Warsaw, down to Ewbank's farm, and installed a Day ton water system, then he went to Sleet and Amy West's to repair their sink trap. Chick and Chas. Elmore had a washer trade and Red delivered it. We sure got the repair jobs—they come in all doors. Blanche Roberts bought some Bolce quick dry enamel for—but bathroom walls. Geo. Edwards, from Crittenden, bought several gallons of Bolce outside white.

O. J. Struve bought six gallons of Bolce outside white. J. R. Flynn needed a little more—you never get finished when you start to paint. Chick put in several glass in storm sash for Robt. Peyer. Ray Brannon bought Sta-Dry for his basement walls. Now is the time to put it in, while the walls are dry and they will stay that way. When the water starts to come in you can't hardly stop it, so do it now. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McCubbin bought a porcelain finish Warm Morning coal heater, to be delivered later.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Strickelhard also bought a Warm Morning coal circulator. Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Arnett, Verona, are ready for their Perfection oil heater to be installed Monday. We have lots of new coal and oil heaters and several used ones. Come on CONRAD'S before you buy!—Beatty, from Crittenden, bought a lot of soil pipe and fittings for a bathroom he is putting in. Stanley Bush was in after some galvanized pipe—he is working up at Crittenden, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Kenney, between Verona and Mt. Zion, bought the largest coal and wood heater I had. Brewster and Red went over to Dick Mann's at Piner, and put up new furnace pipe. Omer Kite and Ed Kennedy were in a few minutes—Ed hardly said a word and Omer talked all the time. Lessie Hoffman had me order a set of beaters for a Hamilton Beach mixer, to be sent to her daughter in Guam. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Nix, over Elliston way, bought a heating stove and stove pipe.

I have so many good customers and I try so hard to be friends with all the children. I even sell them on credit and then some of them would rather take what they want than to ask for it—this must stop, and I'm going to do my best to stop it. Won't some of you mothers and fathers try to help me with the children? The grown-ups don't matter, the law will take care of them, but these children are too young to do this. If they get by once they will try again. If you will help me we will stop it!

Mr. Robert G. Goodwin, of the USDA tobacco branch's grading department will be on hand to give the demonstrations.

The demonstrations will be held at the following farms: Nov. 7th—10 a. m. Beckham Shields, Richwood Road, Nov. 7th—1:30 p. m. Harold Rosenstein, Verona. Nov. 8th—12:05 p. m. radio program—W.Z.I.P., and Nov. 8th—2:00 p. m. Robert Maurer, Burlington.

Russell Hunt, Extension tobacco specialist at the University of Kentucky, who announced the sessions, calls this "an important year" for the burley crop. Stripping and greading practices will affect the market price, he points out.

Problems to be discussed are mixing grades in hands; tying large hand; and over pressing stripped burley, particularly the leaf grades.

Little Theater Group Organized by Local High School Pupils

The Little Theatre Club of Walton-Verona High School held their first meeting this year, and promises to be one of the leading school activities.

The following is a list of the newly selected officers: Peggy Downing—President, Pat Warthington—Vice President, Sue Gutzeit—Secretary, Wanda Tackett—Treasurer, Bobby Medley—Reporter. Among other committees appointed by President Peggy, was a Constitution Committee, whose function it will be to set up the by-laws of the organization.

It is our aim that a series of one-act and three-act plays be produced and performed for both the public and the student body.

We feel that in this type of a constructive group, we can develop in many ways. For instance, we will train ourselves to meet the public, we can enlarge upon our dramatic abilities and tendencies, and in backstage work such as scenery construction and make-up we can improve and acquire various other skills.

In the past there has always been close and willing co-operation between school activities and the town's people. For this we are extremely grateful. With the assurance that future co-operation will be ours; we promise, to the best of our ability, to be worthy of your gracious assistance.

The American Legion Auxiliary membership drive is now on. The American Legion and Auxiliary is a non profit working organization, striving to help as many veterans and their families, also child welfare.

Mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of members of the American Legion are eligable. Women of their own right who served in the Armed forces are eligable to membership in the American Legion or Auxiliary.

Mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of all men and women who were in the Armed forces of the United States between April 6th 1917 and Nov. 11, 1918 or between Dec. 7th, 1941 and Sept. 2, 1945 or June 25th, 1950 to the date of Cessation of hostilities as determined by the U. S. Government, all dates inclusive or who being citizens of the U. S. at the time of entry therein, served in active duty in the Armed forces of any of the Governments Associated with the U. S. during either of said World Wars, or hostilities and died in line of duty or after honorable discharge.

Widows of those who died in line of duty, applies to all those who died of wounds or disease, were killed by accident. Any woman who marries a member of the American Legion at any time is elegiable to membership in the Auxiliary.

We've come a long way in our program of Service for God and Country.

Memories dull easily that only yesterday men died for this great Country that has been entrusted to our keeping.

There are one million women at work in 14,000 units to give their support to the purposes of the American Legion.

Our American Legion men have the new Legion Home just about completed and deserve much credit as they have built the home themselves, with the help of some friends donating their services to get the home completed.

Won't you be a part of our organization and join us in our work. Contact any Auxiliary member, she will be glad to make out your application for membership.

Mrs. Joe Kennedy suffered a nervous breakdown recently and is now a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital, room 234.

Five Candidates For the Presidency

Tuesday, November 6, is election day and we are to elect a President and Vice President for the next four years, along with two Senators and a Representative. There are five candidates for President and Vice President. President Eisenhower seeks re-election on the Republican ticket, and he is opposed by Adlai E. Stevenson, Democrat; Dr. Enoch A. Holtwick, Prohibition; Eric Hass, Socialist Labor, and Senator Harry Flood Byrd, States' Rights. Richard M. Nixon is the running mate of Mr. Eisenhower on the Republican ticket; Estes Kefauver is the Democratic candidate; Edwin M. Cooper, Prohibition; Georgia Cozzini, Socialist Labor, and William B. Jenner, States' Rights.

Here in Kentucky, we are to choose two Senators. Incumbent Earle C. Clements, Democrat, is opposed by Thruston B. Morton, Republican; for the unexpired term of the late Alben Barkley, Lawrence W. Wetherby, Democrat, is running against John Sherman Cooper, a Republican. Clements, as you know, is an old-timer in the Senate, and Mr. Cooper has served in the Upper House. Wetherby and Morton are new-comers.

The old favorite, Brent Spence, is running for re-election to the House of Representatives, on the Democratic ticket. He is opposed by Jule Appel, Republican.

Kentucky-wise there is a referendum vote for the issuance of one hundred million dollars in bonds for the purpose of highway construction. If you favor this move, vote "yes" and if you are against it, vote "no."

To Choose School Board Members

In the Walton-Verona Independent School District, two members of the Board of Education are to be elected. Only two names appear on this ballot, Arthur H. Doggett and Daniel J. Roberts, both seeking re-election.

Much emphasis has been placed on voting this year. So, along with many others, we urge you to vote Tuesday, November 6 for the man of your choice.

To the Voters of Boone County:

During the last four years, under the leadership of Secretary of Agriculture Benson, the farmer has dropped to the position of the lowest income group of our national economy. The consumer pays more for his food, yet the farmer gets less for his products. More money was spent for food in the U. S. A. last year than in any other peace time year, yet the farmers averaged an $800.00 drop in net income. Who's to blame? The Democrats? No, the Democratic party recognizes the farmers' rightful share of our national economy and proposes to have o 90% parity on farm products. The Republicans are the only ones who can receive the credit for forcing the farmers' income to the lows that threaten our way of life.

WHITES TOWER

We have been selling vine ripened tomatoes the past week and will still have them as long as it doesn't freeze. And the pear crop is at its peak now as we have large yellow pears just right for preserves or canning. "Cauliflower" and "Brussels Sprouts" are fine but none for sale.

Mr. Floyd Smith our neighbor is home from the hospital and as we had a 29 day siege in the hospital, we know just how happy he is to be home with family and friends. Maybe we don't appreciate our homes enough until something like this happens.

Another new home is going up in the Tower in Harris Pike in the "Hasse" subdivision. Another resident whom we understand will be an asset to the "Tower".

Farmers in the Tower are harvesting one of the finest corn crops in recent years. But do you know you can increase the way your corn keeps after cribbing by getting all the silks and ribbons off while husking. Don't give the rats and mice something to build on early in the fall. It may take a little longer but the dividends are greater.

Mr. Harris who has a repair shop and used car lot in the Tower is a very progressive and ambitious citizen and we know if you patronize him you will be satisfied with the service you get.

Glad to hear that little Debbie Gower of Florence is fully recovered from her appendix operation and is just as good as new again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Inabitt visited his brother Ashley Inabitt and wife of Somerset over the past weekend.

When you enter the "Tower" now from Nicholson you will immediately notice the "New Look" as we are going modern and the chances are in a few years we will be incorporated and have a little government of our own.

Cool showers in hot weather help growing hogs gain weight. Five hundred hogs averaged two pounds daily gain when given access to cooling showers.

EYES OF THE FUTURE

By Dr G C Donohoo

Many more small children today are wearing glasses than ever before. Often when a child first begins going to school there is detected a slight deficiency, called neorsightedness, farsightedness, or slight convergence, or by any of a multitude of names given to abnormal conditions of eyes.

The eyes are usually examined immediately and the child given correction lenses which are to accommodate for the eye deficiency. However, very seldom is the spine ever examined in the case of eye trouble either in child or in an adult. As a general rule children's eyes will respond better and more quickly than the adult's as that applies in most any disease.

The eyes are supplied by nerves just as every other part of the body. When nerves leading to the eyes are partially blocked there will be disease or a lack of ease of function in some part of the eye.

Often the eye muscles become weak thus causing lack of near or far vision. Muscular weakness also causes the eyes to cross. The muscles are of course supplied with life by the nerves.

A fall or a minor accident can displace one of the bones of the spine just enough to pinch nerves and block life's forces to the eyes.

Remember, a physical examination is not complete unless the spine is examined. If your child is wearing glasses, consult a chiropractor who will be fair in telling you if he can help the optometrist to effect a correction by removing the spinal cause of the eye weakness, that the eyes of tomorrow may be stronger.

Sergeant John Ed Tomlinson is lifting the auto while Trooper Bob Calvert checks the muffler. State Troopers may not lift every auto off the ground to check for vehicle deficiencies, but if your car doesn't have adequate equipment it will probably be inspected in the near future by a State Trooper.

Auto Safety Group Urges Passage Of Road Bond Issue

Benefits will be realized by the citizens of every county in Kentucky if the state's highway improvement program is speeded up as recommended by the Automative Safety Foundation. Passage of the $100 million dollar bond issue appears the better way to accelerate this vital highway construction program, declares Alex S. Chamberlain president of the Kentucky Tax Research Association.

In Boone county, there are 129.1 miles of Federal Aid Secondary roads, and 24.7 miles of Federal Aid Primary Roads.

In addition to benefits resulting from better roads in this county, residents of every county will share in the benefits of neighboring counties. "Farm-to- market" roads will be impraved, local business will prosper by impraved transportation and new industries with job opportunities are attracted by better roads.

In addition, the proposed interstate highway system in Kentucky will increase highway traffic, thereby expanding the sale of Kentucky goods and services to out-of-state companies and residents.

If Kentucky's highway improvement program is accelerated by passing the bond issue, the citizens of the state can expect to receive these benefits in the near future, rather than 10 or 15 years from now if improvements are made on a payas-you-go basis.

Research on spreading alfalfaq, a type legume that produces several new plants each year from the mother plant, show considerable promise. In the Kentucky area, it may help replenish stands thinned by adverse climate, soil and disease factors.

Upset-Minded Hereford Show Set at U. K., November 7-8

The Bluegrass Hereford Register of Merit show is scheduled November 7-8 at the University of Kentucky in Lexington—and no more upset-minded cattle show ever was organized.

This show is strictly "big league". In 1955's edition, a bull priced at $100,000 failed to win. The year previous the grand champion bull from the American Royal at Kansas City—one of the top national shows—failed to win at Lexington. Similar upsets studded history of the show. Of interest to Kentuckians is the fact that this is the only flight Hereford show in the U. S. on a University campus.

With top show strings come to Lexington hoping they'll not be upset—that their strings will deal out an upset. And so it goes, in this "competition for the cups," the little silver julep mugs each class winner gets.

The Lexington show consistently draws the best animals. A few years ago TR Zato Blair, known in the Hereford world as one of its top animals—he sold for $210,000—showed here and won top prizes. At these R-M shows bulls are not given points on how this themselves win—rather they garner points on the wins of their get, both sons and daughters.

To see this show in Lexington, it costs nothing, as the show traditionally omits admission fees. Men, women, and children are welcomed whether or not they have any direct interest in livestock production.

FUTURE

The future of Kentucky — its farms, industry, conservation, and tourist trade — flows along our rivers, waiting to be developed. John Sherman COOPER knows what needs to be done. And in 1953-54 he helped begin the great work — with appropriations for the Green River, the first construction money for the Greenup Dam on the Ohio, planning for the Kentucky River and the Buckhorn Dam, and a re-survey of the Big Sandy. There's more to be done. So send COOPER to the Senate to do this job. You can depend on COOPER.

How do you explain its newness when everything about it is new?

On display today is just such a car—the Swept-Wing '57 Dodge that steps you into the wonderful world of Autodynamics.

What is this wonderful world of Autodynamics? It is a world where everything is new from road to roof to achieve absolute mastery of motion.

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

AID TO YOUNG FARMERS—Social Security is usually thought of as an aid to old people but the inclusion of farmers under the provisions of the Social Security Act will be a big help to young farmers in getting started, or to middle aged farmers in enlarging their operations. It works like this: Many land owners, upon reaching retirement age, are finding that they can increase their income by turning over the operation of their land to someone else, receiving the land owners share, or cash rent, from it, and drawing their social security payments. In many cases the total of this income will amount to considerable more, and with much less risk and worry, than was received from the actual operation of the farm. A farmer is not eligible for Social Security as long as he is, himself, the farm operator.

To young efficient farmers this means that there will be more land available, either to operate as a unit or to enlarge their present units. The retired farmers will furnish the long-term capital, leaving the operator's capital for modern euipment and annual operating requirements.

There are two important requirements for the success of the program; one, that the retired farmer find a progressive, hustling operatar who will handle his land efficiently and without depletion of the soil and capital investment; the other, that the young farmer find a farm owner of retirement age who is willing to turn his land over on terms conductive to the improvement of the soil and maintainance of buildings and fences. When two such people get together it will be a happy arrangement for each.

A CHALLENGE TO KENTUCKY LEADERS—Last month 54 Kentucky bankers, industrialists and just plain people like me visited the U. S. Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wis. There we saw timber of all kinds—good and poor, being utilized for many different finished products. We were impressed with the possibilities for wood-using plants here in Kentucky where there are 11 million acres of forest land.

A sound wood-using industry differs from the lumber industry in that the former uses all the products of the forests wisely—for paper, corrugated cardboard, particle-board, charcoal, chemicals and for other things to which wood is adapted, while the latter uses only the products that can be sawed into lumber of various dimensions. Our present uses have resulted in the harvest of our best trees, leaving the poorest ones for reproduction, until now our forests are composed largely of low quality trees. The men who visited the Madison Laboratories got new visions of the possibilities of utilizing our forest products and, as a result, there will be renewed efforts to develop a more deversified industry.

RISING TONE NOTED IN BUSINESS AREAS

Kentucky and the nation's farmers may look for a record level of business activity in 1957, says the U. K. agricultural economics department, which notes that "a rising tone" of business has existed recently.

An expected pickup in auto production, increased public spending, and continued record amounts of private construction bolster this expected trend. A tighter money supply and higher interest rates seem to have had little effect on the over-all economic activity.

Wholesale prices are up 4 percent since January 1, 1956, and about 2 percent at the retail level, says the department. Farm exports are expected to rise.

Estimates on commodity activity:

CATTLE—Prices may show some seasonal decline as marketings increase. Better grades (prime and choice) should be least affected. Feeder cattle may show some seasonal decline as receipts increase.

HOGS—May show a moderate seasonal decline in next 30 to 60 days. Last year's "burdensome" level of receipts is not expected, though.

DAIRY—Fall upturn of milk prices seems probable. Production costs, including feed, are expected to be higher in 1957.

POULTRY & EGGS—Prices for run-of-farm eggs and broilers probably will be steady to higher. Farm chickens and turkey prices probably will be steady to weak in near future.

Giving BOTH our guns away!

Communist leaders . . . RUSSIAN LEADERS . . . have heartily approved Adlai Stevenson's hydrogen bomb proposals. They have, in fact, been seeking that type of proposal from America for several years.

Kentuckians hope the United States will never have a President so naive that he would give away the STRENGTH which equalizes the military potential of America and that of the Soviet Union and its mighty, teeming, hordes of slave laborers of vast production-power and fighting-power.

As president of the United States, as Commander in Chief of the U. S. Armed Forces, and as a leader for peace and understanding in the free world, President Eisenhower has made definite proposals to the Soviet Union for discontinuing nuclear experiments of super bombs. All of these plans were based on a positive system of supervised international inspection.

The safety of our nation should not be in politics. Limitation of testing and use of all weapons is clearly a diplomatic problem and cannot be decided by popular vote! Let's talk sense!

In the last two years Soviet Russia has REJECTED 14 specific disarmament proposals. Soviet Russia has violated every major treaty and agreement it has entered into in the last quarter of a century. Any disarmament agreement not guaranteed by President Eisenhower's aerial inspection plan would be a "scrap of paper."

The super-bomb is war's greatest deterrent in the world today! Except for the influence of the H-bomb, Russia would probably be in control of all of Western Europe at this moment.

If they ever trick an American President into discontinuing nuclear research, the Soviet Russians will have won a diplomatic victory fraught with disaster for the United States and the Free World.

Will Kentucky vote for national suicide on November 6th?

WHO will do WHAT for the Tobacco Farmer?

COMPARE THE RECORDS

To boost Kentucky's farm income John Sherman Cooper and Thruston B. Morton advocate:

1. "Use of the Soil Bank to the limit," with tobacco payments raised from 18c to 25c a pound.
2. Reduction of taxes on tobacco, "to increase consumption of Kentucky's greatest crop."
3. Stop the movement of Kentucky's tobacco acreage to other states.
4. Greater efforts to increase exports of tobacco and other farm products abroad.

KEEP KENTUCKY PROSPEROUS

The opposition's sorry record:

1. Wetherby, as governor of Kentucky in 1954, sponsored and put into effect a higher tax on our state's greatest money crop—tobacco—against the opposition of the State Farm Bureau and other business organizations.
2. Clements introduced in the United States Senate the bill which added a tobacco acreage cut of 15 per cent to the 10 per cent which was freed by the Secretary of Agriculture as required by law.
3. Clements' bill in 1956, which he brags about, only RESTORED the 15% acreage cut he had advocated the year before.
4. In 1955, the loss in total Kentucky farm income resulted directly from the loss of tobacco acreage resulting from the 25 per cent cut sponsored by Clements in 1955
5. While total burley tobacco acreage in the United States increased 1940-1954—24,000 acres, Kentucky, with 80 per cent regional quotas, increased 1,300 acres; Tennessee, 18,000 acres; North Carolina, 5,000 acres.

While Ambassador to India, John Sherman Cooper negotiated the largest tobacco sale in history—6,000,000 pounds of surplus tobacco. The total sale of farm products in this tremendous transaction was valued at $360,000,000. It included 130,000,000 bushels of wheat; 500,000 bales of cotton; and substantial amounts of other surpluses.

John Sherman Cooper and Thruston B. Morton as Senators from Kentucky will work in close harmony with the Eisenhower-Nixon team. Both are experienced leaders who know the problems of our state and who know how to solve these problems.

Suffering for Us

Lesson for November 4, 1956

IN THE days when a running man could overtake a carriage that was in no hurry, a Christian man named Philip was led to run up close to a very handsome carriage—they called it a chariot—in which sat a man reading aloud to himself. Something about the way he was reading made Philip, now jogging along beside the carriage, ask the rider a question. For the man was reading aloud from a book which is no doubt owned by every reader of this column, a book which to this very day outsells all others, every month of every year, the Bible. Philip didn't ask the man where he got the book, or what he thought of it, much less what the book was. Philip asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" The distinguished stranger admitted he did not. But he was so eager to find out that he invited this unknown pedestrian to ride with him. He was reading a chapter from Isaiah, the very same one that is our lesson scripture this week. It is all about "my servant," that is, God's servant. But who is this servant? The prophet himself, or somebody else? Could Philip please explain?

Dr. Foreman

A Prophet Sees Christ

The book is 25 centuries old, the story of Philip about 19 centuries ago; but that chapter is still a favorite with Christians. The Church today gives essentially the same answer Philip gave: this is a prophecy about Jesus. Even those Christians who doubt whether the prophet originally set out to describe the historic Jesus of Nazareth agree that the picture fits Jesus remarkably well. Most of the Christian church says not only that, but Jesus is the only person the description does fit remarkably well. It is a fair question. Would the first Christians, such as Philip, have thought this to be a prophecy of Christ if Jesus had never thought so himself? Are we to say that Jesus was less bright than his followers? The beauty and power of this great chapter from Isaiah do not come from accuracy in details. It is pretty difficult to make all the details match exactly the facts of Jesus' life. Nevertheless this chapter is more than beautiful in language and thought; it is powerful in giving us, in a few sentences, the central spirit and underlying intention of Jesus' life. It is this: What he endured and suffered, in life and in death, he suffered and endured not for himself alone but for others, for us.

Levels of Suffering

Suffering can be undergone on different levels, as it were. At lowest level there is mere pain, the kind known by animals. The beast does not think about it, animals around him do not, he simply suffers. At the next level there is pain suffered and resented, by human beings. Above this is pain which is suffered bravely, even defiantly by a stoic ("I am the captain of my soul"). Above this again is pain which is borne with resignation not because it is necessary, but because God wills it. On a still higher level is suffering which is offered to God as a sacrifice—all the sufferer may have to give. As high as this, if not higher, is suffering which is undergone for the sake of others, as a mother for her child. The suffering of Christ, the church believes, is on a plane even higher than all these, though it is like some that have been mentioned. For his sufferings were for men and women everywhere, always.

"He Poured Out His Soul"

The tragedy of Jesus, taken as a human tragedy alone, is saddening. "To what purpose was all this waste?"—we ask Judas' old question as the alabaster box pours forth its treasure. If we remember that this was not only a man but God, undergoing this tragic darkness shot with "lightning of his pain," we can understand a little better (but dimly, for the opaqueness of our selfish minds) what the suffering of Jesus meant and means. It was for us; he bore our griefs and carried our sorrows, he made himself an offering for sin. You remember the girl who said to her older sister: "Oh, sometimes I wish I could take all the miseries of the world and put them on my shoulders!"

And the older sister said, "Didn't you know Jesus did that, long ago?"

The good thing about this is that Dan and Betty and those other youngsters too are here, in Church, because they want to be!

No one made them come. No one told them that they had to. No one threatened punishment if they didn't.

Though outside it is a bright sunny day and the woods and fields and streams beckon, they are here, in God's house, at prayer.

They'd like the country and the world to know that despite all this alarming "juvenile delinquency" there are good teen-agers too.

There are teen-agers who have been instructed in the Christian way of life, and who have discovered what the Church can mean to them.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Put New Life in Old Alfalfa With Fall Top-Dressing

NEW life can be put into old alfalfa fields with a top-dressing this fall of phosphate-potash fertilizer, reports the Middle West Improvement Committee.

Many of these fields have produced abundant hay crops during the spring and summer. As a result, a heavy drain has been made on the soil's reserves of phosphate and potash. So replenishment is needed in the form of plant food.

How much fertilizer to add, and what ratio to use, can be determined by a soil test that will give an idea of the soil's reserves of phosphate and potash, the committee points out.

On many Midwestern soils, agronomists recommend adding a fertilizer mixture such as 0-10-30, or 0-9-27 at the rate of 300 to 500 pounds per acre. If a test indicates the soil is low both in phosphate and potash, then a ratio such as 0-20-20 may be profitable.

If a boron deficiency occurs, some soils men advise applying about 30 pounds of borax per acre in addition to the phosphate-potash fertilizer.

One of the big benefits of top-dressing alfalfa fields in the fall is that the plant food helps the legumes store up nutrients in their roots. Strong, well-fed roots anchor themselves more solidly in the soil and come through severe winter weather in better shape.

Cheap electric power for the homes and farms and factories of Kentucky is important if our State is to grow and flourish. TVA and REA help provide that power. They and their customers have no better friend than John Sherman COOPER, who — made the favorable argument in the Senate which brought the first TVA steam plant, who increased TVA appropriations, and secured the release of $22 million in REA funds to bring more electricity into the homes of 100,000 Kentucky farm families. Walton-Verona School News

WALTON—VERONA HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

Our Home Economics Department at Walton-Verona High School is furnished with all the necessary equipment this year and is under the supervision of Mary Ellen Bruce. This is the first year Walton has had a Home Economics Department and we all real proud of it.

We have four unit kitchens. We have two gas ranges, two electric ranges and an electric refrigerator. We have received five electricql appliances, electric mixer, coffee percolator, deep fat fryer and cooker waffle grill combination, and a steam iron. We have four sets of china ranging from plastic on up to a more expensive grade of china. Our pots and pans, silverware and other utensils are real nice also. Our cabinets are a pale green with tangerine Formica tops. At the back of our room we have storage space. Each girl taking Home Economics has her own locker to keep her sewing in.

We have seven electric Singer Sewing Machines. We have already used them to make stuffed animales. We gave some to the kindergarden and the rest will be sent overses to the less fortunate children for Christmas. We all enjoyed making these stuffed animals and they turned our real well.

We will study the seven areas of Home Economics this year, which are, Clothing, Food, child Care, Health, Home Management, Housing, and Family Relations. We have just completed our Child Care Unit by having a Halloween Party for the Kindergarten, the 19th at October. We are now starting a clothing unit in which we will each make an apron.

We are organizing a F. H. A. Chapter. Saturday, October 13th, the F. H. A. officers went to a district fall meeting at Carrollton. Everyone who went had a wonderful time and we are looking forward to our next meeting.

We would like for everyone to come up and see our Home Economics Department. We also wish to thank everyone who has helped us to get our nice equipment.

Walton—Verona FHA Entertains Officers From Simon Kenton Chapter

The Simon Kenton FHA officers were invited to the Walton-Verona Future Homemakers' Chapter, Wednesday, Oct 24, to present a program on the FHA organization.

Donna Richardson, president of the Simon Kenton Chapter, called the meeting to order with the FHA opening ritual, which included the explanation of the emblem by Juanita Riddell with Joyce Moffett and Jean Elliott demonstrating it. Following the ritual, Jean Elliott explained how to set up a chapter program of work with suggestions for chapter fun and recreation, chapter programs, and money making ideas. Ann Heideman, who has her State Homemakers degree, gave ideas and suggestions for working on the Junior and Chapter Homemaker degrees, and encouraged all the girls in the Walton-Verona Chapter to work on a degree this year. Joyce Moffett demonstrated with a thermometer chart, how a chapter may be on Honor Roll chapter in State Association. Patty Jones, who is a member of the Simon Kenton membership committee last year, showed the new chapter friends the scrapbook and explained how they might start the book of their chapter now by keeping articles and pictures of interesting chapter activities.

Before the closing ritual, Mrs. Gayle McElroy, Simon Kenton's adviser, presented a rose to Miss Mary Ellen Bruce, Walton-Verona's adviser. In turn, each Simon Kenton officer presented a red rose, the organization's flower, to her corresponding officer in the Walton-Verona Chapter. The meeting was adjourned with the closing ritual.

Besides the above mentioned Simon Kenton officers, other officers taking part in the program were Marilyn Friedman, Carol Winburn, Judy Robinson, and Becky Wilkerson.

Minnesota swine tests showed that gilts fed a 14 3 percent protein ration during pregnancy raised 92 percent of their pigs to weaning age, while gilts on a 10 7 percent protein ration weaned only 77 percent.

President Eisenhower Is Calling for

JULE APPEL

As U. S. Representative from 5th Ky. Dist.

HELP IKE HELP YOU!

ELECT A MAN WHO IS

A FRIEND OF IKE

My Friends of the Fifth District:

Tuesday, November 6, you will select your Congressman. This is important to you. It is important to me. It is important to the nation.

I cannot be elected without the votes of all Republicans, Independents and many, many thoughtful Democrats. It's a fact, so let's admit it.

I have personally talked to President Eisenhower about the business and agricultural problems facing our economy. I am convinced that his sincerity and natural honesty of purpose will lead us into ever expanding prosperity . . . WITH PEACE.

President Eisenhower needs a cooperative Congress. He deserves a Congress that will not deliberately block constructive legislation. No one can help the farmer or the business man if political maneuvering dictates the vote of Legislators.

I humbly request the opportunity to serve you in Congress. I pledge you an active and aggressive leadership. I will keep you informed and will visit you often in an effort to keep myself informed as to your needs.

VOTE FOR JULE APPEL

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE U.S. REPRESENTATIVE FIFTH DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY

AND YOU WILL HAVE

A VIGOROUS, FEARLESS AND AN ENERGETIC CONGRESSMAN

1956 Social Security Questions, Answers

Do you know and understand your social security rights? As an individual you should know about your rights and benefits and how to make the most of them, because they may be worth thousands of dollars to you and your family. Few people realize that this much money is involved.

This is one in a series of articles containing questions and answers on the new 1956 Social Security law, prepared by the Louisville Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants as a public service.

Q. Will the combined pensions of a husband and wife be higher when both have worked?

A. Yes, in many cases. A wife who has worked can take a pension based upon her own earnings or she can collect a wife's benefits, which ever is larger.

Q. Must a working woman retire completely to get benefits?

A. No, it's all a matter of how much she earns. She can earn up to $1200 a year without loss of any Social Security benefits.

Q. If a husband 65, and his wife 62, are retired, can each earn up to $1200 a year, or $2400 in total, and both receive pensions?

A. Yes. They can earn up to $2400 a year and not lose any pension payments. They also can receive company pensions, interest income, dividends, and other income without losing any pension payments.

Q. Does the $1200 limit on earnings apply to everyone?

A. No. When a retired person reaches the age of 72, there is no limit on the amount he can earn and still draw the full amount of his pension.

Q. If a working wife retires at age 62 at a lower pension, will her payments be increased when she reaches 65?

A. Yes, in some cases. A working wife who retires at age 62 on a reduced pension based on her own earnings still can claim a wife's pension later, if it is to her advantage. In some cases a wife's pension, based on her husband's earnings, might be larger. Thus, a working wife can retire early, at age 62, on her own pension while her husband is still working, and switch to a wife's pension when he retires at age 65.

Q. What are "lump-sum" payments?

A. If at death you were either fully or currently insured a lump sum death payment will be made to your widow. The amount is equal to three times your retirement benefit but cannot be more than $255. This is in addition to any monthly payments to the widow. If there is no widow, the payment is made to those who paid the funeral expenses. Claims for lump-sum payments must be made within two years after the worker's death.

Farmers Receive $4,180,917.51 In Partial Soil Bank Payments

Roy C. Gray, Chairman of the Kentucky State ASC Committee, informed reporters in Lexington, last week that 14,261 Kentucky farmers have been paid a total of $4,180,917.51 in 1956 Acreage Reserve Soil Bank payments.

Mr. Gray went on to say that he was very much pleased with the amount of payments which Kentucky farmers are receiving under the 1956 Acreage Reserve Soil Bank Program since the program was approved too late in the planting season for Kentucky farmers to reap the full benefit of the program and the indications are that a majority of all Kentucky farmers will participate in the 1957 program which would be a great help to the farmers in this state.

Mr. Gray stated that all county officers in the state were instructed to proceed with making Soil Bank Acreage Reserve Payments on September 18. However, thirty-five counties have failed to make any payments to farmers, and included in this group were Boone, Campbell and Grant, in Northern Kentucky.

WHO?

Who must you vote for after listening to Eisenhower and Stevenson? That is a question in lots of people's minds—some, of course, would not vote Democratic no matter who ran, and others would not vote Republican whoever the candidate might be—but the majority of the voters vote for the candidate they like best and whom they think would make the best President. They are sure urging everyone to get out and vote. Vote for your favorite candidate. Besides the President, we have two congressmen to vote for, so be sure and pick the one you think best. Don't forget Brent Spence!

J. C. Cavanaugh bought 4 gallons of Bolce outside white, 1 gallon of gray trim, linseed oil, turpentine, and 2 brushes. Bluch Rich came after a Dayton water system his son brought over earlier in the day for repairs. This Dayton water pump had been watering 30 dairy cows and the first time in 10 years it had quit. It took Red, Chick and Brewster, at different times, to get it working. Bluch came after it, also bought electric wire to run to his poultry house. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, who live at top of hill at Gunpowder Bridge on US 42, came up and bought a Warm Morning coal heater.

We had a very busy day, with lots of jobs to do. Brewster and Red put up that new Perfection oil heater for Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Arnett, over at Verona. This afternoon they put up that Warm Morning coal heater for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clinkenbeard, then they took 2 fluorescent lights over and installed them in R. P. Hughes' stripping room at Verona. Mrs. Edna Morris came up from Warsaw and bought a large Perfection fuel oil heater—she called back after going home and said to bring her sister, Mrs. Barnes, a portable Perfection oil heater. We will do this Wednesday afternoon.

Chick and I were busy today taking care of our customers. We have the finest group of customers from all over five counties. Mr. Beatty, from Crittenden, was back after more plumbing. Mrs. Edna Morris from Warsaw, John Shaw from Whites Tower, Paul Newsom from Latonia Lakes, Harry Johnson from Piner, Edgar Schulker from Banklick, Mrs. Vaughn from Dry Ridge, Robert Bell from Goshen church neighborhood, Harvey Hughes from Concord church neighborhood, and lots of customers from here in town, also Robert Slayback of Beaver, and the folks on Big Bone Road who bought the Nordker farm (I'm sorry I did not remember their names; they bought some Jamesway poultry founts and feeders).

We received more Perfection fuel oil heaters today. They took that large size Perfection heater to Warsaw for Mrs. Edna Morris, also they took one of those all porcelain Perfection portable oil heaters to Mrs. Morris' sister, Mrs. Harris, down by Paintlick church. Claude Beatty was back after more plumbing parts. Phil Kohler bought soil pipe and fittings. Chas. Robinson sent for me to bring him a pair of sled soles—he lives on the Les Moore farm.

We just received a shipment of glassware, dishes and gift ware. Pyrex puts out some very nice pieces in gift ware. We also received a lot of Case pocket knives, scissors, paring knives and butcher knives—you know Case makes the best cutlery today. We received another shipment of grate baskets from 20" wide to 30" wide; also firescreens from 6.85 up. I also received 2 more coal and wood heaters in a large size to sell for 79.00. This is a real stove for the farm—you can burn up all the trash, stumps and wood, along with some coal. You would really get some heat.

We received some new plastic step on cans and waste cans. These seem to be two more items made of plastic that are OK. Chick does a little of everything this time of year, when Brewster is working outside installing stoves and lots of other service work. Chick is an electrician, plumber, blacksmith, tinner and must any thing that comes along, besides being a salesman and trying to keep everyone satisfied. Don't think Brewster doesn't have some fine jobs getting all the heating equipment ready for winter. He comes in black all over. We try not to overcharge for these service calls but try it yourself sometime, cleaning that stove.

We have sold a lot of window fabric because we carry a large stock and several kinds. Cover up those drafty windows and save a lot of fuel. Put some weatherstrip around those doors and a metal strip across the bottom. We put out our weatherstrip today, so you can see all the different kinds we have. Also the screen glass, flex-o-glass, glass-o-net and wyr-o-glass for your doors and windows. John and Eloise Hartman bought 2 gallons of Jelled Magic paint for a bedroom, to try it out, as they had never used it. It is a wonderful paint and so easy to use.

Red and Beach delivered and set up a coal heater for Mrs. Evelyn Sebastian at Banklick. We have sold a lot of coal and oil heaters and have a lot more in stock to sell. Larry Atha came after wiring material—he had to change some wiring in his house, he also bought 25 pounds of StaDri and a brush to paint his cistern inside. D. L. Lusby, who operates the locker plant here in town, came after a V-belt for his compresser. We sold more paint today—as long as the weather stays like this it is a fine time to paint. We received some Perfection electric heaters.

My Dayton water pump man was here and told me Dayton water systems would go up Nov. 1 til 109.50. I have a few left at 89.50. It's about time to strip tobacco and we have those 4' fluorescent lights complete for 14.50. They're really nice.

WHO?

Who must you vote for after listening to Eisenhower and Stevenson? That is a question in lots of people's minds some, of course, would not vote Democratic no matter who ran, and others would not vote Republican whoever the candidate might be—but the majority of the voters vote for the candidate they like best and whom they think would make the best President. They are sure urging everyone to get out and vote. Vote for your favorite candidate. Besides the President, we have two congressmen to vote for, so be sure and pick the one you think best. Don't forget Brent Spence!

J. C. Cavanaugh bought 4 gallons of Bolce outside white, 1 gallon of gray, trim, linseed oil, turpentine, and 2 brushes. Bluch Rich came after a Dayton water system his son brought over earlier in the day for repairs. This Dayton water pump had been watering 30 dairy cows and the first time in 10 years it had quit. It took Neil Chick and Brewster, at different times, to get it working. Bluch came after it, also bought electric wire to run to his poultry house. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, who live at top of hill at Gunpowder Bridge on US 42, came up and bought a Warm Morning coal heater.

We had a very busy day, with lots of jobs to do. Brewster and Red put up that new Perfection oil heater for Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Arnett, over at Verona. This afternoon they put up that Warm Morning coal heater for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Clinkenbeard, then they took 2 fluorescent lights over and installed them in R. P. Hughes' stripping room at Verona. Mrs. Edna Morris came up from Warsaw and bought a large Perfection fuel oil heater—she called back after going home and said to bring her sister, Mrs. Barnes, a portable Perfection oil heater. We will do this Wednesday afternoon.

Chick and I were busy today taking care of our customers. We have the finest group of customers from all over: five counties. Mr. Beatty, from Crittenden, was back after more plumbing. Mrs. Edna Morris from Warsaw, John Shaw from Whites Tower, Paul Newsom from Latonia Lakes, Harry Johnson from Piner, Edgar Schulker from Erlanger, Mrs. Vaughn from Dry Ridge, Robert Bell from Goshen church neighborhood, Harvey Hughes from Concord church neighborhood, and lots of customers from here in town, also Robert Slayback of Beaver, and the folks on Big Bone Road who bought the Nordker farm. I'm sorry I did not remember their name; they bought some Jamesway poultry founts and feeders.

We received more Perfection fuel oil heaters today. They took that large size Perfection heater to Warsaw for Mrs. Edna Morris, also they took one of those all porcelain Perfection portable oil heaters to Mrs. Morris' sister, Mrs. Harris, down by Paintlick church. Claude Beatty was back after more plumbing parts. Phil Kohler bought soil pipe and fittings. Chas. Robinson sent for me to bring him a pair of sled soles—he lives on the Les Mowrie farm.

We just received a shipment of glassware: dishes and gift ware. Pyrex puts out some very nice pieces in gift ware. We also received a lot of Case pocket knives, scissors, paring knives and butcher knives—you know Case makes the best cutlery today. We received another shipment of grate baskets from 20" wide to 30". We also have firescreens from 6.85 up. I also received 2 more coal and wood heaters in a large size to sell for 79.00. This is a real stove for the farm; you can burn up all the trash, stumps and wood, along with some coal. You would really get some heat.

We received some new plastic step-on cans and waste cans. These seem to be two more items made of plastic that are OK. Chick does a little of everything this time of year, when Brewster is working hours to installing stoves and lots of other service work. Chick is an electrician, plumber, blacksmith, tinner and most anything that comes along, besides being a salesman and trying to keep everyone satisfied. Don't think Brewster doesn't have some fine jobs getting all the heating equipment ready for winter. He comes in black all over. We try not to overcharge for these service calls but try it yourself sometime, cleaning that stove.

We have sold a lot of window fabric because we carry a large stock and several kinds. Cover up those drafty windows and save a lot of fuel. Put some weatherstrip around those doors and a metal strip across the bottom. We put out our weatherstrip today, so you can see all the different kinds we have, also the screen glass, flex-o-glass, glass-o-net and wyr-o-glass for your doors and windows. John and Elmise Hartman bought 2 gallons of Jelled Magic paint for a bedroom, to try it out, as they had never used it. It is a wonderful paint and so easy to use.

Red and Beach delivered and set up a coal heater for Mrs. Evelyn Sebastian at Bank Lick. We have sold a lot of coal and oil heaters and have a lot more in stock to sell. Larry Atha came after wiring material. He had to change some wiring in his house, he also bought 25 pounds of Sta-Dri and a brush to paint his cistern inside. D. L. Lusby, who operates the locker plant here in town, came after a V belt for his compressor. We sold more paint today—as long as the weather stays like this, it is a fine time to paint. We received some Perfection electric heaters.

My Dayton water pump man was here and told me Dayton water systems would go up to $199.50. I have a few left at 84.50. It's about time to stir, I guess, don't we have those 4 fluorescent lights complete for 14.95? They're really fine.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

This Is It

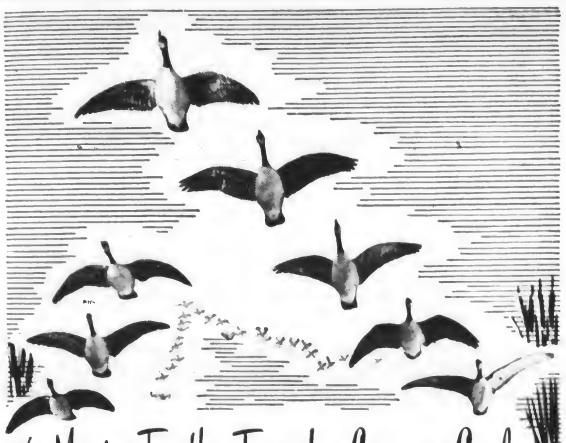
Dr. Foreman

THREE questions are asked over and over again by people who take life seriously but are still groping for the answers. First, What is Good? Is it altogether a matter of taste? Is there anything that is never good and anything that is always good, no matter what? Second, What does God want of us? What does it take to please him? Is there any simple ordinary way of knowing what God wants? Third, Why doesn't God speak to us as he used to do to the prophets of old? Why doesn't God, who knows all the answers, share his knowledge with us?

Country Preacher

Long ago a country preacher had these questions thrown up at him. His name was Micah. He was not a preacher in the regular sense, for he had no church, and in fact he had no connection with the regular official religion of his country. But he did speak and preach,—so far as we know, only to his fellow-villagers; but what he said was remembered. We have extracts from his sermons in what we call the Book of Micah, among the minor (that is, shorter) prophets of the Old Testament. Maybe he never preached a full-length formal sermon. Maybe he just stood or sat around in the market-place, and talked to any who would listen. At any rate it is plain that he was asked r[illegible] the same questions as those three just now mentioned. The country of Judah, in which Micah's small town of Moreshah was located, was either in a very prosperous condition or was running down,—depending on where you lived. In the capital city of Jerusalem everything seemed to be booming. But in the farmlands and in the little villages it was a different story. Even in the cities there were some who suspected the boom would not last. There was a kind of revival of interest in religion going on, but it was confused. People had an idea they ought to be better, but what was "good"? They felt sure they ought to obey God more carefully; but what did God want, really? Why didn't God come right out and tell people what they would have to do to "get right" with him?



This Is It

If the answers to such questions as these were written on gold plates in a strange language and kept on top of a seven-mile mountain guarded by seven wise archangels, the roads to that mountain would be jammed, and people would pay the archangels big money to translate the mystic words of wisdom. But a country preacher talking in the simple words anybody ten years old can understand—? Yes; the people of that village already had the answers only they didn't realize it.

Why doesn't God speak? He has already spoken. Why don't we have prophets? We do have prophets, right there in your Bible. Yes but they are hard to understand. Well, Micah says, it's not so hard to understand. What does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Oh, somebody in the crowd might say, old stuff! Yes, exactly. Amos the prophet spoke of Justice, and Hosea spoke of Love and Kindness, and Isaiah spoke of humility before God Most High. This is it. you don't need to write away to find out, this is it right here. What is Good, what God wants of us. God has already spoken. He does not change his mind.

Simple and Final

Looked at in one way, these three great requirements of God are not simple. Justice—how easy to say, how hard to make sure what is really the just and fair thing in every action! Kindness—yes, but who knows what is the kind thing to do every time? Isn't what is just in one case perhaps unjust in another? Yes, to be sure. No commandment of God is going to save us from having to think. This is not so simple as to be automatic. Nevertheless this is simple in the main. We can see the lines along which the good life must be built. We always know: if it is not just, if it is not kind, then it is out of line with God's will. And all this is final, too; again not in the sense of saving us any further thought. But final in the sense that this is God's word. We can't now or ever get beyond or above,—we can't graduate from,—justice and kindness and humble reverence before God.

Moving Together Toward a Common Goal

With the fowl of the air it is instinct! God has provided many of His simplest creatures with an inate sense of harmony, and of purpose.

But with man it is an ideal . . . still far from realization! Nations and individuals have usually sought their own ends, and little less than attack by a common enemy has ever brought them to united action.

Today, the challenge for harmony and brotherhood is stronger than ever. We know now that the very existence of civilization depends upon a peaceful world.

Our greatest hope is the Church, which throughout the ages, has unceasingly taught the need for moving together toward a common goal. And only the Church has pointed the Way toward that goal.

Join forces with the multitudes in every land who seek the highest goals. Worship with them the only Prince of Peace. And, believing with all Christians in the might of Right, work toward our God-promised destiny.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily

With Fall-Added Fertilizer

College tests indicate fall fertilization can boost winter wheat yields as much as 14 bushels per acre.

FARMERS who fertilize their winter wheat crop this fall at planting time can make higher profits despite average allotments.

That was the statement of the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing studies by college agronomists.

Fertilized wheat has a better chance of surviving the cold winter weather, the committee points out.

In Illinois tests, winter wheat yields were boosted 13 bushels per acre when nitrogen fertilizer was added at planting time in the fall. The same treatment top-dressed in the spring gave only an 11-bushel increase.

This meant an extra profit of $21 per acre from the fall-applied nitrogen, compared with $16 from the plant nutrient added in the spring, the committee reports.

In Missouri tests, winter wheat yielded 32 bushels per acre when a fall application of starter fertilizer plus nitrogen was added. Yields were 28 bushels from the starter fertilizer alone and 25 bushels per acre when nitrogen alone was added.

The ground is firmer and soil conditions are usually more favorable for applying fertilizer in the fall, the committee points out. You won't have the hazards of wet, sticky fields next spring to delay top dressing, either.

Agronomists point out that where soil and moisture conditions indicate that some of the fall nitrogen may be lost, you can profitably use a starter fertilizer with just enough nitrogen to assure a good early growth and uptake of phosphate. This can be followed up in the spring with a full nitrogen top-dressing.

Good Soil Care Could Up Corn Yields 56 Bushels

Corn yields could be boosted 56 bushels per acre, alfalfa hay by about 1.3 tons, oats 27 bushels, and potatoes by 200 bushels, if farmers followed college recommendations for fertilizer applications plus good management practices.

That was the statement of the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing college studies.

Among good management practices suggested in addition to fertilizer use at college-recommended rates, are: liming where needed, good crop rotations, minimum tillage, tilth-building methods and adequate drainage.

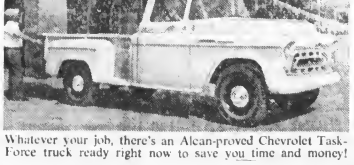
New Task-Force 57 Chevrolet Trucks!

They "flattened" Yukon mountains with the most modern truck V8's of all!



Rated G.V.W. of these payload-carrying heavyweights goes all the way up to 32,000 pounds!

New V8-powered '57 Chevrolet trucks, heavily loaded, made one of the world's toughest roads look easy! In a straight-through test run, they rolled over the famous ALCAN Highway to Alaska—in less than 45 hours (normally a 72-hour run). Here's proof in action of power that'll handle your toughest jobs—and keep coming back for more!

Six new Task-Force huskies made the run. And six ultra-modern Chevy engines proved their power and performance—with gas mileage up to 18.17 miles per gallon! Two of these engines were not stopped once, and they hummed right at peak efficiency the entire 1,520 miles!

Chevy's big V8's—including the new 283-cu.-in. Super Turbo-Thrift—turned in top performance jobs. They hauled typical loads up and down towering grades and through mud holes that sucked wheels into hub-deep mud. They roared on through miles of heavy dust that narrowed visibility to a few hundred feet. And in spite of the varying altitudes and temperatures, not a single truck was forced to drop out or turn back! Stop by and see them soon!

Whatever your job, there's an Alcan-proved Chevrolet Task-Force truck ready right now to save you time and money!

SOIL BANK CHECKS RECEIVED IN BOONE

Walter Brown, manager of the Boone County Agricultural Stabilization Committee office in Burlington, has announced payment of $54,694.89 to farmers in the soil bank program.

The payments cover corn, $48,831; tobacco $5,415, and wheat, $448.

In addition, Mr. Brown said, incentive wool payment checks paid during the first week of October totaled $6,425.

All farmers who anticipate entering the 1957 acreage reserve or conservation reserve programs should contact Boone County ACS office well ahead of their 1957 crop year farm planning in order to obtain full benefits from the programs, A. L. Stephens, chairman of the Boone ACS, has announced.

Annual Meeting of Boone Co. Artificial Breeding Co-op Held

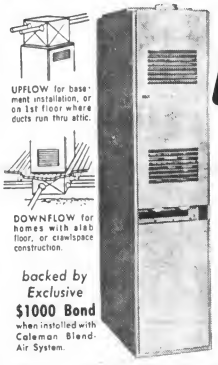
The annual meeting of the Boone County Artificial Breeding Co-op was held recently at the courthouse in Burlington. Jack Caldwell was elected president. He is an outstanding Brown Swiss breeder and is secretary of the Kentucky Brown Swiss Breeders Assn.

Other officers named were: Ray Vice, vice president, and Jerald Dixon, secretary and treasurer. Directors elected were W. J. Scott, Burlington; Dolpha Sebree, Florence, and B. S. Wagner, Ludlow. Grant Madden, Florence, was elected state director for this county.

Reports of the progress of the Co-op for the past year were given by Jerald Dixon and Ben Riley of Union, technician for Boone county. 1263 cows were bred artificially in the county the past year, an increase of 164 over last year. Forty-three new members have joined the Co-op this year.

Kenneth Young, a representative of the State-KABA, gave a very interesting talk and showed slides of the bulls used by the KABA.

Corn Stalks Disked Down Provides Cover In Winter



Corn stalks disked into the soil will do "pretty well" as a winter cover, says Lyle Leonard, UK Agricural Extension Service soil conservationist. Disking down is recommended because corn harvested by mechanical picker often is handled too late to allow a cover-crop sowing.

Keep stalks in close contact with soil surface, either flat on it or worked into the top inch or two of soil. They will absorb beating rains and reduce soil splash. Disk on lay them on the contour at right angles to the field slope.

The more stalks the better, Leonard says, for erosion control. Also, leaching of nutrients from the field seems to be less with disked down stalks. Left standing, stalks nutrients seem to leave with rain runoff, the soils seem to absorb better the nutrients leached from the stalks when the latter disked down.

If possible, sow a cover with the disked down stalks, Leonard says.

A Fine Property—Easy Terms

Here is a piece of property with a guaranteed value of $10,000. We are authorized to offer it to you on a down-payment of about 3½% (e. g., about $350). The installments may be paid once a year, at the same rate. After the first two payments have been made, we will credit you with a part of these installment payments on the principal, even though the payments represent less than the interest alone that would be charged you on any other purchase of income property.

We will also agree that when these credits are made to your account on principal, they will establish for you a guaranteed equity. Should you want to abandon your plan after the first two years, we will guarantee that this equity will be yours and can be taken out in cash, or in the form of a prorata portion of the original piece of property.

Further, we will agree that when you have made twenty annual payments, equal to 65% or 70% of the value of this property, we will give you a deed to the property—to 100% of the property!—and it will then be yours free of all encumbrance.

We guarantee also that this piece of property will be worth the amount named in the original contract, $10,000, on the day you are 65; and we agree to pay you that amount for your property, in cash, if you want it.

We further guarantee that, if you do not want to sell the property to us at that time, but wish to have it furnish an income, we will administer it for you, we will guarantee the income and will guarantee unconditionally to conserve the principal without loss of value, and dispose of it as you may direct.

But, most of all: We will agree that in event of your death at any time, even though you may have made only the first installment payment, we will deliver the property to your family, free of encumbrance, paid for in full, worth $10,000 then and there, with all subsequent installment payments cancelled.

THE GALL BLADDER

By Dr G C Donohoo

One of the most potent contributors to a pleasant disposition and its natural concomitant, a pleasing personality is a healthy gall bladder. The number of people with sour faces and a disposition that repels, which comes from bad gall bladders, is said by authorities to be large.

Although it is said that about one person in every ten or fifteen have gall stones, the number that suffer from direct symptoms when the stones become obstructed in the little tube leading from the gall bladder to intestines is not nearly so large. Thus one may have difficulty without that severe gall stone colic.

Three things are essential to help nature prevent gall bladder and for that matter liver trouble as well. First, see that the condition of nerve impulses are normal. Second, breathe deep and take bending exercises that stress and squeeze the gall bladder and liver. They were meant to be kept active and pliable by such exercise. Third, eat the right kind of food.

By far the most important is to see that the nerve impulses are free and undistructed. A spinal analysis will determine this promptly. Consult your Chiropractor for directions as to how to maintain a healthy gall bladder.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Phone ATlantic 3-5371.)

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Luchte, Hollywood Drive, in November 27.

The following attended the meeting: Mesdames Grant Maddox, William Fitz Gerald, Thomas Randall, F. W. Dempsey, William Fultz, C. F. Blankenbeker, H. F. STAIN REMOVAL

Housewives are reminded that perspiration stains or stains from antiperspirants should be removed from clothing before it is put away for the winter. Left on garments, the stains yellow and may weaken the fabric.

For best and easiest removal of the stains, wash or sponge them promptly with warm water in which soap or detergent is used. Dry cleaning will not remove the stains, as they require water to dissolve them, according to USDA textile research chemists. For [illegible] yellowed stain, try a mild bleach, such as sodium perborate.

Color changed by perspiration can sometimes be restored after washing by holding that area over the fumes from an open ammonia water bottle. Because old stains are alkaline, try restoring the color by sponging with a little vinegar in water, then rinsing in clear water.

The [illegible]-like film sometimes seen on the cut surface of smoked ham is caused by the refraction of light on the film of fat and is harmless.

We still have twelve of those fine Humphrey pigs for sale also two 500-lb. sows and a two-year-old male hog about the same weight.

The weather about the most unusual October ever known with no killing frost and only a couple or three days of bad weather.

Mr. Fogelby and wife of Latonia were at Sunday and got their last ham which we cured for him. Well all good things have to come to an end sooner or later.

Chas. Dorsey who was ill last week with a virus infection we are glad to report is very better at this writing.

Leon Briggs, Whites Tower painter, who was injured the past week is some better at this writing.

Third week passed very quietly in the Twin and everyone was on his good behavior no damage reported but the track is fast now it will be but in full race.

Xmas cards and mottoes are in sale in the Twin and this must constitute some kind of record as in our 76 years experience we have never known it to happen before.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

It's All Over:

Now that the national election is over you'd think that Kentuckians here in the Capitol would be wanting to stop discussion of politics. But, no, that's not the case.

Even before all the ballots were in the face and first returns were awaited, several Kentuckians gathered together and the discussion immediately turned to county races back home next year. You might take a Kentuckian away from home but you can't take him away from Kentucky politics. Most of the talk centers on the part the state administration may play in the local contests next May.

Population

The Census Bureau put out a release recently on its nose-counting business and came up with the conclusion that most states increased about nine per cent in population. However, Kentucky increased only 2 to 3 percent.

The Bureau figures that Kentucky had the normal birth rate and a normal loss through death. But too many Kentuckians moved away from home, to other states. In fact, it was estimated that 193,000 Blue Grass folks departed for other sections. That figure, however, is misleading as many of those who departed were military personnel attached to Fort Knox and other reservations.

Just the same, the failure of our state to keep pace with the rest, poses a problem. New industry may be the answer.

Peace and Prosperity

During the past six weeks, here in the Capitol, we've heard over and over, that these are times of peace and prosperity. To prove it political experts tossed a lot of figures, designed to prove their case.

Well, the peace and prosperity people here gave some tax data on race track betting. In Kentucky, they said, the state in the past three months collected $463,000 on parimutuels compared to last year's $283,000 for the same time. When people bet, they said, it proves we have prosperity.

Then the other side, to prove that times are not too good, report that Kentuckians paid $392,000 in amusement taxes during the past quarter of this year, while last year the amount was much higher, $521,000. Therefore, they conclude, people don't have as much to spend.

We draw no conclusion from these tax figures except to comment that you can prove anything with a set of numbers.

WHO WON?

By the time this paper comes out we will know who won and who lost the election. Of course everyone thinks they know now, but lots of things can happen. Some are going to vote for the bond issue and Brent Spence and no one else. Some are going to vote for everyone but president, and some are just going to vote for president. So you see you can never tell how anyone will vote. Whoever wins, we will all have to work for a living. This beautiful weather we have been having keeps everyone working and very few have been in town only to get some part and right back home.

November is here and they are already getting ready for Christmas. I have had several already to inquire about bicycles, wagons, toy autos and other toys. We have already put some away and we have several orders coming in—special orders. If you cannot find what you want I will be glad to order it for you, if you get your order in early. Now is the time to write your letters from Santa and stripping room for electricity and get one or two 4 fluorescent lights to strip your tobacco by. This gives you an even light all day, therefore you can strip more tobacco and do it better.

Electricity on the farm is the cheapest thing you buy. It does more for the least money than anything else you buy. Even an electric water pump saves so many steps. Along with all the other electric appliances which save so much time, labor and money. How did we ever get along without it? The Owen County Rural Electric Co-op sure put this part of our farming country out in front. It does not matter how far back you live the R.E.A. will come to you or it already has. Several years ago you had to put up so much money to get electricity to your farm but since R.E.A. you don't.

Mrs. Treadway, down on Nicholson Road, bought a lot of Armstrong linoleum and Bolce enamel. We have been having a few that wanted a cheap 9x12 linoleum rug so to lay the truck unloaded 25 9x12 linoleum rugs to sell for 5.95. We try very hard to have what our customers want in the necessary needs—of course no one can have everything. Chick sold two 9x12 Armstrong rugs but I did not see who got them. B-b Slayback came after a pair of sled soles and bolts. Ray Kenney bought a Farmers Feeder seeder, the type that sets on a tractor draw bar and drives off the power take-off.

I went down to the farm and noticed my sheep rubbing their wool off so I decided to dip them. I tried to buy a dipping tank in Cincinnati and Lexington, but failed. I went over to Charles Neumeister's and borrowed one, then took it down to the farm. I told Bibb Hodges to get it ready and I would bring some help the next afternoon, and we would dip those sheep. So I told Red and Brewster—Clarence Combs was in the store and I told he would like to get some rye from me—when we all got there Bob had everything ready. We put the sheep in the box. Brewster pushed them into the tank and Red and Bob helped them out. We all never laughed so much and worked so hard.

Even Clarence had to get into it and get all dirty. We dipped 111 head which was some job as we had to do it in shifts. Next time I will have a tank built in the ground. All sheep should be dipped once or twice a year it all depends on how the ticks are. I said we dipped 111 sheep—but dipped Red and Bob because when Brewster pushed a sheep into the tank they would drown Red and Bob if they weren't watching. I went over to look at J. C. Reynolds sheep—he has a very good flock to sell, but I decided I had enough for this year.

Clint McBee's bulldozer built me a very nice pond. Mr. Kelly the county agent got started it for me and put the fish in it when he had. This was they say at the right time of the year to do it. Nothing like filling plenty water on a stock farm. Brewster and Bill have been running an electric line from the house to the tobacco barn and stripping room. Some putting fluorescent light in stripping room. We can't think only for you if you can not get electrician. Sometimes they do not want to bid with a small job or do not have time. We try to help all the people that [illegible] time we would be there but we can get someone to.

Elvis Haley bought a large size Coleman oil heater with a blower unit at Dan Wood and wife came after 2 gallons of Bolce interior paint for their house—they have rented Chester and Thelma Sturgeon's house down on Beaver Road. I have two very good used washing machines—one is a Kenmore just 2 years old, the other is a square porcelain tub Maytag completely rebuilt and in good condition for only $5.00. Received another shipment of fluorescent lights for stripping rooms. We have sold several of these this year. We sold more Armstrong linoleum and linoleum rugs today.

Thanks we sold repaint sets for all types of buildings. Everyone is taking advantage of this wonderful weather. Some are painting buildings, several are painting roofs and gutters. We sold several gallons of black asbestos roof coating, also some green, red and aluminum roof paint—this is a wonderful time to put it on. Laurel Kenney came over today and bought roll roofing and barb wire. Mr. and Mrs. Delaney Johnson are about ready to move into their home. Brewster will hang their plastic window shades Tuesday.

We sell lots of these plastic shades—they are very neat and not expensive. We also sell Breneman venetian blinds, we come and measure for them, then bring them and hang them for 60c sq. ft. for cloth tapes.

Kentucky Hunting Season To Open On Monday, Nov. 19th

Kentucky's season on hunting gets underway in full swing November 19 when hunters may pursue the rabbit, squirrel, quail, grouse and furbearing animals.

Preliminary indications are that this should be an especially good season, as more quail, as many rabbits, grouse and squirrel and a good supply of furbearers may be found, according to the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources' statewide game survey.

The second phase of the squirrel season opens November 19 and continues through December 16. For rabbits, quail, grouse and furbearers thee season opens on the same date and closes on January 17. The waterfowl season is in full swing right now and with the end being on January 11.

Bag limits are unchanged. For rabbits it is eight a day or a possession limit of 16 after two or more days of hunting For quail it is 10 per day and a possession limit of 20. Two ruffed grouse may be killed in a day with a possession limit of four. There is no limit on furbearing animals.

The limit for ducks is four per day and a possession limit of eight with no wood ducks included. The bag and possession limit of geese if five with not more than two canadas included.

Each hunter must have a statewide hunting license and waterfowl hunters must also have a federal duck stamp. The Department asks the hunters to ask permission from farmers before hunting on his property. It is pointed out that this is a mere courtesy on the part of the hunters.

EUROPE WILL SEE TV FILM ABOUT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's government will be the subject of a television film to be shown by the British Broadcasting Co. and other European telecasters.

The film, one of a series called "Report on America" being produced by the National Broadcasting Co., will depict the Commonwealth's civic affairs as typically representative of state government in America.

NBC is producing the film series for the United States Information Agency.

Gene Wycott, NBC television writer, visited Frankfort recently to arrange a film story and set up a shooting schedule for a camera crew which is expected to begin work November 12.

Joseph C. Harsch, NBC commentator and Washington correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor, will be the narrator on the 30-minute film.

Spoken sequences in the film will be translated into Polish, French, German, Italian, Spanish and other languages for widespread showing abroad under auspices of the Information Agency.

Producer and director of the series is London-born Don Cash, who lives in New York. "As an Englishman my aim is very simple," he says. "It is that all peoples of the world may understand and appreciate America and Americans as much as I do."

The British press and public have given the series warm welcome, NBC reports.

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

This Is It

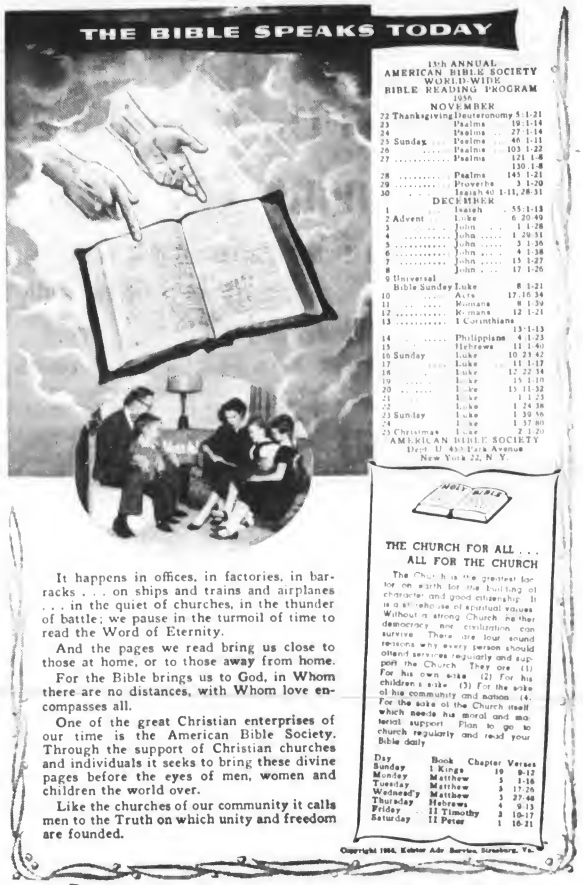
Lesson for November 11, 1956

THREE questions are asked over and over again by people who take life seriously but are still groping for the answers. First, What is Good? Is it altogether a matter of taste? Is there anything that is never good and anything that is always good, no matter what? Second, What does God want of us? What does it take to please him? Is there any simple, ordinary way of knowing what God wants? Third, Why doesn't God speak to us as he used to do to the prophets of old? Why doesn't God, who knows all the answers, share his knowledge with us?

Dr. Foreman

Country Preacher

Long ago a country preacher had these questions thrown up at him. His name was Micah. He was not a preacher in the regular sense, for he had no church, and in fact he had no connection with the regular official religion of his country. But he did speak and preach, so far as we know, only to his fellow-villagers; but what he said was remembered. We have extracts from his sermons in what we call the Book of Micah, among the minor (that is, shorter) prophets of the Old Testament. Maybe he never preached a full-length formal sermon. Maybe he just stood or sat around in the market-place, and talked to any who would listen. At any rate it is plain that he was asked much the same questions as those three just now mentioned. The country of Judah, in which Micah's small town of Moreshah was located, was either in a very prosperous condition or was running down,—depending on where you lived. In the capital city of Jerusalem everything seemed to be booming. But in the farmlands and in the little villages it was a different story. Even in the cities there were some who suspected the boom would not last. There was a kind of revival of interest in religion going on, but it was confused. People had an idea they ought to be better, but what was "good"? They felt sure they ought to obey God more carefully; but what did God want, really? Why didn't God come right out and tell people what they would have to do to "get right" with him?



This Is It

If the answers to such questions as these were written on gold plates in a strange language and kept on top of a seven-mile mountain guarded by seven wise archangels, the roads to that mountain would be jammed, and people would pay the archangels big money to translate the mystic words of wisdom. But a country preacher talking in the simple words anybody ten years old can understand—? Yes; the people of that village already had the answers, only they didn't realize it.

Why doesn't God speak? He has already spoken. Why don't we have prophets? We do have prophets, right there in your Bible. Yes, but they are hard to understand. Well, Micah says, it's not so hard to understand. What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Oh, somebody in the crowd might say, old stuff! Yes, exactly. Amos the prophet spoke of Justice, and Hosea spoke of Love and Kindness, and Isaiah spoke of humility before God Most High. This is it. If you don't need to write away to find out, this is it right here. What is Good, what God wants of us, God has already spoken. He does not change his mind.

Simple and Final

Looked at in one way, these three great requirements of God are not simple. Justice—how easy to say, how hard to make sure what is really the just and fair thing in every action! Kindness—yes, but who knows what is the kind thing to do every time? Isn't what is just in one case perhaps unjust in another? Yes, to be sure. No commandment of God is going to save us from having to think. This is not so simple as to be automatic. Nevertheless this is simple in the main. We can see the lines along which the good life must be built. We always know: if it is not just, if it is not kind, then it is out of line with God's will. And all this is final, too; again not in the sense of saving us any further thought. But final in the sense that this is God's word. We can't now or ever get beyond or above, we can't graduate from,—justice and kindness and humble reverence before God

KENTUCKIANS IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Another Coach:

Kentuckians and there were a lot of them on hand may have seen the beginning of the end of the football coach at the University of Maryland.

Ten days ago, when the Wildcats come to Washington to play Maryland, Kentuckians sat in the stands and every time the Maryland coach made a move, the Maryland fans would give out lusty boos.

The home team had lost four in a row and Kentucky's victory made it five straight. Tommy Mont is the U.M. boss and his brief reign may be coming to an end.

Women In Congress:

The ladies list no ground in this year's election. Most of the old timers returned, and Mrs. Edith Rogers of Massachusetts was re-elected to her 18th term. She first went to the House in 1925 to replace her late husband.

All of which brings us around to a Kentucky item. Voters in the Seventh Kentucky District had an opportunity to send a woman to Congress but she got only a few scattered votes and was not a serious contender. She ran as a Prohibitionist. It's been more than 20 years since a woman—the first and only—represented a Kentucky district.

Absent Fathers:

With the election over, talk is turning to legislation, and one minor bill concerns fathers who run away from home leaving mother and the children to get along as best they can.

The other day, the local Domestic Relations Court received some papers from a Kentucky mother who needed help from a deserting father. But local authorities could do nothing about it and so notified the distressed folks at home.

If Washington people have their way about it, Congress will do something to make Pop go home or sit in jail to ponder his evil ways.

Loose Ends:

Kentuckians who travel the C&O's George Washington will find a new time schedule. It leaves the Capital about 15 minutes earlier and gets to Cincinnati 40 minutes earlier . . . The inaugural stands are going up fast in preparation for Ike's second oath-taking . . . The Kentucky Society of Washington has plans for a Congressional Reception room after lawmakers return—it's set for January 11 . . . Army engineers warn that the Ohio Valley could suffer disastrous floods, in spite of flood walls, etc. Engineers feel that upstream dams and lakes are necessary to hold back the water and even the flow . . .

The November meeting of the Independence Homemakers was held at the home of Mrs. Vincent Vogelpuhl, LLL highway with Mrs. Robert Kunkel co-hostess.

The main lesson of the day was the making of lamps and shades. Several members brought samples of handmade lamps that could be made for Xmas gift suggestions and favors. Special work day was planned to make Xmas favors to be distributed to the Old Folks Home in Covington.

Those attending were: Mesdames C. Hooker, Dan Davis, Wm. House, Robert Kunkel, J. C. Reynolds, C. S. Snelson, Mrs. V. Bradford, Mrs. Vincent Vogelpuhl, the hostess, and two guests, Mrs. Sterling Staggs and Mrs. G. Shamblon. Miss Zelma Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent, was also present.

Verona Lake Ranch Square Dance In Latonia, Saturdays

Saturday night square dancing, sponsored by Thurston Moore's Verona Lake Ranch, with Jimmie Skinner, will start November 17 at the Junior Order Hall, 40th and Decourses, Latonia.

Music will be by Jimmie Skinner and Ray Lunsford, and the Verona Ranch Boys, and a professional caller will be on hand to call and instruct beginners.

A clean, wholesome atmosphere will prevail with no alcohol sold. The entire family, from the kids to Grandpa, are invited. Present square dance sets and clubs are urged to attend and new sets will be organized, both children and adults. If you like good old fashioned fun and music and want those toes to "get tappin'," come on out, it's fun for everyone.

Excessive quantities of bleach do not whiten fabrics any better or faster but can definitely weaken them.

Note from "Willie Wiredhand"

Dear Folks:

I've been troubled lately . . . really troubled. Some of my customers have complained that their electric equipment hasn't been working right. Stan Smith was in last month. Said that his lights flickered, his motors overheated, the range wasn't operating up to standard . . . and would be please do something about it?

I took Bill, a top serviceman, out to see what was wrong. He told me that the trouble at Stan's place was low voltage. Wires were too small to carry the amount of electricity reuired for the efficient operation of all of Ston's equipment. Even the service entrance wires wre too small.

Fact is, Stan nver could expect things to work right unless some changes were made in his wiring system. Well, Stan went along with Bill's recommendations . . . called his electrical contractor to add some circuits, put in larger wire and more outlets where they were needed. You should see th difference. Sure, it cost many to do the job right . . . but the Smiths are getting it back. Their equipmene is operating as we knew it should to help them do their farm and household chores easier . . . and faster. And this improved operation actually takes less electricity and, therefore, costs less!

THINK!

By Dr. G. C. Donohoo

Think for yourself and reason the proposition in your own mind. What is the logical result when the nerve supply is reduced to any particular organ of the body or when these vital forces of health are unable to follow their normal channels due to interference?

Chiropractic adjustments not only restore health; they also build health. The old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," may be considered trite, but it is sound truth.

The Chiropractic principle briefly stated, is this: The cause of disease is in the person afflicted. Adjustments correct conditions that produce illness.

The junction of every organ in the body is controlled through the brain by mental impulses which are transmitted over nerves. Any impingement or pinching of the delicate nerve fibers, interfering with the free flow of vital nerve forces causes impaired or abnormal function. This is disease. This nerve interference is produced by a vertebral subluxation.

The chiropractor — expert in his knowledge of the spine—locates the point of nerve pressure, and by adjusting the subluxated vertebra, releases the pressure. Normal condition —health—is the result.

(One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, by Dr. G. C. Donohoo, whose office is located at 7628 Dixie Highway, Florence, Ky. Telephone ATlantic 3-5371.)

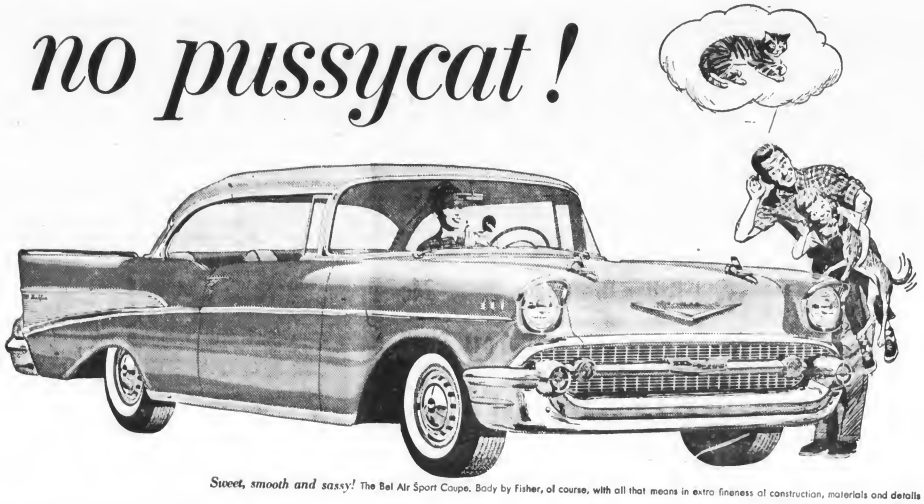
It's that new V8 in the '57 Chevrolet. It's as quiet as a contented cat and as smooth as cream . . . and it's cat-quick in response when you call for action!

No household tabby sitting in a sunny window ever purred more softly than Chevy's new V8 engine. It's so kitten-quiet and cream-smooth that you can scarcely even tell when it's idling.

But when you nudge the accelerator, you know it's there, all right! Its right-now response keeps you out of highway emergencies. It overpowers steep hills with such ease they seem like level landscape.

This new Chevrolet V8 puts up to 245 high-compression horsepower* under your command! It's sassy, sure—but as tame to your touch as a purring pussycat.



Come try the smoothest V8 you ever put a toe to; and all the good things that go with it. Like new Turboglide—the first and only triple-turbine automatic drive (an extra-cost option). And Chevy's own special sweet and solid way of going.

FARMERS

The other night I was watching television and a 15-year-old boy said his classmates laughed at him because he was going to be a farmer. That is where the city boy is so dumb that he doesn't know what it takes to be a good farmer. So many of them get a job working under a boss and all they ever know is what he tells them. But that farmer has to be a scientist, chemist, veterinarian, mechanic, carpenter, painter, plumber and electrician also a lot of other jobs he has to know how to get done. The farmer feeds the world—the farmer buys more than any other individual.

Any farmer who keeps his farm up, his buildings and fences repaired, does not have surplus money in the bank. Whenever a farmer gets a little extra money, he spends it on his farm for equipment and improvements. A good frmer takes pride in keeping everything up and it generally pays off. Being a farmer today is one of the greatest professions. It takes a lot of money, as it takes in any business. A farmer has to have lots of machinery because he can't get any help and has to do most of the work himself. They farm so much easier now than when I was on the farm in 1924.

From what I heard in the store, on radio and television the farmers were not satisfied with the Republicans being in office and operating this country. I guess but from the election reports, they voted Republican in our section of the country every Republican won but one—Brent Spence being reelected. When Eisenhower came to Lexington and asked Kentucky voters to elect Cooper and Morton that was all it took. We have had a peaceable, profitable four years and that is what we Kentuckians want. No war and a peace time profit is very good and we hope to have more of this.

Election day, 1956, and it drizzled rain in the afternoon but there seemed to be a large number voting. As I sit here watching the television reports on the election it looks like a Republican landslide all but Brent Spence, and he will win every election in which his name is on the ballot. Mr. Spence has done a lot for Northern Kentucky and everyone knows it. Northern Kentucky is a great place to live not to have any more political pull than we do—however, we do very well, I think.

We sold a "lot" of different items today—Red sold some outside white paint. I sold 32 qt. of Congo Wall and some paint to Lewis Arnold, Brewster sold a radio, I sold Jim Clyle a wood heater and pipe—he had just arrived home from Florida—he saw Reamy Simpson, said he was laying down taking it easy when he saw him—because he wanted a 4 bar of heavy steel and had Beach drill him some holes in it. We have to be blacksmith and mechanics. Mrs. Everett Bickers bought a garbage can, a kitchen stool and some Bolte paint—as long as weather permits, they are doing some outside painting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Brashear, Verona, one of my best customers, bought a beautiful Perfection fuel oil heater, to be installed Monday. Brewster and Red were everywhere today—took a wheelbarrow over to Ed Kennedy at Beaver—then back to Mary Ella Logan's and serviced their oil heater, then to see Cooks on Green Road to put up new furnace pipe, then to Independence to Mr. Maurer's to service an oil heater. In the meantime we were all busy here. Chuck worked on a Duo-Therm transport heater for two hours and then Brewster came along and he worked on it. We never did get it to work—we never have trouble like this with Perfection, if they have the draft and oil, they will burn.

One of our colored boys and family, Johnny Ingram, had had luck—his wife came up town to the grocery, while gone their house caught fire with four children in it but she went right in after them. Every one got out—a big thank you and the Red Cross came to their rescue—they are a good couple and we will all help them—they lost everything. Joe Richardson was in today and said he had the finest turkeys this year he ever had grown—he is the turkey king of Kentucky. John Shaw, another of my good Kenton county customers, had Chuck spend his lunch hour—Brewster went out to John Klein's to check his oil heater and get it ready to use. Chuck sold the last used coal heater the customer took it with him. We have most any kind of a stove you could ask for—all models in Warm Morning coal heaters, all models in Perfection oil heaters, gas heaters, wood heaters, electric heaters, electric ranges and coal ranges, a very good used coal range, also an extra good used washer. We have some cheap coal heaters, also cast iron wood heaters, and most all sizes of furnace and stove pipe.

We are not going to have very many small toys this year but we will have plenty of bicycles, tricycles, wagons, trailers, fire outfits and other toys like these. We have already sold several and put them away for Christmas—one lady bought a shotgun for her husband, another a set of drill bits for his electric drill, and another a tool box. I have had several looking for a lawnmower—I had those other two I had, so last week I found a good one—look it over if you need a 1947 reel one—with cloth top just what you need on your lawn. Another item I have is a heated water fountain for your laying hens, uses very little electricity and produces more eggs. Sold another Dayton water system and light plant today. Every day now we sell plastic windows—awning and lots of weatherstrip—also insulating and caulking gun. Come to CONRAD'S!

3 Boone Children Burned to Death

As Home Is Destroyed Early Tuesday Morning

Three Boone county children, ranging from 3 to 7 years of age, died early Tuesday morning when their home located on Camp Ernst Road, just south of the new Gunpowder Creek bridge was destroyed by fire.

The dead are children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grazioni and were listed as Elmo Fay, 3; John Clifford, 4, and Evelyn Elaine, 7. Simon Kenton FHA Members Enjoy Annual Field Trip

The Simon Kenton F. H. A. went on its annual field trip Thursday Nov. 8th.

We left the school at 9:15 with a bus load of enthusiastic girls accompanied by our advisor, Mrs. Gayle McElroy. Our first stop was the Conservatory in Eden Park. In the left wing of the Conservatory we saw tropical plants and trees. In the right wing, we saw flowers in season some of which were the Queen's Bird of Paradise flower, Pyracantha Devalli, orange and tangerine trees and many types of shrubs. In the Desert Garden we saw all types of cati plants. The most fascinating of these was the Ice Plant. We also saw the Orchid Display including large and small green, white, orchid, yellow, and striped orchids. From the Conservatory we went to Frisch's in South Fort Mitchell for a nice lunch and then to the Greater Cincinnati Airport. We observed all the different airlines at the airport and we went up to the Observation Tower to watch planes come in. We saw one plane land which was a plane of the Delta Airlines. It was four-engine plane carrying approximately sixty persons. We also visited the beautiful lounge.

We returned to school at 2:45, exhausted, but with a greater knowledge of flowers and planes.

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. is quite active this year, under the leadership of the following officers: Mrs. Harold Halthill, president; Mrs. Helen Collins, vice president Mrs. John Butler, secretary, and Mrs. Dawson Hightower, treasurer.

SOIL SAMPLES IN FALL AS GOOD AS IN SPRING

Soil samples taken in the fall gave as good results as those of later winter and early sring, says Joe Claxton, County Agr'l Ext. Agent.

This means farmers con sample safely in the fall and have more time to plan their fertilization program and buy fertilizers on the basis of test results.

Fall sampling, says Claxon, has some advantages over spring. First there are fall periods when weather is ideal for sampling, and when sampling is delayed until spring, unfavorable weather may intervene.

Second, fall sampling helps avoid this chore in the spring-rush season, so bring soil samples to the County Agent's Office.

VA Direct Loans Are Now Available To Boone County Vets

Boone county has been declared eligible for direct loans from the VA, Ray R. Adams, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Louisville, announced last week.

This action was taken, Adams said, because of the lack of active participation by private lenders to finance veterans' home loans.

The VA's direct loan program, which began in 1950, has loaned over $28 million to approximately 4,300 Kentucky veterans in areas where such funds were not available from private financial sources.

Veterans living in the counties of Daviess, Fayette, Jefferson, McCracken, Kenton and parts of Campbell county are not eligible for direct loans. All other Kentucky veterans are eligible to apply.

Eligible applications for VA direct loans are first processed through the Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program Committee, which was established by the Housing Act of 1954 for the purpose of locating private lenders in areas where the VA is making direct loans. If this committee is unble to find a private lender within 30 days, the VA Regional Office will proceed with the processing of the loan.

They were returning from Louisville to the airport at Harrison, Ohio, when the engine stopped. Failing to kick it back on, he feathered his propeller and landed on the farm of L. D. Renneckar on U. Boone County May Have Planning and Zoning Commission

Boone county's rapid growth was the chief topic of a meeting last week in Florence when a group of interested business and civic leaders, including two county officials, met in discussions intended to culminate in the formation of a planning and zoning commission for the county.

Heading the discussion was Walter Shouse, director, Division of Planning and Zoning, Department of Economic Development, Frankfort. With him were two assistants, Steven Sussna and Robert Rosa.

Mr. Shouse told the group that regular planning was a vital necessity if the county was to prevent both urban and rural blight and the creation of slum areas.

A regular planning and zoning board, Mr. Shouse said, must consist of nine persons, all appointed by the governor. The Fiscal Court may ask the governor to set up such a board. Two cities in the third through the sixth class could combine their planning and activities and ask the governor to appoint a board, or 100 citizens of the area may request the governor to set up such a region al planning commission.

The powers of such a board are fairly broad, he explained, and such a commission could draw up a master plan for the county, going so far as to zone the entire county.

Mr. Shouse pointed out that new industry was not especially interested in coming into a county where there is no planning and zoning regulations. He cited the case of the International Business Machine Co. which refused to come into Fayette county until it received absolute assurance that undesirable development surrounding the industry would not occur.

"Boone county," he said, "would have a greater industrial potential with orderly planning."

Participating in the discussion were Judge C. L. Cropper; Walton E. Stephens county tax commissioner; Walter Ferguson, farmer, William Fitzgerald, mayor of Florence; Asa M. Rouse, attorney, William Campbell, insurance underwriter, Robert Greene and Collins Simpson, real estate dealers.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Otto Inabit and husband and the writers wife attended the services at Calvary Baptist Church in Latonia, Sunday morning. Mrs. Ryle is a charter member of that church when it was organized some thirty years ago.

A new home residence is going up in the Rose Subdivision on Harris Pike and I hear Mr. several additional lots have been sold in this place and it looks like this will soon be the talk of the town.

Good crowds are attending the revival services at the Community Pentecostal Church of God in the Tower, which is now going on.

The "Rabbit Law" is out today and they are banging away at a great rate so if you don't get any meat, stop at the farm and pick up three or four rifle shot rabbits to take home.

Flies are swarming like bee's on upstairs windows in the Tower, something never seen before in the memory of it's oldest residents.

Did you ever see such beautiful fall weather as we have been having? Perhaps after all these years the poor old farmer is going to get a break at last. We have finished shucking corn, but tobacco seems to be backward as the first wet spell we had it was too early to put much down in bulk, as the stalks were still green, so now we will just simply have to wait for seasonal weather.

Mr. Floyd Smith continues to improve at his home across the road from the writer. His many friends in the Tower and elsewhere are glad to see such a great improvement in the state of his health.

Mr. Acher of Staffordsburg Road was a business visitor at the farm one evening last week.

We would like to find a buyer for two good milk cows or family cows, as we have a line on two that are tops in their field.

Christian Persons

Dr. Foreman

WHICH is more important, what a person is or what he does? According to Jesus, what a person is is the main thing. The two cannot be separated. On the one hand a person does what he does because he is what he is. On the other hand a person is what he is because of what he does. Jesus's ideal of character is set forth in the Beatitudes. Jesus's description of the ideal Christian is found in these Beatitudes. It is in every sentence with the word "blessed" (often translated "happy"). Some people get the whole business of what it means to be a Christian sadly twisted. They think what a Christian has to do and he is not pleasant, but he gritts his teeth and goes through with a hard task bravely, knowing that God will one day reward him for his life of martyrdom. Not at all. According to Jesus, the ideal character is the one that finds joy in becoming more and more like our Father in heaven. Your real athlete is the man who plays sports, not the man who goes for athletics only so as to get a "letter." Your real artist is the person who loves to paint or write, not the man who writes or paints only because he has to, for money. Your real cook is the man or woman who enjoys cooking, not the one who feels like a martyr over a kitchen range. So your real Christian is the one who is living and being one.

Christian Life Flows Outward

A second fact about the Christian life is that it is not self-centered but flows outward. It is not a stagnant swamp into which streams flow without ever finding an outlet, but more like a mountain lake, fed by fresh springs and with fresh water flowing out over the lip. A person cannot be truly good if he loves to himself and to himself. Consider how many of the Beatitudes could be true of a person living on an island apart from other people. Very few of them are selfish. Christian love is a contradiction in terms. "Love thy neighbor as thyself" is a commandment not from Christianity, but Christ himself approved it. "What do I owe?" is not the Christian's first question, but "How may I help?" This does not mean that a good Christian is a kind of meddlesome Mattie, running around sticking his finger into other people's affairs. It does mean that in the countless human contacts which he has everyday, as well as in his whole life-plan, he will not think of the world of men as merely an orange which is his to squeeze.

Out of Line?

Now a man from Mars might think that Christians would be the most popular people in the world. Everybody would love them and want them around. As a matter of fact, we have to remember that Jesus himself was bitterly hated and finally crucified. In the Beatitudes themselves there is the prediction that "all manner of evil" things will be said of Christ's followers. The simple, ugly reason for this is that this is a world still mostly out of line with God, which in other words means out of line with Love. The true Christian will always seem somewhat out of line with this world. If all men speak well of you, there must be something wrong with you.

Fertilize Lawns Now

Now that weeds and wild grasses have been killed by frost, fertilizer may be spread, says N. R. Elliott, Extension horticulturist at the University of Kentucky. For the average lawn 15 pounds of 5-10-5 or 6-8-4 for 1,000 square feet of surface may be scattered. For a good lawn it is important to spread fertilizer every year, and November is a good time for it.

Put New Life in Old Alfalfa With Fall Top-Dressing

NEW life can be put into old alfalfa fields with a top-dressing this fall of phosphate-potash fertilizer, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

Many of these fields have produced abundant hay crops during the spring and summer. As a result, a heavy drain has been made on the soil's reserves of phosphate and potash. So replenishment is needed in the form of plant food.

How much fertilizer to add, and what ratio to use, can be determined by a soil test that will give an idea of the soil's reserves of phosphate and potash, the committee points out.

On many Midwestern soils, agronomists recommend adding a fertilizer mixture such as 0-20-20 or 0-9-27 at the rate of 300 to 500 pounds per acre. If a test indicates the soil is low both in phosphate and potash, then a ratio such as 0-20-20 may be profitable.

If a boron deficiency occurs, some soils men advise applying about 30 pounds of borax per acre in addition to the phosphate-potash fertilizer.

One of the big benefits of top-dressing alfalfa fields in the fall is that the plant food helps the legumes store up nutrients in their roots. Strong, well-fed roots anchor themselves more solidly in the soil and come through severe winter weather in better shape.

By Adding Plant Food in Fall

Fall plow-down of nitrogen and phosphate fertilizer gave larger yield increase than did spring disk-in on O'Brien county, Iowa, farm. Yields (left to right) were 69, 96, 87, 99 and 99 bushels, respectively.

FARMERS can make money, save work and save time by adding fertilizer in the fall, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in citing recent statements by agronomists at Land Grant Colleges.

In addition to these advantages, the committee lists these other benefits from putting on in the fall all the phosphate and potash and most of the nitrogen you would ordinarily broadcast and plow down in the spring:

1—You can spread out your work load by fertilizing in the fall. This takes the heat off in the spring and helps speed planting operations when every minute counts.

2—The ground is usually firmer in the fall. Machinery pulls easier and does less damage to soil structure. Larger machines can be used that will save time and labor.

3—Broadcasting and plowing down puts the fertilizer in moist soil which increases its efficiency in a dry year.

4—Top-dressing meadows with phosphate and potash in the late summer or fall helps hold the legume in legume-grass mixtures.

5—Even if you have a slight loss of nitrogen over the winter, it can cost less than an extra trip over the field in the spring. And it is better to risk the loss of a little nitrogen than to risk not getting fertilizer on your fields at all.

6—In the fall, you find it easier to get the exact fertilizer ratio and grade you want.

OAK RIDGE

Seven new deacons were ordained at Oak Ridge Baptist Church Saturday night. Rev. DeMoisey was the guest speaker using John 1:35 as his text. Rev. Colvin Perry gave the invocation. The report of the examining council was given by the pastor, Rev. Frank Wilkerson. The new deacons are Charles Asch, Eugene Gatewood, George C. Richardson, John B. Obel, Everett Dameron, John Fogel and Jack King.

Chaplain William David Cooper, of the U. S. Naval Air Base, Corpus Christi, Texas, is the evangelist in a revival now being held at Oak Ridge Baptist Church. Services are held nightly, through Nov. 25th at 7:45 p. m. with a special service for young people at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday morning services will be held at 9:15 a. m.

The water hauling business is thriving these days with the trucks going up and down the roads every day. There are very few people in the community who have not had to buy a load of water yet. We could sure use some good rains.

Mrs. Charles Banks has been suffering with a very sore arm resulting from a pinched nerve.

Mrs. E. C. Harris was ill the past week but is better now and able to be out.

Carl Tomlin is expected to arrive home from Bayler University to spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Ernest Richards, Jr. is returning from the University of Ky. to spend the holidays with his parents.

Calvin Perry will spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. Ozella Perry. Calvin is a Senior at Georgetown College.

Mrs. Gertrude Dorman is now an agent for Avon Products. Gertrude is confined to a wheelchair as a result of a polio attack three years ago but she is hoping to earn her living selling Avon products and greeting cards from her home. Most of her business will have to be done by telephone. She will greatly appreciate it if you will call her (Eastwood 7-2362), when you want to purchase greeting cards or Avon products.

Menkhaus have greatly enlarged their hardware store on Taylor Mill Pike and have a good stock of toys for Christmas.

Elsie Boutwell of Taylor Mill Pike had her name drown on the "Hi Kids" program in W.K.R.C. T.V. last Saturday and will receive some prizes next Saturday on the program. She did not happen to be watching the program the night her name was drawn, but it did not take her long to hear about it from others who were watching.

KEEP EWES GAINING UNTIL LAMBING TIME

Pregnant ewes should not be allowed to lose condition as they approach lambing, says R. C. Miller, UK Agricultural Extension Service sheep specialist.

As pastures begin to fail, use of harvested feeds is necessary. Ewes actually should gain flesh the last few weeks of pregnancy if ketosis (a disease) is to be prevented.

Ewes approaching lambing are deceptive in appearance. When heavy with lamb and carrying a considerable growth of wool they may appear to be in good condition and gaining, but they may actually be thin and losing flesh. The careful sheepman will feel the backs of some of the ewes occasionally as lambing approaches, to determine condition.

Don't feed ewes too heavily during early pregnancy, Miller advises, only to let them lose condition as lambing approaches. They should come to lambing in good flesh and gaining, but not fat.

Ketosis occurs during the last few weeks of pregnancy. It is mainly in ewes older than yearlings carrying more than one lamb, and which are losing condition. Appearance of a case of ketosis in a flock should be a warning the ewes are underfed. Increase the ration and add a few ounces of molasses daily to the feed.

Circular No. 325, entitled "Lambing Time," will be helpful to sheepmen. Ask your county agent for a copy.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Another Election:

Believe it or not, another election is coming up in Kentucky early next month.

However, not many Kentuckians will be voting—only a few in those counties over in Western Kentucky, which recently was placed in the "commercial corn belt."

These corn growers will vote on the control program they want for next year. It's a complicated formula.

Tobacco Story:

What with the opening of the tobacco markets at hand, you'll be interested in a report from the Department of Agriculture. Cigarette smoking, after a decrease in the past three years, is again on the increase. Factories are expected to step-up production by about three percent.

Filter-tip development is said to be the cause of the increase. But it also means, so the farm experts explain, a change in the buying habits on the part of some manufacturers.

Transportation:

We hear a lot these days about river transportation, trucking, and other forms of hauling freight. But Uncle Sam has released some figures to show that the railroads still carry the bulk of the cargo—more than 49 percent.

Inland waterways, such as the Ohio River, the Kentucky, and the Kanawha, carry about 8 percent of the traffic.

Here, however, is a startling figrue. Pipelines which cross and criss-cross Kentucky account for approximately 16 percent of the freight. Trucks tote 18 percent.

Third Senator:

The appointment of Senator Earle as executive director of the Senate's Democratic Campaign Committee is an important one to Kentucky.

As its director, he will help elect Democratic candidates to the Senate two years from now. That means that candidates, seeking help, will beat a path to his door. That, in turn, means the portly Kentuckian will have a lot of friends on the floor of the Upper House. And friends, in turn, mean influence and prestige. Could be Kentucky will have a "third" senator representing the Blue Grass State.

Recommends Freezing Cranberries Now

Something new has been discovered about cranberries, the fruit that adds so much in the way of flavor and color to winter meals. Mrs. Pearl Haak, specialist in foods at the University of Kentucky, says they can be frozen very satisfactorily with or without sugar, and with little loss in weight or volume.

Frozen cranberries retain their fresh, appetizing flavor more successfully than do canned berries.

Mrs. Haak recommends freezing cranberries now when they are at their height of perfection. They will then be ready for use in the busy holiday season ahead as well as during the spring and summer. Jewell-like jelly, sparking sauce, lattice-top pie, crip relish with apple or orange, colorful sherbet, or refreshing punch are of the tempting dishes that can be made.

The process for freezing is simple, says Mrs. Haak. Look over the berries to remove any that are bruised or spoiling, and any stems. Wash, drain, and then store in moisture, vapor-proof containers or bags or any container you would use for freezing other fruit.

When frozen berries are used for making jelly, the amount of water usually called for be reduced approximately one-fourth.

At a special meeting of the Walton-Verona Senior Class, the staff for the 1956-57 Proboscis was named. We think this staff with the aid of the entire Senior class will make it possible for the paper to be a success. Reading from left to right are: Sara Dean Hance-Feature Editor, Joyce Ann Schwab-Assistant Subscription Chairman, Lucille Speagle-Photographer, Betty Phillips-Photographer, Sue Gutzeit-Editor-in-Chief, Bobby Hinds-Sports Editor, Peggy Dowing-Assistant Editor and Bobby Medley-Assistant Editor. Ray Green-Subscription Chairman was not present.

THE FRESHMAN TEAM

There are quite a few boys out for the freshman basketball team. Just about every freshman boy is participating. That is a good thing, it makes the boys want to try harder to make the team. Starting out young will make it easier to have team work, they learn to pull together and that is what it takes to make a team. Good luck, freshmen.

Are You Thankful?

Who has any more to be thankful for than we do? When you sit down Thursday to your Thanksgiving dinner, as well as other days, are you thankful for what you have? The right to worship the way you wish, the good health you have had all these years. Sometimes we think we are in a very bad condition, then look at others in worse condition, trying to get on. We have so many wonderful things in this country to be thankful for and everyone in such a hurry, we don't take time to thank the Lord for all we have to use these short years here on this earth.

We came in without anything and will leave the same way. Some never enter a church to even show the Lord, their neighbors and the community, that they are thankful to live where they can attend the church of their choice. How would you like to live where there were no churches or religion of any kind? Of course you would say NO. But do you ever give to help keep these churches going? Walton and community has the finest group of churches and church members that you will find, anywhere.

George Edwards from Crittenden bought Bailey out side white paint for his house a few weeks ago. Today he was in and said that was the best paint he ever used. J. R. Flynn up at Bracht, has remodeled his house and now he is painting it inside mostly with Jewel Magic paint. He used some Bulce Liquid Satin. Mr. Bird, over at Atwood, bought a Sunbeam chipmaster —as you know, Sunbeam makes the best appliances. I bought a large selection of GE radios, also some record players. I believe we have had the best luck with GE radios than any other brand we have sold.

It was hot and dry with very few in town on Chick Reid and I went down and helped Bob Hedges at my farm husk corn. We like to get out now and then, we stay in the store very close. We sold so many of those 39c storm windows we ran out twice. Better stop all those air cracks as it is going to get cold before long. Mr. Beatty, at Crittenden finished his plumbing and brought back what he had left. Raymond Baker came after two rolls of felt paper. Mr. and Mrs. Rigler over next door to Joe Richardson were here after plumbing yesterday and back today after some wall covering.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson Sanders, over at Verona got a used Perfection oil heater. Reid and Brewster installed it Friday. While they were doing this I sold Mr. Bunch, a teacher at Simon Kenton, who lives in Rev. Wayman's house at the corner of Apple Drive and Ky. 17 a large Warm Morning coal heater. They came in just in time to install this heater before quitting time. Chick went over to J. C. Reynolds and John Klein's to repair their Dayton water systems. Mr. and Mrs. John Hopperton were in looking for a coal and wood circulating heater this is a heater they have quit making. I don't know why as we have lots of calls for them.

Today Loretta Richardson and mother from Kenton Station, were over, they bought a lot of linoleum and 2 rolls of felt paper. Chick and Beach sold 2 coal heaters. Of course we sell heaters every day. We sold a lot of plumbing today. Everett Jones, son who is building a new house, bought several pieces of plumbing and some copper pipe. Today we put out some of our bicycles, tricycles, wagons and lots of other toys for Christmas. Several have been buying gifts and laying them away for Christmas. We are not going to have the large assortment of small toys but we will have the best in larger toys and gifts for everyone in the better values.

—We try to have lots of Sunbeam and GE small appliances, toys of all kinds for the men and we many for the ladies useful items. A new plumb nail hammer with fiber glass handles makes a very nice gift. A set of drill bits for electric drill or if he has not it have an electric drill we have them for 12 50 18 50 24 50 and 45 75 which are very useful in the farm or around the home. A tool grinder to sharpen all the tools would make another nice gift. We have so many gifts in plastic and pyrex for the ladies also so many cooking utensils and gadgets for the home.

Mrs. Ruth Worthington and mother Mrs. Edgar Clifton, were in Saturday. We sold several linoleum rugs, water heaters and fluorescent lights for stripping tobacco. If your stripping room is not wired and you need lights give us a call. I believe we have all this that they turn down so we sure get some low ones. Friday Charles Steers came in said he and others had been working in his water pump at his home and no water yet. He wanted Brewster to help him out but Brewster was not here so I tried to sell him a new water system which he should have bought.

Never-rusters with an old water pump or most any electric appliance. If you want to buy a new one when the old one quits. Harley came back after Brewster said turn on new Elast n set water system. Took it out and in two hours had him water and plenty of it. Mrs. Rapp over at Staffordsburg called to see if Brewster was home and to her neighbor's where pump he went over and put in new heater between the pump and tank then turned it on and in water the first time. We never like to happen real often.

We sold eight water heaters and [illegible] at an ends here when the [illegible] Leonard Caldwell came in with the [illegible] heater. Brewster fixed it for [illegible] the heater and [illegible]

Seven Left Homeless In Kenton County As Fire Levels Residence

A wind-swept fire in freezing weather last week left a Kenton county family of seven homeless. Domage was estimated at $8,000.

The fire occurred shortly after noon at the home of Leland Riddell, Sr., on Mt. Mary Road, near Morning View. The blaze was detected by his wife, Edith, who was preparing Thanksgiving dinner.

Chief Cecil Ishmael of the Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department, said that when they arrived the fire was out of control and was being pushed by a 50-mile an-hour wind which hampered them in fighting the blaze.

Mrs. Riddell said she smelled smoke and when she opened the door of a back bedroom of the six-room frame dwelling the ceiling of the upper floor caved in. The mother then led three of her children, Genevieve, 16, Jerry, 10, and Elizabeth, 7, to safety.

Mr. Riddell and his son, Leland, Jr., were hunting near Falmouth at the time. Another daughter, Juanita, 19, was also away from home.

Chief Ishmael said 15 firemen concentrated their efforts on a nearby two-car garage and another building which contained 100 bushels of corn, to prevent the fire spreading. Nearby trees were ignited. Firemen fought the blaze for more than two hours.

Property loss was estimated at $5,000 and contents, $3,000. Chief Ishmael said the house was partially insured. Firemen said the blaze was caused by either a defective flue or faulty wiring.

Former Teacher "Showered" by PTA At Regular Meeting

The Walton P. T. A. met last Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., in the school. Mrs. Wesley Burgess, president, presided at the business session. A report was given on the Halloween party, which was pleasing to everyone. Mrs. Joseph Tackett gave the devotional from Isiah 44:8-17.

The highlight of the meeting was a stork shower, given by the P. T. A. in honor of Mrs. Paul Kline, a former teacher of the third grade. Rev. A. E. Atkinson dismissed the meeting with prayer.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 19. Each member is asked to come early, is possible, to help pack candy for the school children's treat.

Average Is $57.68 at Erlanger Warehouse

Burley tobacco apparently sold at the highest opening-day level in history Tuesday as the first sale sales of the 1956 crop began. Only one of the 22 of 29 markets reported by the State Department of Agriculture had an average lower than the 1955 opening day—Greensburg, whose average was down 97 cents.

The department said 13,426,909 pounds were sold at the 22 markets for $8,068,223, an average price of $60.09 per hundred pounds.

A good tobacco crop pushed opening-day sales averages Tuesday at the Kenton Loose Leaf Warehouse, Erlanger, $2.05 a hundred pounds over last year. From the floor 297,318 pounds of burley was sold to representatives of the nation's largest tobacco concerns for a total of $169,189.54.

Last year's opening day overage was $55.05, compared to $57.68 this year.

Receipts of tobacco was slow at the two Erlanger warehouses, Kenton Loose Leaf and Covington Independent, Otwell Rankin, secretary-treasurer of the two houses, said. "The dry weather is slowing down receipts," Mr. Rankin said, but the crop is good, and sales show it."

High prices for crops went to Cora and Albert Schaffer, Butler, 2498 lbs., for $62.91; Roy Gray, Butler, 1486 lbs., $62.25; Raymond Withom, Petersburg, 1026 lbs., $62.06; Chester Richardson, Morning View, 2060 lbs., $60.76; H. H. Penick, Walton, 2010 lbs., $60.66; K. B. and Clara Riley, Butler, 2198 lbs., $61.38; Floyd West, Williamstown, 2348 lbs., $60.21.

Mr. Rankin said the high basket sold for $66, and the low, $30.

Wednesday, the Covington Independent opened with about 150,000 lbs. to be sold from the floor.

To the two Erlanger warehouses come farmers from the tri-state area of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana. Although the warehouses do not provide the largest market for crops, they are among the fastest moving in Kentucky, Boyd Elliott, president of the two houses, said.

Buyers at the burley sales include: American Suppliers, R. J. Reynolds, Liggett & Meyers, P. Lorillard, Southeastern Tobacco, Southwestern Tobacco, Brown & Williamson, James I. Miller, Alec Parker, Falls City Tobacco, and Carrollton Tobacco.

Cropper Bowing Out As Demo Chairman In Boone County

Judge C. L. Cropper, Burlington, in a totally unexpected announcement, said this week that he would not seek re-election as chairman of the Boone County Democratic party organization. The election is scheduled for Saturday, December 8.

"For the past 24 years, I have been chairman of the Boone County Democratic Executive Committee, and I shall not be a candidate for reelection as county chairman," Judge Cropper said.

"I appreciate the long tenure of office, but due to my other duties as judge of Boone County Court nd as a member of the Fiscal Court, I feel that some other Democrat should assume the chairmanship. My hope is that all Democrats will work together in harmony for the good of the party."

Elections in each precinct throughout the county for selection of precinct chairmen will take place this Saturday afternoon. Precinct chairmen then will convene on Saturday, December 8 for election of a county chairman and a secretary.

Judge Cropper said he was just stepping out as county chairman, but not out of politics. "I most certainly will be a candidate for County Judge next year," he said.

The primary will be held May 29. Judge Cropper will be seeking his fifth consecutive term.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

What! Already?

With the ballots scarcely counted and the results not even official, political observers here in the Capitol are talking about 1960 presidential candidates.

John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky was the one list as an Eisenhower Republican. Other GOP possibilities included Vice President Nixon, Senator Dirksen of Illinois, Senator Knowland of California and, even, Tom Dewey. On the Democratic list are Adlai Stevenson again, Governor Meyner of New Jersey, Senator Kefauver, Senator Johnson of Texas, and Senator Symington of Missouri.

Barkley Story:

The pleasing report that the Barkley papers have been turned over to the University of Kentucky brings to mind a story regarding a beautiful desk presented to the late Kentuckian by the Philippine Government.

The desk was so large, and so out of place in the decor of the Barkley office, that it was moved down the hall, way to another room and used by lesser members of the Barkley staff. Often visitors to the office would get a kick out of just accompanying the chair and desk of honor.

Highway Costs:

Now that Kentucky has passed its highway bond issue and Uncle Sam is prepared to put up money, it might be well to look at some road building experiences across the nation.

Farm land located near express highway intersections will go up in value tremendously, and isolated areas could become suburban centers. However, there will be other sections along the right of way which actually will depreciate in value because getting on and off the land will entail some travel.

Usually, Uncle Sam makes an offer and if it is not acceptable the owner may go to court where his neighbors will make a judgment. This much must be remembered. Regardless of what you as an owner believe the land to be worth, Uncle Sam will eventually get it.

How's Business?

Government experts report business is picking up in Kentucky, but it is still running behind last year.

For example, automobile sales are increasing but the number sold is behind the 1955 march. Department store sales are in an identical position, with totals being 8 percent behind last year. Jobless claims are also up a bit. Economists, however, declare there is no need for alarm. Last year, they explain, was a good year and this year hasn't been bad. We'll know more as the holiday markets swing into high gear.

Bullittsville-Idlewild Home'kers

The November meeting was called to order with devotional by Mrs. Huey Aylor. Motion was made that the club give to United Appeal, and a donation was given toward the purchase of choir robes. There will be a Homemakers gift sale at the Farmers Market, Covington, December 14-15.

Meeting was adjourned for a delicious lunch with Mrs. William Jones, Mrs. Ray Hill and Mrs. Burman Roberts as hostesses.

The afternoon session was opened with a pledge to the flag. Mrs. Vernon Anderson and Mrs. Theodore Birkle showed various ways to make Christmas decorations, and Mrs. Henry Hudson gave the second lesson on painted trays.

Members present were: Mesdames Huey Aylor, Vernon Anderson, Robert Grant, Jr., Maro Green, Henry Hudson, William Jones, Lee Marshall, Harry Matthews, Burman Roberts, Henry Siekman, Erl Souther, Robert Grant, Sr., Ray Hill, Lee Girvin, Eddie Smith, Milton Pearson, Larry Meehring, Charles Patrick, John Randall, Robert Culver, and Theodore Birkle.

New member was Mrs. Leo Lawson, and guests, Mrs. Ruth Ready and Evelyn Holt.

Next month will be the Christmas party.

Pork, turkey and potatoes top the list of plentiful foods in Kentucky in November, followed by broilers, eggs, beef and beef products, cabbage, pears, dates, cranberries, rice, peanut butter, fish sticks and milk and dairy products.

TWO GIRLS, A CHEVY AND A RECORD!

A meaningful achievement in automobile performance

Most automobile performance records you read about these days are set on a track or closed course. The results are usually pretty difficult to relate to the kind of day-in, day-out driving most of us do. Running at safe and legal speeds, a '57 Chevrolet recently chalked up a new coast-to-coast record on the road. And the way it set this record is even more important than the record itself!

A new '57 Chevrolet recently proved it has the qualities most people look for in a car—and proved it on the roads you travel, under the same conditions you drive in every day. It broke the record for the coast-to-coast run from New York to Los Angeles (certified by NASCAR). It was a strictly stock, V8-powered Chevy. It was driven by two young ladies.

This last fact, we think, is even more important than the impressive new record set by Chevrolet. Oh sure, it's nice to know that a Chevrolet can cross the country in one uninterrupted span—and do it in less than 57 hours. It's a tribute to Chevrolet's great-hearted V8 engine and solid road-worthiness that it could travel day and night for 2,913 miles at safe and legal speeds—and better the existing record for the trip by more than three hours. But it's only when you consider that all the driving was done by 98-pound Betty Skelton and her friend Caroline Russ that the true significance of this record run becomes apparent.

When a pair of young ladies step into a car and drive it round the clock to a new transcontinental record, you know that car is easy to drive. You begin to see what we mean by smooth-cruising comfort . . . by nailed-to-the-road stability by sweet-feeling sureness of control . . . by quicksilver responsiveness.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Heart at Peace

Lesson for December 2, 1956

EVERYBODY wants what Jesus Christ has to offer. At least, they think they want something by the same name, but they do not always know how to get it. Let a book come out with "Peace" in the title and it may easily become a best seller. Between a heart and mind at rest and a heart torn in two, restless, dissatisfied, in perpetual turmoil, who would not choose the heart at peace? But the word Jesus used when he said to those anxious friends, "Let not your heart be troubled"—at least the word the Greek writer used in reporting Jesus was much the same as a modern Latin States used; only what Jesus meant was something quite different.

Dr. Foreman

No Arctic Calm

The Stoics had a word "ataraxia" and in it they thought they had the key to happiness. Christ not that, at least the key that would lock the door against unhappiness. What they meant by it was indifference, just not caring. Of course there is truth in that notion. It is only the sympathetic who can be bothered with other people's troubles. One way to insure yourself against sorrow in this world is simply never to allow yourself to love any one. One way not to worry about tomorrow is not to care what happens or whether anything happens. But this is not the kind of peace of heart which Jesus himself had, or wants his friends to have. The Arctic Ocean is perfectly calm; it is locked in everlasting ice. But the icy heart is not the Christian heart. A swamp is peaceful too; no waves break on its shores. And a human heart can be a swamp as well as an icy lake. But this again is not the heart at peace of which Christ spoke.

Does Faith Bring Peace?

So the heart at peace is not the cold, indifferent heart; it is not the sluggish dull self-centered heart. It is the peace of the flowing river, the peace of the great electric generator which though motionless itself, sends out power to city and countryside. But how to have this? Let not your heart be troubled, Jesus said: Believe . . . We hear a great deal about the power of faith. The pathway of faith is the pathway to peace. Yes; but does faith bring peace? It is easy to misunderstand this. Faith can bring a false and fatal peace, not the real thing. A hunter in the north woods can put faith in his compass, and not worry about being lost. But if his compass is wrong he may lose his life. A patient can trust a surgeon; but if the surgeon is incompetent, the patient's trust is fatal. Jesus himself used the expression, "Your faith has saved you." But faith will not save you if it is faith in the wrong thing or the wrong person. Somewhere in the United States there stood a fine bridge for many years—at least it was perfectly built on from one side of the river, but the other side had never been built. Faith that does not rest in something or some one worth believing in, is like that bridge; it's worse than no bridge at all, because in the dusk it may tempt people out to their deaths.

"Not What, But Whom"

"Believe," said Jesus. But there are some important words after that. Just believing is not enough. Moreover, believing something is still not what Jesus meant. Some people think that the way to a peaceful heart is to believe a catechism, a set of doctrines. That is not the main thing. "Believe in God," is the word. He who created all things, he in whom all things exist, holds me in his hand too. The Infinite God has room in his heart for me. Turning to him in faith is the highway to peace.—But why does Jesus say, "Believe also in me"? Is not belief in God enough? Or the other way around. Is it not enough to believe in Christ? The Christian experience of faith never can separate Christ and the heavenly Father. The best way to express it would be to say we believe in God in Christ. To believe in God as if Christ had never lived, is to believe in the dark and terrible Mystery, the awesome Avenger, whom the Gentiles feared. To believe in Christ as if God could be ignored, is to believe in Man, man at his best but still man. The way to peace is the way of faith in the God whose glory we see in the human face of Jesus of Nazareth.

Of Such is the Kingdom of God

Some people argue that the words of Christ imply that God's Kingdom belongs to children and not to adults. Indeed, there are some families whose worship habits suggest as much. The youngsters are bundled off to Sunday School; and the grown-ups stay home.

But Biblical scholars have long agreed that Christ's words point to the attitude, not the age, which is the mark of God's Kingdom.

The implicit faith, the humble acceptance, the eager yearning with which children approach Christ's teaching—these are the qualities which belong to God's Kingdom.

Perhaps we are foolishly infatuated with the notion that our children should follow in our footsteps. If we start them in the right direction, the direction of the Church, we may gain much more by following in theirs.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Soil Test Gives Clues to Need for Plant Nutrients

FIVE steps for taking accurate soil samples were listed here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on suggestions by Purdue University agronomists:

1—Pick an area on your farm that is uniform in color and soil texture—one which has had similar cropping and fertilizer treatment.

2—Avoid mixing soils that are light and dark colored, or those with a different crop history or past fertilizer treatment.

3—Use a sampling tube, auger or shovel to remove a small sample from surface to plow depth.

4—Stay away from fertilizer bands in row crops, farm lanes, field borders, feeding areas, sand ridges and areas within 100 feet of gravel roads.

5—Mix the samples representing one area thoroughly in a clean pail. Spread out the final mixture to dry. Use enough of this mixture to fill one soil carton.

Agronomists advise sampling soils this summer and early fall, and sending them promptly to the soil testing laboratory. This will give plenty of leeway for the soil testing results to be back in time for fall ordering of fertilizer.

Soil sampling instructions, forms to fill out and shipping containers can be obtained from local county agents or fertilizer dealers.

Soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes.

"Purdue agronomists point out that soil tests are only as good as the samples a farmer takes from his field," says the committee. "Hence it pays to make as accurate samples as possible.

"Soil tests can provide a good guide for determining the plant food reserves of the soil. They can help a farmer provide his crops with the balanced fertility needed to get profitable returns from his investment in fertilized."

Ryland Homemakers

"Thankfulness" was the devotional theme presented by Mrs. Harold Ward at the November meeting of the Ryland Homemakers Club at the home of Mrs. Alfred Rich, conducted by the president, Mrs. W. P. Schwoll.

Mrs. William Damon reported on the annual meeting held October 16 at the Madison Avenue Christian Church, Covington. Mrs. Alfred Rich, citizenship chairman, read a pamphlet on the importance of voting and urged each member to vote at the November election.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Ward with a Christmas party and planning of baskets for Christmas gifts.

Members attending the November meeting were Mesdames W. P. Schwall, F. B. Hermes, William Damon, O. J. Williams, William Bagby, G. A. Damon, I. H. Lawson, Evert Wilson, Rudolph Cosson, Harold Ward, Alfred Rich, W. B. Barnes and Miss Ruth Schmidt. Guests included Mrs. Virginia Moffett, and Mrs. Ward's mother, Mrs. Carpenter, and an aunt, Miss Carpenter, from Courtland, Miss.

A HOMECOMING

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sturdivent, of Verona, have had as their guests for the past ten days their two daughters from the far west, Mrs. Dorothy Caglia from San Jose, Calif., and Mrs. Dewey Ferguson from Ouray, Colo. They have had a most pleasant visit with their parents, and sister, Mrs. Rose Coyle and family of Verona, and Mrs. Ferguson's son, Norman, and family of Dry Ridge.

Mrs. Sturdivent had a homecoming dinner prepared for them celebrating the occasion, which coincided with the third birthday of her little granddaughter, Barbara Ann Coyle. The menu consisted of roast turkey with dressing, and cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, fresh green beans, fresh corn, candied sweet potatoes, spiced beets, stuffed olives, pickles, giblet gravy, cauliflower, turkey salad a la Waldorf, and hot rolls, choice of fresh strawberries, peaches or apricots with a generous helping of Barbara Ann's birthday cake, and milk, tea or coffee.

After completion of her visit, Mrs. Caglia returned to her home by plane. Mrs. Ferguson will remain here for awhile longer before returning to her home.

SWEATERS DESERVE CAREFUL ATTENTION

Before you wash a sweater for the first time, find the hang tag that was attached to it by the manufacturer, says Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, UK Extension specialist in clothing. Without such specific information as to laundering, she makes these recommendations.

1. Wash each sweater individually, before it gets very soiled.
2. Turn garment wrong side out.
3. Dissolve pure, mild soap or synthetic detergent in hot water, then add cold water to make it lukewarm.
4. Immerse sweather and gently squeeze suds through it.
5. Rinse in several waters of lukewarm temperature.
6. Remove excess moisture by rolling in a towel. Do not twist or wring.
7. Lay on dry towel and gently pat to shape for drying.

Oil and grease spots should be spot-cleaned with a dry-cleaning solvent. On one of the new synthetics, rub a thick solution of washing compound on the spot and rinse it in cold running water until the water runs clear. Then launder as usual.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION—

I wish to thank all my friends for the cards, letters, visits and gifts during my stay in the hospital.

National Defense Program Presented At DAR Meeting

At historical Hopeful Lutheran Church on Hopeful Lane Florence the National Defense program of the Boone County D.A.R. was presented at the November meeting. William P. McEvoy, a native of this county and present County Attorney, was guest speaker.

Mr. McEvoy told his audience that forty percent of our National income is spent for National Defense and he spoke at length on the importance as well as the activity of the United Nations organization. He also stressed the wisdom of all to be ever mindful that National Defense means in defense of home and of family and the necessity to educate our young people in the spiritual and traditional ideals of our American way of life.

A business meeting was held during the evening and at its conclusion Mrs. Eva Goodridge and Mrs. Jennie Deans, with their co-hostesses, Mesdames J. B. Wolfe, J. P. After curing sweet potatoes at 70 degrees for about three weeks, they should be stored at 50 to 55 degrees.

About 139,000 colonies of bees produced almost three million pounds of honey last year.

Seventh Birthday Party

Esther Mae Kidwell, Richwood Road, celebrated her seventh birthday recently by entertaining a group of friends.

Those present were Janet Hopperton, Cathie Reeves, Eleanor Kay Kidwell, Buddy and Bonnie Hodges, Janet Ann and Philip Leming, Darryl Sargent, Wayne Clifton, Marty Staton, Cynthia Straton, Nancy Deister, Linda Deister, Beth Struve, Mrs. Sarah Hodges, Mr. J. Deister and daughter, and Mrs. Reeves and two children.

Games were played and refreshments served.

Fertilize Lawns Now

Now that weeds and wild grasses have been killed by the frost, fertilizer may be spread, says Joe Claxton, County Agr'l Agent. For the average lawn 15 pounds of 5-10-5 or 6-8-6 for 1,000 square feet of surface may be scattered.

For a good lawn it is important to spread fertilizer every year, and November is a good time for it.

Executive Committee to Meet

The Executive Committee of Simon Kenton P. T. A. will hold a meeting Monday night at eight o'clock at the school, according to Mrs. Russell Kiser, publicity chairman.

FIRE CASUALTIES

The deaths by fire in Kentucky of six children ranging in age from 3 months to 7 years in a 24 hour period last week brought a warning from State Fire Marshal Ray Hunsaker urging parents not to leave small children unattended even for a few minutes. He also urged extreme caution in the use of kerosene and other inflammable materials.

He attributed three deaths in Louisville and one in Pittsburgh to children being left alone. Three other children ages 2, 4 and 7 years, were burned to death near Burlington as a result of kerosene being thrown on live coals in a heating stove.

Accidents cost Hunsaker [illegible] deaths on children under 15 years than all childhood diseases combined. Fire [illegible]

. . . and a potential taxpayer died, too!

HERE'S SOMETHING for every community to keep in mind when those new multi-billion dollar superhighways are in the planning stage –

Land next to a railroad is often ideally suited for industrial use. Put industries on it and you create new job opportunities and new sources of tax revenue for your community. Everybody benefits!

Under these conditions, this land is a valuable community asset. However, through oversight, this asset can be "killed off" completely and forever by putting a new highway too close to the railroad. For most industry must have easy, economical access to rail service and this is impossible with a highway in between.

The time to protect and preserve this community asset is when the highway is being planned. And it is easy to do. Wherever possible, simply leave an adequate strip of land for industrialization between the existing railroad and the proposed highway. This property immediately becomes doubly attractive to industry – for it then can offer modern rail service on one side and access to a modern highway on the other. You and your community will benefit.

OAK RIDGE

Winter was a long time getting here but it has finally arrived, much to the delight of the children and the discomfort of adults. The world is beautiful early in the morning after a fresh snow.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thompson and children spent the Thanksgiving holidays visiting relatives in Lexington and Nicholasville, Ky.

Mrs. Ozella Perry became ill Wednesday and spent the holidays at home, in bed. She is feeling better after the rest.

Mrs. Louise Elliott has been caring for her mother, who is ill.

John Riggel killed hogs Thanksgiving. That seems to be a custom of several people in this neighborhood. I'd hate to get into all that mess on a holiday, but they couldn't have picked a better time as far as the weather is concerned.

The Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions and the Lottie Moon Christmas offering will be observed at Oak Ridge Baptist Church from December 3-7 with services at 1:30 p. m., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and at 7:30 p. m. Thursday and Friday.

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden death of Albert Asch, Ludlow. He was the brother of two of our friends and neighbors, Charles Asch and Mildred Bryson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tallent and family of Winchester and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mattix and daughter, Brenda of Lexington spent Thanksgiving with their brother, Chester Tallent.

The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crist Lipscomb scared them half to death last week when he ate 25 baby aspirin. He recovered after receiving a big dose of milk of magnesia at the hospital.

Mary Atney, who is in nurse's training at Bethesda Hospital, visited her parents on Klette Road, over the week-end.

Rev. David Cooper closed the revival services at Oak Ridge Baptist Church last Sunday night and returned to his post as Chaplain at Corpus Christi, Texas. We all enjoyed meeting Rev. Cooper and hearing his splendid and inspiring sermons. We want to welcome the many visitors who attended the services and invite them to return and worship with us.

GLENCOE

Mrs. Mintie Snow and Mrs. Georgia Noel received word their cousin, Mrs. Atha Perry, of Lusby Mill, passed away at Owenton Hospital, Saturday morning.

Mrs. Richardson's parents spent Thanksgiving day with them.

Mrs. Janie Alcorn has been very sick the past week.

Mrs. Violet Cook and son and daughter from India spent the weekend with her brother, Mrs. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kemper are receiving over the birth of a daughter at Owenton Hospital last week.

Mrs. Ann Maddox and Mrs. Sallie Maddox were shopping in Cincinnati, last Thursday.

Mr. Sarah Neill has been visiting her niece in Covington, the past week.

Mrs. Bertha Stephenson has been sick the past few days. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Bobbie Snow spent the weekend with his parents and his sister. He reported he liked college fine.

It is generally accepted that people should maintain in later life the weight that was ideal for their height and bone structure at age 25.

IT'S HERE

Winter is really not here until December 21 but the past few days, especially last Wednesday, warns you to get ready for winter. Check your cars for anti freeze, also any pipes you have that might freeze on a cold night. Of course we may have a mild winter, but some of these weather men we have around say this is going to be a real bad winter. We sell anti freeze, tire chains, snow shovels, furnace coal shovels, game traps, gun shells, hunting coats, pants and caps. When that cold wind blows you will find you need another heating stove to help out. We have them, all sizes and prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Arnold bought a very nice gas heater made in the form of a grate. Brewster installed it for them. Brewster and Red have been doing some wiring, putting in wiring for clothes dryers and an outlet for a deep freeze. We do a lot of these small jobs that electricians don't have time to do. Several came in today getting extension cords and daylight bulbs, also fluorescent fixtures for stripping tobacco. It looks like the tobacco will come in case so the farmers can bulk it down, [illegible] so there will be a lot of it stripped before Christmas. The representatives from the warehouses are out soliciting tobacco, mostly from the Carrollton and Erlanger markets.

If we could shop around and see who would give us the most for our tobacco, then we would know where to sell it. This is the way so many do me—they price what I have to sell and then try other places to see how much cheaper they can get it, but when they see the quality and all you get at CONRAD'S for your money, [illegible] buy here. Stanley Parker came after 2 4 fluorescent lights for stripping Tobacco. This is the way to strip tobacco, the light never changes, no matter what [illegible] outside, sunny, cloudy, day or night the tobacco always looks the same.

Thanksgiving is over and we are knocking at the door of Christmas, only a few days left and all of us have a lot to do. We are going to try to have a nice assortment of gifts, a nice selection of wheel goods, and a few small toys, a variety of small electrical appliances for the ladies and gentlemen. A Sunbeam electric razor for her to use on legs and under arms, a Sunbeam razor for him is the fastest and easiest of all, a Sunbeam mixer, toaster, iron or skillet, a GE steam iron and a radio are two of GE's top gifts. We have a nice selection of billfolds for all the family.

To save fuel in winter and help keep you warm we have all types of window fabric in 28, 36, 48 inch widths, for your windows and doors. We have several kinds of weather strip and Mortite caulking for stopping all the air cracks. Freeman Bryant, who owns the Pruett apartment, had us put in a storm window glass and also bought several tools, as he owns a farm down at Florence. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Switzer, down on Station Road, bought a Warm Morning coal heater. Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Needmore St., also bought a Warm Morning coal heater. We set them up today.

Mr. and Mrs. Petty, over in Kenton county, bought a white porcelain coal kitchen heater. Joe Wilson, also from Kenton, was here today. This cold spell has caused so many people to have break downs in their heating systems and water pumps. We sold several extra heaters, coal, gas and wood, [illegible] electric, to help out. If people would buy two medium size heaters and put them in different rooms, instead of trying to heat the whole house with one heater, they would have a warmer house with less fuel for less money. Heat circulation is a funny thing to figure and that is what you have to have if you heat a house.

Cold weather causes heating problems, but we can take care of most of them. [illegible]

[illegible] Mr. Courtney [illegible] on Salem Creek Road [illegible] a 275-gallon fuel oil tank. [illegible] the fittings.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hume [illegible] it was with someone else, but when [illegible] they had bought a portable Hamilton Beach mixer from Red. These are very useful and not so heavy and unhandy to use as the large mixers. We just received a new shipment of [illegible] and GE [illegible]. We are starting to get out our Christmas toys and gifts for the family. We have so many useful items that would be very nice for gifts. [illegible] sold several pieces of Revere ware today for Christmas gifts, also sold several gift items which I had better not mention as someone might get wise.

Mr. Riley, who operates the Super Market over on Taylor Mill Pike, also a grocery on Richardson Road, bought an oil heater and a coal heater. Brewster set them up this afternoon. [illegible] stayed in the store and sold a little of everything such as weather strip, plastic window covering, gun shells, hunting coats, hunting pants, electric wiring material, pipe fittings, linoleum and butchering supplies as they are killing hogs now. We sold several gifts for Christmas [illegible].

Now is the time to get gifts put away and that will be something off your list. We have already put away [illegible] [illegible] Don't forget [illegible] CONRAD'S for Christmas needs.

Phone Survey On By Hebron Group

New Subscribers May Affect Rate Increase

The Public Service Commission have taken under advisement the proposed rate increase requested by the Cincinnati Bell Telephone Company at a meeting held in the group in New York. The Commission submitted a financial statement with the present operating and load figures together with the revenue that it was anticipated would be derived from all rates after the new exchange at Hebron is installed and fully operating were presented. The Public Service Commission will make their own investigation into these financial statements and only after they are thoughly analyzed is tentative increase will be granted subject to apply only after good service is proven.

The Hebron Business Mens Club stated that the reason that the rate increase is proper evidence before the Public Service Commission at this time is so the Consolidated Telephone Company can complete negotiations for a longer lease to finance the Hebron Exchange so it is not necessary to apply by June 4 1957 to the Kentucky Public Service Commission for another increase until after the Hebron Exchange is completed. Not only in the Hebron area but all over Boone County of which a while desire phones, but who have been unable at present to get one. The last several hundred letters have been received and the Public Service Commission are anxious to know exactly how many new subscribers there are in Boone County who still want telephone service therefore the time has been extended for writing to the Hebron Business Mens Club, Hebron, Ky. and giving them this information together with the exchange on which service is requested. The new rate increase is somewhat dependent upon the number of new telephone subscribers as the more subscribers there are the smaller the rate increase should be.

Film On Bible to Be Presented at School Gym, December 17

The Bible speaks Today is the theme of the 13th annual Worldwide Bible Reading program arranged by the American Bible Society and the Bible Society of the World. This year a special emphasis on the use of the Bible in today's world and its importance in the family life of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana. Walton is one of these communities. The pastors and representative laymen of the three churches are working out the details for the town and surrounding area. Various citizens will be appointed at different times during the period ending at the beginning of next summer.

Already, the Bible Reading benchmarks for the period Thanksgiving to Christmas, have been distributed by the churches and contain portions of the Gospel of Luke, in a special version for the daily reading now being distributed through the doors of the restaurant and mail. These portions are for everyone who will use them in daily reading and have readings until the end of January, all in the same gospel.

A Bible display has been exhibited in the window of The Union Light Heat and Power Company, and will shortly be moved to a window in the Dixie State Bank. This display will show some of the work being done by the Bible Society to help people of all races to have the Bible at cost, in their own tongues.

A film, "Our Bible—How It Came To Us," will be shown in the gymnasium of the Walton High School. All people in the community and surrounding towns are invited and even urged to see this film at 8:00 P. M., Monday, December 17. Make plans to see this picture—it is free. The whole program is for no other purpose than to promote and encourage the use of the Bible for personal devotional purposes, and—in the home and in all possible places of community life not for church members only, but for all people to find out that "The Bible Speaks Today." Watch this paper for other news of future programs. Read your Bible today!

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Not Unmixed Blessing:

This big federal highway building program is not an unmixed blessing for the farmer of Kentucky.

We are reminded by Uncle Sam that while many farms will be improved in value by good roads—and it will be easier to get to town—some farmers will suffer, too.

They reason that the demand for labor on these new roads will attract any a man who tilled the soil. That means that farm labor will be scarce. And when labor is scarce, wages go up.

Kentuckian Is Named:

Not many Kentuckians are being named to top federal jobs these days. But President Eisenhower broke the drought when he selected Dr. Lawrence G. Derthick to be the new federal commissioner of education.

Dr. Derthick now calls Chattanooga, Tenn., home. He's a native though of Hazel Green, Ky.

The next step is for the Senate to approve the appointment. There might be some fireworks.

We're Tough:

That recent Kentucky-Tennessee football game drew the admiration of a Washington sports writer.

In telling the readers about the game the story was placed on Page One. And the headlines read, "Tennessee Wins 20-7 Over Tough Kentucky." The story went on to say that Tennessee fans had many an anxious moment.

All of which is fine to relate, but we wish that Kentucky had conquered tough Tennessee.

High School Grads:

Kentucky high school grads—those who complete their prep work in February—might be interested in joining the Coast Guard and still go on to college.

You can get the details by writing the Coast Guard, 1300 E St. Washington 25, D. C.

The crop of sweet potatoes is expected to be 22 percent smaller than last year.

In All Things, God

Dr. Foreman

THERE is far too much in the famous eighth chapter of Romans to think about in the small space of one column. So one sentence from it will be quite enough food for thought: "We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him." (Rom. 8:28.) Readers familiar with the old King James translation (made in 1611) will notice that the new translation is different. The old version read: "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God." Which translation is right? The letter to the Romans was written in Greek, of course. We do not have the original letter. But we have discovered some Greek copies of it in manuscripts much earlier than any that were known back in 1611. The oldest and best of these have exactly what the Revised Standard Version accurately translates: "All things but God is the subject of the sentence—it is God who works for good in everything, it is not things that work for good.

"In Everything, God . . ."

Christians who take the Bible seriously do not believe in a far-away God. It is quite true, as the Psalm writer said, there is no getting away from God. The wildest dream of the most fanciful space fiction writer might come to fruition on the last, lost planet God would still be there. God is in all space, and in all time, too. However big the universe may be, God is greater still. But the God revealed in the Bible is not one who set the universe going as a man winds a watch and then lets it run. God is in all things, and all things are in God. This is not so hard to believe. What does call for a rugged faith is the Bible belief that God is in things we find painful and bad, not in good things alone. If we do not believe this, then we are always haunted by the fear—What if the evil in the world is too much for God? What if eventually he is overwhelmed by a universe he cannot control? What if God's intentions are better than his abilities? Have no fear. God's Word assures us: God is not on vacation, he is at work in everything, small and great, in pain and in delight.

"God Works for Good"

The Bible writers never say that all things are good. Some things are good. Some things are bad, some things are just the opposite of what they ought to be. This raises a most difficult problem, the problem of evil. No one knows the answer to it; but the Bible never takes the short-cut of denying that evil exists. What the Bible does say is that even in evil things God is at work for good. Joseph, son of Jacob, as a boy was sold into Egypt as a slave by his criminal brothers. That was not a good thing. Years later, however, the man Joseph said to his brothers, "You meant it for evil, but God meant it for good." If it had not been for that wicked act (and some others besides) the family of Jacob would have perished of starvation. History is full of illustrations of the ways in which God brings good out of evil. Tyranny and cruelty are not good things; yet if George III had been a more enlightened and just king, the American colonists might never have thought of achieving freedom. The "World Wars" were terrible things; but they did rid the world of some tyrannies. Many events in our personal lives which were frustrating or tragic, have been seen in later years to have been part of God's wise plan. After all, what kind of God would our God be, if he could not bring good out of evil?

"With Those Who Love Him"

The new and better translation of this great sentence from St. Paul brings out another point which Paul's Greek suggests: God is at work with those who love him. He works for them, to be sure, but that is not the main point here. God's work is never a substitute for the work of those who love him. Loving God is no excuse for not serving him. Loving God is not mere sentiment, a sort of warm glow, a happy feeling about the "man upstairs." Love of God, like love of neighbor, is a serious thing. It calls for devotion, hard work, even sacrifice. To go back to the story of Joseph, God brought good out of evil; but suppose Joseph himself had been lazy, selfish and careless? God's work calls for many partners—not sidewalk superintendents, not slaves, but partners in the everlasting Love.

The speed of modern life tempts us to think of our goals and to forget the importance of a single step. But the men who scale the highest peaks concentrate on one step at a time.

There seem to be plenty of folks with noble aspirations who rarely go to Church. Some of them may reach their goals; but legion are the others whose "one false step" starts an avalanche of broken hopes.

The steady, sincere, every-Sunday church-goer usually has noble aspirations and a far better chance of achieving them! He has learned to study each step by faith and prayer . . . to test the ground on which he treads . . . to climb with others in a common quest of the summits of life.

Destiny depends on the next step!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

STAFFORDSBURG

Barry Thomas Bankers is under the weather. We really miss him when he is not at church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Elmore visited his sister who is quite ill in a hospital in Cynthiana, Ky. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hining entertained at supper in honor of their son W. H. Hining who celebrated his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Elkins visited Mr. and Mrs. Elbie Kerney on Sunday afternoon and helped to pack some candy and cookies to send to the two Kerney boys who are in the armed services.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Timmons enjoyed visiting recently with Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Allen.

Had the Church house fairly well filled today. Our pastor is disappointed us on the fact that so many folks have regular attendance. We are glad to see the new faces quite often. There is talk of a new church building. One of the best ways to get that is all the folks can be there (Amen).

Prayer & Testimony meeting for Dec. 5th. May have Easter Supper and Exercises and bring in Friends. Our Jr. choir is getting good fast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kearney called on Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Duncan on Sunday afternoon. They also entertained their children and grandchildren.

Kentucky Called "Timber State" In New Booklet

A new booklet recently released by the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics is designed to attract new industries to the state, it was announced by Dean Thomas P. Cooper.

The publication, which was developed jointly by the Kentucky Department of Economic Development and the Kentucky Bankers Association, is entitled Kentucky, the Timber State.

The booklet points out that Kentucky has more than 12 million acres of timber. More than 12 million acres or 45 percent of the total land area of the state are occupied by commercial forests, it says.

"For some years certain types of timber in Kentucky have been growing more rapidly than they have been cut. As a result, there exists in the State today a large supply of wood that could serve as a dependable raw material source for much additional manufacturing.

The 24 page booklet may obtained free from the Department of Economic Development, Frankfort, or through the Kentucky Bankers Association.

WHITES TOWER

Hog killings are well under way in the Tower this week.

Old Brer rabbit suffered a heavy bombardment the past week but he must be older than ever as the bag of the hunters in this vicinity was way short of 55.

The writer has five little Persian Kitties for anyone who will give them a good home. They are beauties so call early if you are looking for some good mousers.

Mr. and Mrs. Inabitt and Mrs. Ryle of The Tower attended services at Calvary Baptist Church in Latonia Sunday morning.

We still have some of those nice Hampshire shoats about 3 months old or better. You had better come next week for a choice of males or females. We also have for sale a large male hog.

Tommy Brumback and two friends from Independence were beating the bushes on Bide-A-Wee Saturday, results not cottontail.

The Pentecostal Church of God at Whites Tower will complete their Church in the spring. Services have been held in the basement the past year. Some nice folks are in charge of this work and we wish them every success.

Water Supply In Winter

Keep water readily available for hogs during the winter, says Grady Sellards, U.K. Agricultural Extension Service hog specialist. This is particularly important in a season when water consumption by hogs is lower. Water supplies should be located near feed supplies, Sellards says. The more hogs have to walk for water, the slower their gains.

Warm drinking water, taking off the chill. Research shows this will help hogs to faster and more economical gains.

Pond water a considerable distance from the feed source is a poor substitute for proper watering. This is particularly true in extreme cold weather, Sellards says, when pond surfaces may ice over.

PLYMOUTH...

...AMERICA'S MOST WANTED CAR!

Most stared after, most longed for car in the country! And no wonder! If you're like everybody else, you'll find it hard to believe that this breath-taking new Plymouth is a low-priced car instead of a much more expensive make. And when you see and drive it you'll prove to yourself that this Plymouth is actually three full years ahead of anything in its field. For example, there's the unequaled comfort of Torsion-Aire Ride that tames any road . . . the surging power of the mightiest V-8 in the low-price 3—now up to 290 hp . . . the extra safety of Total-Contact Brakes. See this car today and you'll see the car of 1960—at your Plymouth dealer's.

Don't miss Plymouth's two great new TV programs: Lawrence Welk's "Top Tunes and New Talent" and "The Ray Anthony Show." See TV section for time and station.

Let's Get Ready!

December is here and now we have to get ready for Christmas We have most of our toys out and have been selling some every day We have put back a lot of large items that they could not take home I made a good buy on several items for Christmas, like a Sunbeam razor for $21 50, some pop up toasters for $12 95 chain-drive child's tractor for $15 95, a portable hand mixer for $18 95, a GE steam iron for $14 95 a large wood body stake wagon for $18 50, a large steel body wagon with metal sideboards for $18 50, a Roadmaster bicycle in all sizes with horn and streamers for only $39 50 We have Pyrex cake covers dishes wood bowls bath scales, hotplates plastic clothes baskets, plastic buckets, plastic wash pans dish pans step-on cans, and paper cans We have lots of wheel toys and the better class of toys and gifts as we do not have room for all those small toys We will have games books and dolls

[illegible] went down to the farm and brought up 20 [illegible] which I had ground and mixed with [illegible] and minerals This makes a real feed for [illegible] we are fattening I took this feed down to the farm about five o'clock, Bill was at the [illegible] him to unload the feed [illegible] causes, but Bill opened a [illegible] and there were two ewes and [illegible] December 28 These will be ready for the [illegible] market The tobacco market [illegible] have been doing for years [illegible] other items According to few [illegible] have advanced [illegible] should bring $1 [illegible] per pound which I believe it will do in a year or [illegible] the raising of enough [illegible] about 40 years ago we got $1 00 per pound [illegible] very few states grew burley and the demand was greater

Brewster and I set up a new Perfection fuel oil heater for Mr and Mrs William Justice, down on Church Street Brewster went up to Miss Kate Roberts, on Chambers Street and overhauled her [illegible] kerosene range Brewster gets all kinds of jobs to do and never grumbles even if he doesn't want to do it He has put in 14 years of service for most all of you, from this store He says he must be getting older as he gets tired now—he is very reliable and we all depend on him I have another man Charles Worthington, who is Fire Chief and also very reliable We try to keep him in the store trying to satisfy the ladies and taking all the complaints and service calls, keeping up the stock and lots of other duties It takes a long time and lots of hard work to make a good hardware clerk [illegible] Worthington has been with me ten years [illegible] worked at this job myself for the past 20 years and it gets harder every year to give you the service and make enough money for the expenses and investment I have here, with all the competition Everyone tries to sell hardware

Every store, service station, stores of all types sell hardware as a side line So the hardware merchant has it very rough, not with the other hardware dealers but the other small businesses who sell hardware, gloves, toys electric appliances fishing tackle gun shells and lots of other items that the hardware dealer has always sold Roger Arnold was in today fresh from the tobacco market [illegible] pounds that averaged $64 89 This is the best so far and there have been several [illegible] their averages We can always tell when we have a good tobacco market by the way everyone [illegible] their warehouse sale ticket [illegible]

[illegible] This morning Mrs Fahey over on Green Road called and wanted to trade me an oil heater for a coal heater I told her what I had and sent it over by Reil and Beach They brought in her oil heater now I have several small used oil heaters Brewster sold [illegible] Sargent who operates the R T Heizer farm a large coal heater for one of the houses over at the farm We sold [illegible] different kinds of plastic covering for the windows and doors We have screen glass [illegible] [illegible]

National Foundation Lends Aid to Local Fight Against Polio

A check for $2,675.00 has been received by the Boone County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to provide financial aid for local polio patients, it was announced this week by Mrs. R. J. Schwenke, the chapter chairman. This makes a total of $10,500 advanced to this chapter this year.

Mrs. Schwenke said that this county was one of nearly 500 in the nation where local March of Dimes funds are insufficient to cover polio-fighting needs.

"The chapter's present financial plight is the result of the assistance it has given in the past to eight patients who have required, an still require, costly care to give them a chance to recover their fullest capacities," Mrs. Schwenke explained.

"In the Salk vaccine, we now have the means of bringing about the eventual control of new polio," she continued. "Age restrictions are governing the use of the vaccine have now been removed. It is safe, potent, and effective and can be administered by any physician. Those who have not yet received it should begin the series of inoculations immediately to be protected against paralytic polio next year."

"However, we must not forget those victims of polio for whom the vaccine come too late," Mrs. Schwenke emphasized. "Our job in the conquest of polio will not be finished until polio is finished as a cripples of human beings and until further mass appeals to the American public are no longer necessary, to insure the care of those who have been stricken."

"Until that day comes, it is reassuring to know that the whole March of Dimes organization stands behind our chapter, ready to give financial assistance in case we must have it. The resolve of the National Foundation has always been to see to it that no one in our country need go without necessary care in the treatment of polio for lack of funds."

Victim's Condition Is Reported As "Good"

A pair of young Boone county men were in jail Tuesday as suspects in the holdup and shooting of a 68-year-old Union garageman, Monday night.

The suspects, Allen Runian, 22, of Walton, and William Centers, 19, of Verona, were captured by state police less than five minutes after Walter Craddock, and his son, Harry, were held up and robbed of $61.00 at the combination garage and service station on U. S. Highway 42, Union.

The father was reported in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington, with a bullet wound in the right upper arm and side. The slug embedded itself close to the spine.

The Craddocks told police the holdup men, waring handkrchif masks and brandishing a .22-caliber rifle, entered the garage with the announcement, "This is a stickup."

The older Craddock was seated. He said he started to rise from the chair to get his wallet when the rifleman fired. The slug knocked him back into the chair. He again rose and took $61 from his wallet.

The holdup men fled from the place to their waiting auto, then drove toward Covington.

Troopers Chester Henderson and Edgar Estill at that time had stopped a motorist for a traffic violation one mile east of Union. Trooper Estill was talking to the driver when Traoper Henderson, seated in the cruiser, spotted an auto which apparently had started to pull off the highway to make a reverse turn. However, the driver decided not to try the turn and sped past the cruiser. Trooper Henderson gave chase.

The fleeing auto reached speeds over 100 miles an hour in the four-mile stretch of U. S. 42 before the trooper forced the driver to pull over.

Indicted by Grand Jury

Tuesday, the two young men, Centers and Runian, were indicted by the Boone County Grand Jury on charges of armed rabbery. Conviction could carry either the electric chair or life imprisonment, according to W. P. McEvoy, county attorney.

Harry Craddock, identified Centers as the bandit who shot his father, Walter, during the holdup. At last reports, Mr. Craddock's condition was reported good.

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

Now that the big quadrennial show is over it is well to look back at some of the true facts about agriculture. While conditions on the farm may not be as bad as sometimes pictured they are worse than the non farm population is often led to believe. The main thing that worries the farmer now is how to adjust the rising cost of production to declining income. Typical examples are these.

PRODUCTION COSTS. For each $100 paid for TAXES in 1947 the farmer now pays $165, for every $100 paid in 1947 for INTEREST on real estate debts he paid $177 in 1955, and for each $100 owned on SHORT TERM DEBTS then he now owes $226, on which he pays higher interest rates. His total interest payments on all debts is expected to reach $1 billion by January 1957. For each $100 needed for LIVING and OPERATING in 1947 he now needs $115. Of all the things that farmers have to buy only those produced on the farm, such as seed, feed and livestock, have declined in prices. Among manufactured items bought, only fertilizer prices have kept in line with farm prices. MACHINERY COSTS are up 40 percent. Since 1947 the farmer's total PRODUCTION EXPENSE increased from $16.8 billion to $21.6 billion.

FARM INCOME. During the same period, receipts from farm marketing dropped almost a billion dollars, cutting the amount farmers had to spend for non-operational purposes from $13.2 billion to $7.6 billion, or almost half. The parity ratio of prices received by farmers compared to prices paid by farmers dropped two points since last year and now stands at 82 percent.

Even with agriculture in this plight many non-farm people still think that farming is a highly subsidized, inefficient business. Had the same conditions existed in any other major segment of our economy the capitol would be overrun with lobbyists and pressure groups.

OFF THE FARM THEY GO. Because of the unfavorable conditions in agriculture there was a net movement of 125,000 people away from Kentucky farms between 1950 and 1954. This migration is desirable from the standpoint of agriculture but is detrimental to the state unless gainful employment can be found in Kentucky for those who are being forced off the farm. Small country towns without industrial payrolls are already feeling the effect of declining population. It is for that reason that industrial education and development is so important to all of us in Kentucky.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Way of Love

Lesson for December 16, 1956

THERE are many ways of living in this world. There is the way of ruthless pride, with the motto: "The world is my orange and I intend to squeeze it." There is the way of the fool, who never thinks beyond today and is always surprised to discover that what he sowed came up and what he didn't plant did not come up. There is the way of the lazy man who can't be bothered, and who always takes the easiest path no matter what. There is even the way of hate, the way of bitterness and suspicion, going always downhill until dead trees without leaf or fruit. Everybody knows that these are types of them. Christians know. Even those who are not Christians know that the way of Christ is the way of love.

Dr. Foreman

Other Ways of Love

But what is the Christian way of love? There are many ways in which one to use the word "love." There are ways of love which are not the Christian way. For instance, there is sometimes called love, which consists really of fondness for things or people that are lovable. For example, a young woman stands at an altar and promises to take a man for better, for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health. But she does not really hear the vow she makes. And if the man turns out to be poorer or worse than she thought, she looks up a divorce lawyer. The way of Christian love does not demand blind affection. But, on the contrary Christian love can make an unlikely and inspiring person lovable. Saying "I love you" for one's own benefit can mean no more than "I want you for my exclusive use." Christian love "does not insist on its own way," it does not ask, "What can you do for me?" but "What may I do for you?"

Blessing the Universe

Another way of love, sometimes mistaken for the Christian way, is no better than sloppy sentimentality. Sometimes it comes as a vague feeling that everything is very nice in a very happy world. A minister once preached on the text, "Ye that love the Lord, hate evil." After the sermon a lady told him she didn't like that sermon at all. She had been brought up to believe that love was always right and hate always wrong. Love is always right, yes; but that does not mean we can feel free to love what is evil. If we love the good we shall not love what destroys good. Sometimes this substitute for Christian love takes the form of a general feeling of good will toward the world in general. A well known American wrote shortly before his death, "I bless the universe." Now it is certainly better to bless the universe than to curse it. But blessing the universe seems a curious sort of thing to do. Are you really blessing all of it, sir? Cholera and polio, stars and atoms, and typhoons and germs, criminal and judge, saints and sinners, miracles and murderers? We have to be careful that we don't love the universe in such a way that whatever happens seems exactly right!

The Christian Way

The Christian way of love is not totally different from these other ways; but it is vitally different. It is inspired by God in the first place and it mirrors his love. It goes beyond the lovable. It is more than an exchange of love. It even goes out to one's enemies. American history gives us two striking illustrations of the actual power of love, in two men on opposite sides of the American civil war. The two enemies, as they once were, are now honored more perhaps than any other two in that tragic conflict: Lincoln and Lee. Each was a man who could do nothing else but stand by his conviction and fight even when other men were ready to give up. Their love was not the child of indifference, selfishness or cowardice. But it was Lincoln who coined the phrase "charity toward all and malice toward none," — and he meant every word of it. It was Lee who, later as president of a college, refused to let any one in his presence speak evil of his former enemies. It is not the men who are the best haters, but those who show what Christian love is, who have greatest power over the hearts of mankind.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Not Pretty

This is the time of the year when these Christmas seals go on sale the end to help fight tuber cular. The other day Uncle Sam put out some figures on the spread of the disease and we hate to say it Kentucky ranking is not good.

We are in the bottom bracket along with Oklahoma Tennessee Virginia and New York some of the southwestern states are in the same situation but it must be remembered that a lot of visitors go to these dry sunny lands for health. Therefore Kentucky's picture is not a good one and the fight against the killer goes on.

Chelf Speaks

Kentucky's Congressman Frank Chelf is an outspoken young man. No matter department of government frightens him. Latest target of his greatest fire is the State Department.

The other State said that it would admit Hungarian refugees on a quota basis. That leaving him pretty hot on escapees.

Recently visited the Fifth District lawmaker to complain about the State Department's attitude toward Communism. He proposed to direct more and stronger fire on the question until now time for the public that there is permanent peace in the country.

Political Notes

Governor Happy Chandler's former secretary is the latest to come out for Senator Earle Clements in Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. State Democratic Chairman Sherman Cooper would like to see him on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He has an outside chance of getting the assignment. Thruston Morton the Senate's oldest has been Chief Executive Morton by his friend who have noted his service with the GOP. About six years ago Lyndon Johnson of Texas was given the same nomination when he was the Republican.

Although Congress is not in session Pebble Gregory is hard at work. The Committee Wiss said Mr. Gregory getting ready some new laws for the opening meeting.

Post Office Window

Farm population of the United States has been declining about 600,000 persons a year since 1949.

will lose a seat or two, and California and Texas will gain. To Boone County historian Kentucky has had only two lawmakers who were named president pro tem of the Senate, John Brown in 1804 and John Pope in 1811. None since then. Reply to Kenton Countian Congressman Carl Perkins ranks high—fourth—on the House Labor Committee which has 30 members.

BOONE GARDEN CLUB

The December meeting of the Boone County Garden Club will be held at the Town and Country Restaurant on Dixie Highway, on December 11, at 12.00 noon. The hostesses are Mesdames James Cleek, H. S. Hawes, A. A. Liggett, and Charles Luchte.

The feature of the meeting will be a book review by Mrs. Barton Johnston, of Covington, on a subject appropriate to the season. The group will sing carols and Mrs. Lillard Scott will play the piano.

Members and thir guests will exchange gifts and a prize will be given for the most attractively wrapped gift. This is a luncheon meeting, and it is hoped that all members will be present.

INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to report the good attendance at the fellowship supper at the Staffordsburg Church, Saturday evening. Each one enjoyed the oyster soup and pie very much. After the lunch we all enjoyed singing of many of the good old time songs. Folks you are missing a good evening of real fellowship, when you miss coming to our meetings they are open for any and everyone, who wish to join us.

The farmers have appreciated the rainy days this past week, on account of getting their tobacco ready for market.

FISH AND GAME RELEASED BY KRA

A report on the number of fish and game released so far this year was issued this week by the Kentucky Reclamation Association and the Division of Strip Mining and Reclamation.

Total fish released include 37,800 shellchacker bream; 3,200 adult bluegill and 150 topminnows and 150 killifish amounting to 41,300 for the year.

Birds released include 508 quail and 208 chukars, for a total of 716. Not included are 500 chukars released by the KRA at the Badgett strip mine site in Western Kentucky. Paul Gannon, director of the Strip Mining and Reclamation Division said.

The Kentucky Reclamation Association, with the cooperation of the State Department of Fish and Wildlife, also released 500 additional chukars in the Western Kentucky section.

A game bird, the chukar partridge ranges between the quail and pheasant in size. Reports so far on the new bird in Kentucky have been very satisfactory.

In Mason county, where 400 women are members of the Homemakers Association, each family represented takes a daily paper. The total membership read 1,600 books and 3,000 magazines the past year.

For roasting and frying, 2½ to 4-pound birds are preferable, for broiling and barbecuing, 1½ to 2½ pounds are better, says the University of Kentucky poultry department.

Today Brewster and Beach set up a new all porcelain Warm Morning coal heater for Tom Carr, his daughter and his sister, Miss Johanna, who live together. I went to Hagedorn's to get an electric motor. I did not have the correct size for Evan Hance's stoker and I told him I would have one ready when he came from Farm Oil. On way back I stopped at Bob Woodward's and got 10 gallons of molasses to feed my sheep, then I went to the farm and when I drove up to the barn, Bob Slay back was loading the last of our tobacco to go to the market. We finished stripping December 10.

I opened the door to sheep shed and there were 11 lambs since Nov. 28. They are really growing. I came back up the road and there was Mrs. Anna McCabe who had been over where Omer Kite and Ed Kennedy were stripping tobacco. They're about finished. This year everyone is trying to get it on the market before Christmas. Then there was Albert Rosenstiel up by his barn talking to Brannon the Verona furniture maker. We have time neighbors down there, Grandma Lytton, George, Mr. Robinson and all the rest are right there when you need them.

Acreage Reserve Payments Not Due Until Harvest Time

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today that it does not expect to be in position to deliver payment certificates to farmers who participate in the 1957 Acreage Reserve programs of the Soil Bank until about harvest time for the latest of the crops for which compliance must be checked.

The announcement is made necessary by a regulation of the government which says it may not deliver payment certificates issued ...

... payments have been ... about ... time of ... payment ... is ... already ... harvested under the Winter Wheat Acreage Reserve. Today's announcement applies to all winter wheat and to all other basic crops with which to be eligible for payment certificates under the Acreage Reserve part of the Soil Bank.

Compliance with Soil Bank acreage limitations is in general on a harvested rather than a planted acreage basis. Therefore, in many instances compliance cannot be checked until harvest time. A further consideration is that a farmer to be eligible for any Soil Bank payments, must comply with all acreage allotments for corn base acreage established for his farm. This again requires delay of the final check until about harvest time for the latest of the crops involved.

Where only winter wheat acreage is involved the Department expects to be in position to start issuing payment certificates about the first of June. Where other acreages are also involved and multiple compliance checks must be made certificates cannot be issued until the eventual use of the latest harvested crop is determined.

Payment certificates may be redeemed in cash immediately upon receipt but all announced earlier (September 7, 1956 -USDA- 2664 561 certificates issued for participation in the Acreage Reserve for grains may not be exchanged for CCC-owned grain until AFTER the harvest season for that grain in the area of issue. This means that no 1957 certificate, no matter when received, can be exchanged for any grain until the end of the normal harvest season for that grain.

Fund-Raising Drive Starts January 1 For Boone 4-H Clubs

They will be telling about "Miss Boontucky Beautena," a registered Holstein calf from the Boontucky Holstein Farm near Burlington. W. J. Scott, manager of the farm, has had many prize winning Holsteins from his herd. J. H. Fedders Feed Company, Covington, purchased the calf for the fund-raising campaign with all funds and donations going to the benefit of the Boone County 4-H Clubs.

Glen McCormack, assistant County Agent, states that over 700 4-H Club members will be receiving donations starting January 1, 1957. "Miss Boontucky Beautena," will be given away Saturday, February 9, at 10:00 a. m., at the Florence Grade School gymnasium. Many other prizes and an interesting program has been planned by Bill Fedders, for this occasion. Funds raised will be used to sponsor 4-H activities in this county, such as project awards, 4-H Trips, and scholarships.

The public is asked to support our 4-H Club boys and girls in this campaign.

"Miss Boontucky Beautena," a fine Holstein calf is on display at the J. H. Fedders show room, 16th and Russell Sts., Covington, who, with the Boone County 4-H Council, are sponsoring the program.

Kentucky Tobacco Markets Continue To Set New Highs

Many Kentucky burley tobacco growers got Christmas presents in the form of healthy checks nearly a week early this week when the statewide price average hit a new all-time record high of $65.07 per hundred pounds.

Twenty seven state markets sold 16,241,984 pounds of burley for $10,568,299.57 for the surprising average price which eclipsed the December 5 high of $64.89.

Sixteen markets topped the $65 mark with Shelbyville highest at $65.81 on 1,140,718 pounds sold for $750,753. Cynthiana was second with an average of $65.77 on 519,056 pounds sold with payments of $341,377. Carrollton was third at $65.61 on 1,001,756 pounds sold for $657,238.

Sales increased at many of the markets as growers seemed to be finding the weather perfect for stripping tobacco and bringing it to market.

The highest average ever paid resulted at Shelbyville, when it rose 18 cents to $65.81, and the average at Carrollton was also an all-time high for that market as it rose 64 cents from the previous high.

Schooler, divorced from Inez Schooler in Campbell Circuit Court, was ordered to pay $30 a week for the support of his eight children. A bench warrant has been issued for his appearance.

The grand jury found the county jail to be in first-class condition. It recommended minor repairs to the county infirmary, including inspection and recharging of all fire extinguishers.

MEMO TO A HUSBAND:

Some people think of the expense we leave behind when we die as just last expenses. Actually, they are our widow's first expense. As soon as you or I shut our eyes, the woman we are married to, whom we call "wife", becomes our "widow". Not much change in the sound of the word but, oh, what a difference between the meaning. Let's make sure we take care of our widow's first expenses by all we can here to do so.

The program will be administered over a four-year period, and will involve the role of school administrators in the community.

The four fellows will work as a team in conducting the research, and their work will be applied toward a doctorate degree. The lone recipient to [illegible] with a sociology major [illegible] ties. A lower interest rate on school and highway bonds. For Kentucky motorists: Action by Uncle Sam to add more miles of inter-state four lane highways in the state. For the Army Engineers: Congressional help to get more money for Ohio Valley water control. And for all-Kentuckians: A merry Christmas and a reduction in federal income taxes.

Help To Keep Christmas Safe

Let's try to keep the Christmas holidays truly joyous in Kentucky, says the Boone County Health Department. Every year accidents caused by carelessness kill and injure many of our citizens. By exercising a little care, we can help prevent loss of life and property.

Christmas decorations help to create a holiday atmosphere. They can also be very helpful in starting fires. When you get your Christmas tree, help to keep it fresh and moist by keeping it in water. When you are ready to set it up, make a fresh saw cut across the base of the tree and then put it in a container of water at wet sand. Refill the container daily. Don't place the tree close to the fireplace or a stove. Sparks or intense heat can soon make an evergreen tree into a flaming torch.

Candles should never be used for lights in the tree and should be placed at a safe distance from it and other flammable objects when they are used as decoration. Electric strings of lights should be carefully checked for breaks in the fuses or insulation and one must be careful not to connect too many [illegible] outlet. This may cause an overload on the circuit and the fuse will blow. If it should, this is a warning which should not be ignored. It means that too much electricity is being drawn through the circuit and the wiring is overheated. Never try to correct the situation by putting a penny or anything in the fuse [illegible]

Metal tinsel should never be used over wire for tree lights. This can cause a short circuit which may start a fire. Electrical toys should be handled with care and manufacturer's directions for their use carefully followed. Transformers to reduce house voltage are available for use with toys. These should be properly enclosed in an insulated container. All electrical toys should carry the Underwriter's Laboratories seal of approval.

Ornaments of glass or thin metal are releasable to those of inflammable materials such as celluloid or paper. Remember, however, broken edges are sharp and can cause nasty cuts. If you use artificial snow around the base of your tree, be sure you purchase the kind which has been treated so that it is flame resistant.

When package opening time comes around keep a metal wastebasket handy in which to put wrappings. Flimsy tissue paper and ribbons carelessly discarded after a fine place for a fire to start.

After your Christmas dinner, be careful in storing leftovers. Fires aren't the only way to dampen holiday spirits. Food poisoning can make you miss all the fun too. Turkey, dressing, egg and milk preparations should be stored in small quantities which can be chilled thoroughly quickly. This way the growth of germs which cause food poisoning can be prevented.

Take a few precautions and have a glorious holiday season. Afterwards, remove the day Christmas tree from the premises and so keep on observing fire prevention throughout the New Year.

When God Came

Lesson for December 23, 1956

ONCE upon a time [illegible]

Dr. Foreman

Why Should God Come to Earth?

[illegible]

"It is hard [illegible] wisest angel. You will not believe me, but there are [illegible] place called Earth [illegible]
Lord's will. They do not even care to do it. Some there are who doubt even that he exists. And they revile him, and call him stupid and cruel."

"I do not believe it," said the young angel."

"It is true none the less," said the older one.

"Then the Lord will descend in flame and destroy that evil place," said the young angel. "Amen," said many, then to her.

"It has come to my ears," said one who had not spoken, "that the visit is not in wrath but in mercy.
God is going to win back to himself those who have rebelled."

"But how will he do this?" became the echo. "He has tried before, these many times, [illegible]
ing who remembered. He has sent messengers by [illegible] spoken by poets and prophets, [illegible] heroes and saints. He has shown men what is good, and if men will not believe Moses and the prophets, would they listen to the voice of the very God?"

How Shall the Most High Come to Man?

"And if he came in his infinite glory, how would they endure the sight?" asked another. "Angels veil their faces before him. How shall sinful man look upon the face of God and live?"

"I have heard," said one, "that he is to go as a man. I don't know how this can be, but this I have heard."

"What manner of man?" said some. "And how will he come? Good fathers give spoke [illegible] he will be born in a king's palace. Men find it not easy to believe [illegible] best. If God appears in [illegible] the highest [illegible]
be easier to believe it is He. [illegible] enlisted here to help us, [illegible] of men, dispensing wealth to all.

Then they will believe."

The Word Became Flesh

"But God, who had not [illegible] counsel of his angels, took [illegible] strange way. He came [illegible] golden cloud but in darkness only a star for light. He came [illegible] to palace or university but [illegible] woman untaught, unknown, not to a home of wealth but to a stable so poor they could not pay for a room in a village. He sent [illegible] no crowds to witness his coming, if certain poor shepherds heard of it, and if a few wise men from a far land came to see, it was not the mother who told the [illegible]
The ways many doors into [illegible] life, and some of them are [illegible] in shadows. And when the angels sang, that man who lives in [illegible] of sight should never be [illegible]
God who feared to walk [illegible]
by the way.

Boy—I can hardly wait!

I've got my stocking hung [illegible]

bursting full of all sorts of [illegible]
be a candy cane sticking out [illegible] always is . . . and a watch should [illegible]
the tip of the toe.

And then . . . the tree! I don't think there's a prettier sight on earth than a Christmas tree. And all those presents underneath, wrapped up in bright colors and tied with ribbons.

Then Mom and Dad and my sister Ellen and I will get dressed, and we'll go to Church. That's one of the best parts of Christmas. For Mom and Dad always say that Christmas is the celebration of Christ's birthday. I love the music in our Church at Christmas—"Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and all the other carols. When I hear them, I feel all filled up with joy, and I know why our minister says that Christmas is the happiest day of the whole year.

Boy—I can hardly wait! And I just hope that your Christmas is going to be as merry as ours!
